BORNE TO THE GRAVE.

Mrs. Morgan Morgans buried at Brookside yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Morgan Morgans, of South Wyoming street, took place yesterday afternoon. The cortege wended its way to the Welsh Presbyterian church on South Church street, the route being by way of Park street, to Seventh avenue and South Church street. The procession was a large one and consisted of some of the principal citizens of the city and all the old Welsh settlers came to pay a token of respect to one who had been a resident and a neighbor in the true sense of the word.

The services in the church were conducted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. W. J. Lewis, he took for his text the words of St. Paul in his epistle to the Philippians, 1: 21: "For me to live in Christ and to die is gain."

The Rev. Benjamin Evans, of Hyde Park, a former pastor of the Congregational church in this city twenty-six years ago, who read and prayed, also bore testimony to the Christian life of the departed Mrs. Morgan. His words upon the future life were full of consolation to the family in their bereavement. The Rev. D. L. Davis, of Edwinstown, also one of the former Carbon-dale pastors, laid a tribute on the casket of the departed.

The pall-bearers were the six sons of the deceased, namely, Walter S. Williams, L. Thomas, Edwin, Oscar, and Frank. The floral tributes were beautiful and consisted of lilies and bouquets.

The out-of-town friends at the funeral were: Walter Morgan, daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, William Reynolds, William Morgan, Mrs. Simon Thomas, Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. Anna Williams, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morgan and children, of Dorrance, N. Y. Interment took place at Brookside cemetery.

MRS. KEARNEY BURIED.

Interment made in St. Rose's Cemetery on Monday.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Kearney took place from her residence on Scott street, Sunday afternoon. Services were celebrated at St. Rose's church, the Rev. J. J. Griffin officiating. The funeral was largely attended. The pall-bearers were: Peter Mullany, Harry Jordan, Martin Gordon, Patrick Gilboy, Robert McHale, Thomas Lynch, Anthony O'Hara and Stephen Nathan. Among the out-of-town persons in attendance were: Mrs. McLaughlin and son, John, of Guardville; Mrs. Gordon and son, Patrick, and Mrs. Dunlavy, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kearney, Michael Kearney, John Kearney, Thomas Munley, Patrick Lally, M. Kearney and Mrs. Martin McDonnell, of Archbold, and Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Durkin, of Mayfield.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elbert, Mrs. and Miss Wherry and Mrs. Charles Norris, of this city, are in Promontion today, attending the funeral of Miss Patrick. David Lewis, of Hyde park, has returned from Rochester, N. Y., where he has been on business since Friday. Rev. J. W. Malone, of Scranton, and Rev. John Longman, of Washington university, were visitors at St. Rose's rectory yesterday.

Alderman S. J. Jones has decided to retire from the health department, for which he has acted as secretary. The special alderman will always take a deep interest in the sanitation question.

Morse Aikman is home for the Easter holidays.

A. C. Purple and family, of Oakland, will remove to this city shortly.

Miss Nellie Connor, formerly of the Leader office, has accepted a position in the office of the city treasurer.

Miss Bessie Goodrich has returned to her home, after spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. Julia Doolittle, of Jackson Hill.

Mrs. J. E. Thomas and son, Willie, South Washington street, are visiting relatives in Olyphant.

Miss Sarah Melvin, of Scranton, is the guest of Miss Katie Peck, on Brooklyn street.

Samuel Dawson, a resident of South Main street, had his left hand badly lacerated while at his work in No. 3 mine of the Delaware and Hudson on Saturday.

James Place is the new night watchman at the Miners' and Mechanics' bank.

Mr. and Mrs. John White, of Simpson, spent Sunday with the latter's parents.

Scrofula in the Eyes

As well as in every other form, it is permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I had scrofula in my eyes and tried several physicians but found no cure. My wife persuaded me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had a choking sensation, was troubled with night sweats, and had dyspepsia in my very severe form. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla two weeks the choking spells and dyspepsia troubled me less. I have now taken several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and find that I am entirely cured."

WILLIAM L. PAVNE, Berryville, Virginia.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only True Blood purifier prominently in the public eye. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HER MONEY MISSING.

A New Tenant Accused of Stealing $140 from a Pocket-Book.

Mrs. Mary Jay, wife of Albert Jay, residing on South Main street, complained to the mayor yesterday afternoon that she had $140 stolen from her pocket-book and accused John P. Knoll of the theft.

The Jay family were to move out of their present residence in a day or two, and Knoll and his family were to move into the house on the hill. No damage was done.

JERMYN.

The "Night Hawks" of Carbondale were entertained by "Camp Restless" of this place at the handsome residence of L. Bell, on Main street, Saturday evening. The young men spent a very pleasant time in the many social diversions furnished by their host.

The condition of Division street is fast becoming serious. Every time comes a large sized stream of muddy water from the surrounding hills to make the street its bed. Something should be done at once, or we will have another flood.

SHAFER CASE CONTINUED.

Frank Shaffer, one of the mountain murderers, was called for trial yesterday afternoon before Judge Lynch, but was continued until tomorrow morning.

DEATH OF MRS. STARK.

Mrs. Frances R. Stark, widow of the late James R. Stark, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Edward W. Starbuck, 32 1/2 High street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning of heart disease, aged 70 years.

BRIEF NOTES.

The coroner's jury in the inquest held in the case of Michael Polander, the Polisher, smothered by culm at Luzerne borough, rendered a verdict of accidental death.

AVOCA.

The many friends of Miss Loua Dornmuth assembled at her home on the West Side on Saturday evening in honor of her nineteenth birthday.
