WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Oratorical Contest in Mears' Hall Conducted by the Patriotic Order, Sons of America.

In Mears' hall last evening an entertainment was enjoyed by several hundred members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The affair was in the form of an oratorical contest by members of the several camps. The prize was a gold badge, offered by Professor Daniel A. Phillips and J. Archie Jones, of Camp 178. As adjudicators Rev. H. H. Harris, of Taylor; Rev. Thomas Bell and Rev. F. P. Doty were selected. The subject of speech was "Patriotism," and each speaker was allowed a specified number of words. Professor Phillips presided. The contest was very close. C. E. House, representing Camp 232, made a good impression with his pure English. William Knight, of Feltville, representing Camp 527, lost because of bad enunciation; William Neyhart, of Camp 492, failed because of broken sentences. Hugh A. Howell won the contest on his general excellence. Mr. Howell's effort was quite poetical, and breathed great patriotism. He was given the prize and commendation of the adjudicators. Others who were in the contest are: J. U. Hopewell, who recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade"; Mr. Hopewell, of Camp 177; John H. Hogwell, of Camp 314. During the evening there were several other entertaining features. The Columbian songs, sung by Fred Jones in several capacities. J. A. Jones, J. Peifer, Fred Glander, Warkin Morgan and Thomas Morgan also assisted in the entertainment. Among the visitors was the Patriotic Guard, a band of young men from the South Side.

After the entertainment the assembly adjourned to Red Men's hall, a short distance up the street, and while there enjoyed a repast which Camp 178 had prepared. Much credit for the great success of the affair is due to the work of Professor Phillips and Mr. Jones. Their effort was well repaid by the evident enjoyment of the Sons.

SUCCESSFUL EASTER SALE.

Home made "useables" were sold last evening at the Simpson Methodist church at a greatly successful Easter sale, conducted in the church basement by the Ladies' Social circle. Placed at numerous points about the room were booths in which the several articles were sold. A large circular apartment in the middle of the floor attracted a great deal of attention. In this apartment a grand orchestra furnished music during the evening and refreshments were served in the ante-rooms. J. P. Acker is treasurer of the fair, which will be repeated this evening. Mrs. H. C. Wallace is president of the society and was part manager of the sale. The different departments were: "Mystery," Misses Grace Acker and Bertha Whetling; candy, Misses Augusta Blair, Mason, Floyd, Godshall, Herrmanns and Shively; aprons, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Whitman, Mrs. Edgner and Mrs. Mendenhall; books, Mrs. H. C. Wallace; goods, Mrs. M. L. Blair, Mrs. E. L. Bertine, Mrs. G. L. G. Field, Miss Fern and Mrs. Miller; chocolate, Mrs. M. L. Blair; hats, Mrs. M. L. Blair; Leter, Mrs. Cleveland, Miss Harwin and Missie Rinker; china department, Mrs. J. P. Acker, Mrs. R. J. Williams, Mrs. Frank Shedd, Mrs. Eugene Dale; refreshments, Mrs. F. C. Hall, Mrs. Frank Beck, Misses Hattie Fellows, Gertrude Fellows, Nellie Fellows, Lizzie Fellows, Edna Saxce, Margaret Van Camp and Ethel Rinker. Frank Hagen attended to the receipts at the door. This evening it is expected that even a larger crowd than last evening will attend.

BRUTUS NOT JUSTIFIED.

St. Brendon council's literary circle met last night, and after an interesting debate on the subject, "Resolved, That Brutus was justified in killing Caesar," decided in the negative. The debaters were: Affirmative, Messrs. McLane, Duffy and O'Malley; negative, John Hurst, John J. Durkin and Thomas Hurst. Other numbers of the programme were an essay by William Mooney, a reading by Edward White, an essay by Mr. Cusick, a reading by David Reese and a declamation by Mr. Gibroy. The entertainment was very enjoyable.

FIVE BOYS IN JAIL.

The manner in which the young boys who stole money from the Oxford office were captured is rather peculiar. In the drawer where the money was stored was a sum of $3 in counterfeit money. A few weeks after the disappearance of the coin, Patrolman Lowry observed the young fellow who had passed the spurious coin in a central city store. He noted their names and discovered the place where the money was taken from. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western officials, through their foreman, W. B. Thornton, caused the arrest of five young fellows who were given a hearing before Alderman John last evening. Officer Lowry was present. He recognized the boys and sought to remind them of their meeting in the store. But despite all statements by the officer each boy claimed that he had never met the blue coat, neither had they any trouble in any candy store with any counterfeit coin. The sad thing about it is that the boys are all under 14 years of age. They refused to commit themselves, however, and the alderman committed them to the West Side station house. They slept there last night, two in one cell, three in another, in the station house.

PROGRAMME OF BANQUET.

Next Monday evening the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will banquet in the St. Charles hotel dining hall. About forty young men have signified their intention of attending. The programme for the most grand affair ever given is as follows: President's address, Charles E. Daniels; toastmaster's response, W. A. Price; "Our City," Emerson D. Owen; "Law," John R. Edwards; "The Press," Wallace G. Moser; "Politics," E. W. Thayer; "The New World," David Risca Cocker; "Patriotism," D. A. Davis; our visitors, Michael J. McAndrew. Mr. McAndrew will represent St. Brendon Council Literary circle at the banquet. The society met last evening and completed arrangements.

THE MONEY DIVIDED.

Last evening in the Scranton Street Baptist church the victorious Philharmonic choir met and made a final division of the $200 prize money. Leader Evans was given a $20 chair and $10 in money. The rest of the money was divided equally among the choir members after $5 each had been taken out for the Scranton Street Baptist and the First Welsh Baptist churches, wherein the choir held rehearsals.

At a meeting in Wyoming National bank in Wilkes-Barre yesterday morning all the business bearing upon the consolidation of twenty-six water companies distributing between Minooka and Nanticoke inclusive, was transacted and these various corporations were merged and one mammoth company with a capital stock of $5,000,000 was formed.

The new company is the Spring Brook Water Supply company, and the officers who were elected yesterday are: President, Hon. L. A. Watres, of Scranton, ex-lieutenant governor; secretary, Thomas H. Havemeyer, the New York sugar king; L. A. Watres, Hon. Leonard American and J. P. Simpson, of Scranton; and in view of the fact that many of the people of Wilkes-Barre are interested in the new enterprise, two representatives from that city will be added to the directors. President Bourne of the Singer Manufacturing company, is also interested in the company.

WILL GET PURE WATER.

The city of Wilkes-Barre will derive a blessing from the consolidation; her people will have pure water to drink and the water now furnished there will be utilized solely for steam and hydraulic purposes. The three principal companies affected by the transfer are the Spring Brook Water company, supplying all the towns and villages between Minooka and Plymouth; the Crystal Spring Water company, supplying the town of Wilkes-Barre; and the Hanover Water company, supplying the towns below Ashley. The Spring Brook Water company has incorporated within it smaller companies supplying the various villages, such as Mages and the other companies have in like manner a certain number of smaller concerns within them; that is how there are twenty-six companies represented in this enterprise.

BASE BALL NOTES.

McLoskey, of Louisville, has eight twirlers on his pitching staff.

John Wagner, of the Pittsburgh club, has been elected to the position of club captain of the Atlantic league.

"Bugs" Holliday thinks this season's batting will be the strongest yet reported that city in twelve years.

The Baltimore players are hitting the ball hard in their practice games, and Doyle is playing a snappy game at first.

They worked the cayenne pepper orange case on Dad Farnsworth's head the other day in Jacksonville, Kid Gleason shot an injection of tobacco sauce into an orange and passed the delectable plate to Dad. Poor old Dad cooled off the flame with a string of sulphurous words that shot from his face, and when he declared he would hit the man who put up the job on him.

Calhoun Miller prescribed a remedy for Roger Connor's rheumatism that cost Roger to walk up and down the stairs of the highest building in and find, and when the exercise two hours a day will cure. Roger tackled a twelve-story building in St. Louis, and after scaling the stairs for a week, Miller took pity on him and gave the snappy away.

Though Captain Dick Harley, of Georgetown, will not play professional ball the season of '96, it is probable he will enter the professional ranks in '97.

Boswell, the University of Pennsylvania pitcher, who last year pitched a few games for Philadelphia, being pitched out of the team, has signed to manage Cape Town this season. Boswell is the man who had the most peculiar delivery. McAleer will probably take his place among the left-hand batters this season. He practices his peculiar work at Hot Springs and is doing well.

THE CAUSE OF LAGRIPPE.

Now Admitted to Be from Derailed Digestion.

Careful observation in many cases of La Grippe extending over several years has gradually developed the fact that it is very generally caused from dietetic errors.

In other words, during the prevalence of La Grippe, persons who suffer from indigestion or stomach troubles are almost invariably victims of the epidemic.

This can be readily understood when you remember that the germs of any disease cannot gain a foothold in the system of a man or woman who is blessed with perfect digestion because perfect digestion means perfect health, and such persons can bid defiance to La Grippe or to any other prevailing epidemic.

For this reason physicians have recently introduced into their practices the new preparation known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as an almost certain preventive of La Grippe, as it removes by giving perfect digestion and assimilation of the food so fortifies the system against disease that all danger of this epidemic is reduced to a minimum.

So popular have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets become that it is claimed within a month after their introduction to the public one hundred and ninety-three druggists in Detroit, Mich., alone were selling it and today they pronounce it the most satisfactory remedy they are selling for all forms of stomach derangement.

The price at druggists is but 50 cents for full sized box means perfect health, and is not a cure-all, but is recommended as a cure for Dyspepsia and stomach troubles only.

SAME OLD SAD STORY.

Young Girl Ruined by Cheap Dance Hall and Its Consequences.

Mary McLoughlin, a West Side girl, was arrested by Chief of Police Briggs, Wilkes-Barre, in that city yesterday and sent on here at the request of her mother, who wants to have her confined in the House of the Good Shepherd.

When arraigned before Alderman Miller the girl told the whole story of her downfall, which is the same old stereotyped tale in which the opening scene is laid in a cheap dance hall. The second in one of those pest holes which openly advertise their character with a "Furnished Rooms for Rent" sign and the third in an out-and-out brothel.

The woman whose lodging house she frequented was arrested last night by Special Officer Beers on a warrant issued by Alderman Miller himself. Her name is Lottie Hays and her place is at 629 Blicken court, rear of Sixth street. She was held for a hearing this afternoon. The McLoughlin girl says that her handling places are a notorious resort. She is willing to testify to this and was accordingly held in the station house as a witness.
