DOINGS OF SOCIAL WORLD

Lent Has Prevented Any Events of Particular Moment. QUIET PERIOD IN PROSPECT. An Extra Assembly Monday Night and a Women's Ball at Drifton Tuesday Night-Arrivals and Departures told in Personal Paragraphs.

It is the hope of several weeks ago that the quiet of Lent would be counteracted by events to follow that permeance and self-denial has shattered, for there is no immediate prospect of small or large affairs, either which would be a delight in any form.

Miss Hunt, Miss Archibald, Miss Welles and Miss Belin are the committee which will arrange for the assembly. The chaplains have not been announced.

Monday night Drifton ball to be given by Dr. George Wentz will be one of those splendid and elaborate affairs which are permitted to attend rarely in a given season.

Scranton Lawn club has not yet reached an agreement with the Platt road for the use of the homestead property on Jefferson avenue.

Man M. P. Sando of the committee that has the charity ball in mind said yesterday that the arrangements for the event are all practically made.

Devil Sant lodge of Ivorites held an entertainment Wednesday evening. R. H. Williams presided and Miss Norma Williams acted as accompanist of the evening.

Recorder of Deeds Charles Huester was forty-two years old Tuesday and received the congratulations of friends.

GOOD FRIDAY CEREMONIES

Mass of the Presanctified Celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral. THE SERVICES AT ST. LUKE'S. Hundreds of Worshippers Spent the Day in Adoration of the Crucifixion of the Savior-Many of the Churches Were Bare of Decorations.

Good Friday services at St. Luke's Episcopal church were impressive and solemn. Morning prayer began at 8 o'clock and was attended by a large congregation.

At 10 o'clock the commemoration of the three hours agony of the Savior on the cross was begun and it was not over until three o'clock.

At 7 o'clock in the evening the stations of the cross were begun, and the conclusion of the service a sermon was preached by Rev. John Loughran.

At the end of the mass the people knelt before the cross in the sanctuary and offered up their prayers.

Services in the evening. At 7 o'clock in the evening the stations of the cross were begun, and the conclusion of the service a sermon was preached by Rev. John Loughran.

COMING ATTRACTIONS. Demand for stags entertainment, and the public apparatus grow ever more particular about the quality of entertainments.

Leavitt's vaudeville and spectacular extravaganza "Spider and Fly" will be the attraction at Davis' theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.
