INCIDENTS OF THE CANVASS ident.

More Than a Quorum of the Republican National Convention Elected - Speaker Reed's Strength Also Considerably Increased.

New York, April 12.—Ex-Governor McKinley during the past week ap-pears to have kept pace with other can-didates in the presidential race and easily leads all competitors. In the easily leads all competitors. In the week ended yesterday 60 delegates to the Republican national convention have been chosen, bringing the total up to 496, or about 40 more than a shorum. A slight relative gain has been made by ex-Governor McKinley, his strength now being given as 256, or nearly 52 per cent. The other candidates stand as follows: Speaker Reed, and Courter Morton 66. Sometor Alli-82, Governor Morton, 66; Senator Alli-son, 37, Senator Quay, 26; Senator Cul-tom, 12; Governor Bradley, 2 Fifteen votes are in doubt.

WEEK'S ELECTIONS. Washington, April 12—The work of electing delegates to the Republican national convention is now more than half finished. Sixty delegates were chosen during the week just ended, in-creasing the number so far elected to 496—about forty more than the quorum needed to nominate a presidential can-didate at St. Louis. The results of the week's balloting can be briefly sum-marized. State conventions for the election of delegates-at-large were held in Oregon South Carolina, Bhoile in Oregon, South Carolina, Rhode Island and Utah. Two states, Oregon and South Carolina, declared in favor of Major McKinley's candidacy, and instructed their representatives to vote for him at St. Louis. Mr. Reed's friends controlled the Rhode Island convention and elected a delegation which, though uninstructed, will earn-estly support New England's candi-date for the presidential nomination.

Utah's six delegates will go to St. Louis with no decided preference.

Another 'favorite son,' Governor William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, formally entered the race for the presidency during the week; but his canvas has already been sericusly handicapped by the loss of six of the eight delegates so far chosen in Kentucky, to his for-midable rival across the Ohio river. In Hillinois Senator Cullom also lost two more delegates during the week to Ma-jor McKinley. States in which dis-trict elections were held include Massa-omisetts. M'KINLEY'S GAIN. The elections of the week show a slight relative gain in Major McKinley's strength as compared with that of the combined opposition. In the table of delegates elected published in The Tri-bune on April 5, it was shown that out of 436 then chosen Major McKinley had the support of 222-a fraction less than 51 per cent. Today, out of a total of 496, he appears to have the support of 256, or nearly 52 per cent. The strength of the combined opposition, including ten votes in doubt, was a week ago 214. Today, including tifteen votes classed as doubtful, it stands at 240-a relative loss of about 1 per cent. Next to Major McKinley, Speaker Reed has been the chief gainer by the week's elections. His total has increased from 68 to 82. Senator Allison has gained one vote and Senator Quay four votes, Gover-nor Morton and Senator Cullon have made no progress since April 5.

WAR ON M'KINLEY.

A. P. A Still Resent the Cold Shoulder Given by His Managers.

indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—The proposed organization of the members of the American Protective association against McKinley is taking shape in the lodges of the order in this state, and it is said an attempt will be made in the state convention to prevent the instruction of delegates and also to inture the delegates at large with a second fluence the delegates at large who are opposed to the Ohio man.

A leader in the American Protective association said today that the refusal of McKinley managers to recognize the order had determined them to make war against him in the national convention and at the polls if he was nomi-nated it was intimated that the American Protective association men were willing to unite with the friends of ex-President Harrison in an effort to prevent instructions for McKinley and that overtures to this effect had, or would be made.

HARRISON TALK Indiana Delegates Are Preparing to

Anderson, Ind., April 12.-Winfield F. Durbin, a prominent Republican and a delegate from this district to the St. Louis convention, publicly says that the delegations instructions to support McKinley only meant to vote for Mc was not presented or supported from some other state. Since there has been so much Harrison talk Durbin believes that Indiana will go solid for the ex-of political affairs by the fact that Durbin today received a communication from Benjamin Harrison and Durbin says he is to meet him next week by appointment. Durbin is on the state central committee and an authority on Harrison information.

ROSWELL FLOWER'S BOOM.

Through the Albany Argus It Blooms in the Spring.

Albany, N. Y., April 12.—Replying to the question, "If not Cleveland, who?" the Albany Argus tomorrow launches a presidential boom for ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower. In the article advocating Mr. Flower's qualities for the office, the Argus says:

"Mr. Flower is not a seeker after the Democratic nomination, and whether he would accept it at this time when the prospect, it must be conceded, is not the best, is a question which the Argus cannot answer. It is not be-lieved that he could refuse the call of the party that has repeatedly honored him in the past."
In conclusion the article says:
"Could Mr. Cleveland do a more generous act than to write a public letter, as he seems soon to be expected to do, declining to be a candidate himself, and naming his old competitor in the race of 1884."

IS HARRISON TO RUN?

Significant Announcement by W. T. Durbin, a Close Friend of the General. Anderson, Ind., April 12.-Winfield T. Durbin, a delegate from this district to the St. Louis convention, yesterday said publicly that the delegation's in-structions to support McKinley only meant a vote for McKinley if General Harrison's name was not presented or supported from some other state. of political affairs by the fact that Durbin today received a communica-tion from General Harrison, and Durbin says he is to meet him next week

Three special trains, one from Scranton, one from Hornellsville and one from Jersey City, supplied by the Erie company, carried the delegates to and from this place.

Among the prominent railroad offi-cials present were Superintendent of Motive Power Mitchell, of the Erie; George West, superintendent of motive power of the Ontario and Western; Superintendent Maguire, of the Eastern division of the Erie, and Frank S. Gannon, superintendent of the Staten Island railroad. Others present were Shandy Maguire, not engineer of Ossanda. Shandy Maguire, poet engineer of Os-wego, N. Y., and "Uncle Ben" Hafner, of Port Jervis, the oldest locomotive engineer in the United States; also the engineer in the United States; also the clergy of the village, Mayor Carly and the board of village trustees. Clark Caskey, chief engineer of division 54, of Port Jervis, presided and the speakers were Judge N. B. Fullerton, of Port Jervis; Grand Chief Engineer P. M. Arthur, of Cleveland; Rev. M. Salley, rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, of Port Jervis.

ARTHUR'S SPEECH.

Chief Arthur was greeted with a storm of cheers when he rose to speak. He said in part:

storm of cheers when he rose to speak. He said in part:

What the country needs is a closer touch between the employer and employes; there is too wide a gulf between them. One of the aims of our order is to bring them closer together. We desire to put an end to the antagonism between capital and labor and we shall do that when the employer and employe alike live up to the spirit of the golden rule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." When we educate men to that standard, where they recognize that others have rights which we are bound to respect, the problem is solved. Let me tell you of some of the things accomplished by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. We have given railroad companies a more reliable and trustworthy class of engineers than they had before. We have code rules as to sobriety, etc., which our men are compelled to live up to or be discharged. In all its history of thirty-three years our order never countenanced a dishonorable or unlawful act by its members. Last year 372 men were discharged from the order for intoxication. I hold that no man has the right to step on a locomotive with human lives in keeping while under the influence of liquor, and no punishment is too sever for one who does so we are trying to rid the railroad service of unreliable men. In 1553 I was employed as an engineer on a neighboring railroad at $59 a month, firemen got $50 and conductors $40. We drew up a petition to the managers, couched in respectable language for more pay. What $30 and conductors $40. We drew up a petition to the managers, couched in respectable language for more pay. What do you think they did. They tore it up and ordered us all discharged. Ten years later the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers forwarded another petitition which was drawn up by the same men and was addressed to the same managers. The petition was granted and the engineers' pay was raised to $3,50 a day and the firemen's in proportion. Here let me say that in all its transactions with the railroad corporations we have never forgotten the firemen. We looked upon them as a part of ourselves and in advocating our claims advocated theirs until they effected an organization of their own and transacted their own business in their and transacted their own business in their own way. The Brotherhood of Locomo-tive Engineers has protected its members from unfair and arbitrary dismissals; has saved many a man from a drunkard's fate to be a comfort to his family and an honor to the community. It has $5,000,000 in death benefits and over a million dollars to needy members.

MISTAKEN PREJUDICE. MISTAKEN PREJUDICE.

There is much mistaken prejudice against labor organizations. If the commercial, moneyed and professional classes organize to promote and conserve their interests, why should not workingmen. I know that unprincipled and bad men sometimes get at the head of labor organizations, but an organization based on good principles, conducted by honest men for good ends, is the hope of the toiling masses throughout the world. But you say our order has had strikes. I admit it, and under the same circumstances we would strike again. I say, without you say our order has had strikes. I admit it, and under the same circumstances we would strike again. I say, without fear of contradiction, that had the railroad managers met us in the same spirit of fairness that we met them there would have been no strikes. When corporations are arbitrary, self-willed and stubborn, instead of being fair, then the only hope of labor is in coercion within the bounds of the law, and if they can supply our places we must retire. Today our organization is on the best terms with the railroads, as evinced by the presence here of so many railroad officials, and the favors and the courtesies extended in connection with this meeting. We want every engineer to do his full duty to his employer, then to stand erect in his manhood with the full consciousness of his equality with every other man.

INGERSOLL'S SERMON. The Great Orator Addresses the Congregation of a Chicago Church.

Chicago, April 12.—Robert G. Ingersoll this morning addressed the congregation of the Church Militant, composed of the major portion of the form-er adherents of the Fullerton Avenue Presbyterian church, one of the strongest congregations of that de-nomination in the city, and who, with their pastor, Rev. Dr. John Rusk, branched off into an independent or-ganization some months since as a resuit of opposition of the minority of the congregation to the introduction of radical changes in the conduct of the services, including the use of an instru-mental orchestra and the attachment to the church of employment, hospital, club house and other guilds.
As Colonel Ingersoll stepped to the rostrum, he was welcomed with ap-plause that lasted for over a minute. With the suggestion that while his hearers and himself might be traveling different roads, they were all trying to add to human joy and happiness, he took as his text the quotation from Shakespeare, whom he characterized as "the greatest of human beings," there is no darkness but ignorance, and for two hours spoke upon the ne-cessity of arbitration as a substitute for war, the need for new methods in the treatment of criminals, the desirability west for homes as a panacea for tenement systems, the question of divorce, the relations of capital and labor and the need of reform in the education of Havana, April 12, via Key West, Fla., April 12.—The insurgent forces operat-ing in many parts of the island have been aggressive the last week. Half a dozen towns in Havana province alone have been attacked. The troops invariably remain safely cooped up in forts, allowing the rebels full swing. All available Spanish troops are sta-tioned on the trocha, between Mariel and Majana to brevent the return of Maceo to Havana. The Spaniards are satisfied Maceo is doomed. Their purpose is not clear. Gomez is report-ed in the vicinity of the Puerto Principe line. One object of his march east is to receive arms and ammunition safe ly landed on the recent trip of the Commodore on the north coast of Camaguey.

Reports received from reliable sources state that General Melguizo. Colonels Molina and Tort, and others continue killing peaceable Cubans. Mel-guizo is said to have killed nine employes on estates in the vicinity of Campo Florido. Afterward boasting of the deed, he said: "The pacifics are the worst kind of rebels. All should be swept off."

NO CUBAN INTERVENTION. The Administration Has Not Agreed on

Any Definite Plan. Washington, April 12.—The report to the effect that Secretary of State Oiney had addressed to United States Minis-ter Taylor at Madrid a long note con-taining a proposition to be submitted to the Spanish government for the setfering the services of the United States government as a mediator between the governments of Spain and Cuba, is absolutely untrue and without any foundation in fact.

No proposition of the character mentioned or any other has been put in writing, nor has the administration outlined any definite plan of action or outlined any definite plan of action of indicated to the Spanish minister in Washington, the American minister at Madrid, or any other official what action intended to establish a complete alone intended to establish a complete to the looking. tion, if any, it proposes to take looking to the settlement of the Cuban question. Secretary Olney has authorized the most sweeping, complete, and emphatic denial of the whole story, and so has the Spanish minister.

The report was based altogether on rumors that have been floating about Washington for the past two or three days, and the falsity of which could have easily been ascertained upon application to the proper authorities. The truth is that the president and Secretary Olney have not completed their inestigation of the Cuban question, and do not themselves know what their Cuban policy is or will be.

MURDERERS ESCAPE

Bill and George Taylor Under Dath Sentence Break Jail.

BILL IS CAPTURED AT ONCE

Discovered by the Night Watchwan-A Pair of Blood Hounds Have Been Placed on the Trail of the Fugitive, Carrollton, Mo., April 12.—Bill and George Taylor, murderers of the Meeks family, sentenced to be hanged April family, sentenced to be hanged April 30, and Lee Cunningham, the latter also in jail, made an attempt to break jail last night. George succeeded in getting way, but Bill Taylor and Cunningham were captured. Night Watchman Shelton was in the jail at 8.20 and everything was all right. He went out in the back yard and was talkout in the back yard and was talk-ing to a friend, when he heard a noise at the opposite corner of the jail. He rushed to that side, reaching there just in time to catch Cunningham as he slid down a hose to the ground.

Bill Taylor was half way down and when he saw Cunningham was caught he cried to the night watchman that he he cried to the night watchman that he would give up and for him not to shoot. He then slid on down to the ground into Shelton's arms. He told Shelton that George was still on the roof. Shelton believed him and stood guard there to catch him as he came down. The alarm was given and Sheriff Stanley came out, handcuffed the two prisoners together, and took them and locked them in their cells.

PLAN OF ESCAPE.

PLAN OF ESCAPE.

A search was made and it was discovered that George had gone. Bill had evidently told the watchman that George was still upstairs in order to give him a chance to get away. An examination of the jail revealed the fact that a boit had been cut in the back of one of the cells and a bar knocked off. Next they went up on top of the cage, up into the garret, out through the scuttle onto the roof. They took a fifty-foot hose with them, fastened it on top of the roof and George Taylor must have been the first to go down, as no opportunity was given to down, as no opportunity was given to get down after the night watchman discovered their attempt to escape.

As soon as it was found that George was gone a pair of hounds were secured and they were put on the trail. They followed it to the back gate, but made no progress beyond to amount to anything. Young Leonard, of Norborn, a brother-in-law of one of the Taylors was here vestering. lors, was here yesterday. After supper he took a team out of a livery stable and drove out of town. He may have stopped at the jail gate and taken George in the buggy with him, but this is all conjecture. Parties are out looking for George and telegrams have been sent in every
