SACRED SNAKE-EATERS.

Religious Sect in Oklahoma Dines ou Sanctified Serpents. Guthrie, Okla., April 2.—Considerable excitement exists in Garfield and Woods counties over the formation of a new and weird religious sect, styled the Perfect and Immaculate Body of Christ. Over 400 people have joined the strange sect and the interest is in-creasing. Meetings are being held nightly in a big farm house.

The preachers call themselves "sanc-tified flesh-eaters," and say they are proof against poison. At a meeting Friday night one preacher, named "Red" Shearer, brought forth a box containing four or five snakes. He al lowed the reptiles to wind around his neck and then bit several pieces of flesh out of them. These delicious morsels he placed on a plate and passed them among the congregation, bidding his flock to eat the morsel and be saved. Twenty-five people, including six or seven women, obeyed his mandate.
At the close of the sermons the peo-ple gather around the altar and embrace and kiss each other. Great in-dignation is felt among the majority of citizens over the strange rites of the new sect, and trouble is expected.

Washington, April 2.-Chief Hazen, of the secret service, has received infor-mation from his agent in New York of the arrest of Emanuel Ninger, the maker of one of the most dangerous series of counterfeit notes known to the ser-vice. Ninger, it is said, has been en-gaged since 1879 in the manufacture of $10, $20, $50 and $100 United States notes with the pen and brush of such excel-lence as to deceive even experts.

Up to within a short time there has absolutely no clue to either the er of the notes or the shover. It is reported that Ninger has made a full confession, and evidence found at his house in Flagtown, N. J., confirms his The arrest is regarded as one of the most important in the history

These reports were followed by a talk by Rev. Dr. Manley S. Hard on "Church Extension." He said that since the society had been founded the Wyoming conference has given 328,754. Dr. Hard presiding, and was celebrated by the series of the president, secretary, treasurer and archivist were called for after responsive reading. Dr. Sprague, the archivist and librarian, was the only one of these officers not elsewhere engaged, and reported the receipt of books of interest, papers, etc. Dr. Sprague said that his time is so much occupied that it is impossible for him to attend to the duties of archivist and accordingly he moved the election of Rev. J. K. Peck, of Kingston, who is much interested in these matters. The first address was by Lowell Harding and was a history of Methodism in Binghamton. The next address was by Lyman C. Floyd, of Scranton, on some of his associates. Among those he spoke by were Zacharlah Paddock and Dr. George Peck. Mr. Floyd was followed by Rev. Henry Wheeler, D. A careful examination of the legislation of Methodism for the past two or three decades showed it to an exceptionally fine and did much to give it an impetus. The contemplation of the future warrants the assertion that our posterity will pronounce us the history making generation of the church. The various great changes made in the operation and government of the church were spoken of as well as the resulting changes. This was termed the period of changes, the foundations of Methodism being made stronger and deeper than ever before and the men who lived ism being made stronger and deeper than ever before and the men who lived from 1860 to 1890 will be considered the par-excellence of Methodism.

the others will show how the history of the Babylonians, demonstrates in a wonderful manner that the statements in the book of Genesis and in fact all of the books of the Old Testament, are true. His lecture yesterday afternoon opened with a description of Assyria and Babylonia and of the sights and wonders abounding in these countries. The rediscovery of Nineveh and Babyonia and the decciphering the ancient lonia and the deceiphering the ancient languages of these people which must necessarily be very slow.

The greater part of the address was divided into two parts, decipherment and excavation. The ruins at Persepolis were mentioned in particular and of the remains of inscriptions found.

How many persons spent years in this work and how at last their efforts were crowned with success, and how independent transla-tions of the annals of Tigiath Plieser I compared almost exactly. He spoke of the conducting of excavations in order to secure remains of inscriptions and of architecture. The expedition sent out under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania and the excellent results were particularly spoken of. In closing he summarized by telling of the remarkable results of these decipherments and of the excavations and of the importance attached to them for perannuated ministers. According to the needs of these worn-out gentlemen the funds are divided equally among three classes. The first will receive about $150, the second about $125 and the third about $100. The board is the third about $100. The board is made up of a pastor and a layman from each district, as follows: President, J. C. Leacock; W. W. Corbin, secretary; A. J. Cook, treasurer; A. D. Decker, W. M. Hiller, I. N. Shipman, W. The opinion also prevails that there will be but slight opposition. The names of the gentle-men who will undoubtedly receive this honor are Rev. John G. Eckman, of Scranton; Rev. Manley S. The lay electoral delegates will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. There is no doubt that George S. Bennett, of Wilkes-Barre, and A. I. Decker, of Waverly, will be elected, although other names will be placed in nomination.

The Hogan investigation committee met this morning for a few minutes and again this afternoon. Mr. Hogan was present at these sessions. He told a Tribune representative just before the afternoon session that as yet no charges had been preferred against him. He could not be found after the last eargest. ast session. The committee is exceedingly desirous that Mr. Hogan retract some of his statements or that he apologize. This Mr. Hogan absolutely refuses to do. He made but few state-ments before the committee and in evments before the committee and in everything is exceedingly guarded, saying that what he has to say he will utter before the conference where all can hear. He is accompanied by a stenographer, but she has not yet been allowed to attend the sessions of the committee. Mr. Hogan says that he has not changed his position in the least and is just as determined as ever to expose the existing evil. The members of the committee are very guarded and refuse to disclose any information. Mr. Hogan, however, is not so closemouthed and talks quite freely in about the same strain that he has previous to the conference.

In addressing the committee Mr. Hogan said in part: "After ten years of July 5.27 5.27

In conclusion he said that the need of a forward movement is very apparent. Advance toward the prohibition of liquor is too slow, considering the cruel results it is producing in the disorganization of social life and its crime producing operations. A common love for humanity should arouse the church to personal duty along the line. The Christian Sabbath is in danger of being gide-tracked by socialism and avarice. The decalogue is being trampled upon by the millions. He asked to have the charge reduced by making a new charge of Lackawanna. There are more than fifty Epworth leauge chapters in the district with a membership approximating 4,000.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 2.—Of the 153,092 shares traded in at the stock exchange today 87,900 shares were American Tobacco. The opening dealings in the bacco. The opening dealings in the stocks were attended with the greatest excitement the first sales being report-ed at anywhere from 95 to 91, eight thousands shares changing hands at the drop of the chairman's gavel. Between ten and eleven o'clock over 55,000 shares of the stock were traded in leaving less than 35,000 shares for the remainder of than 35,000 shares for the remainder of the session. The stock after the enriv advance of 5¼ per cent. fell to 89½, recovered to 91% and receded to 89¾, which was the closing price yesterday. The Tobacco incident as will be seen practically killed speculation in the gen-eral market, but the tendency of prices was upward until late in the day when a recession of ½a% per cent. ensued. In the reaction Sugar, the Grangers, Louisville and Nashville, General Elecric. Leather preferred and Western Union scored the greatest losses. Near the close Manhattan on trading of 1.100 shares bounded up to 107% and specula-tion left off quiet, but in the main firm. Naturally the sensational development in Tobacco were much discussed. The action of the directors in view of the passing of the dividend last December led to unfavorable comments and mem-bers of the stock exchange were not at all backward in expressing their disapproval of the policy of the Tobacco management. There was some talk of bringing the matter before the governors of the stock exchange. Speculation closed quiet and in the main firm. Net changes show gains of 1/2 per cent, Manhattan leading. Sugar, Ten-nessee Coal, Distilling and Cattle Feeding lost %a% per cent.
