TALK ON CUBAN MATTERS

Senators Discuss President Cleveland's Probable Course.

ENTHUSIASM ON THE WANE

Further Action on the Recognition of Cuban Belligerants Will Be Left to the President-The Various Opinions Advanced.

Washington, April 12.-A careful can vass of the house of representatives on Saturday showed a complete cessation of excitement over the Cuban situation.
The sympathy of the members is still obviously with the insurgents, but some unexpected circumstances will be necessary to arouse them to action again.
The prest grant expression of composite. The most general expression of opinion on both sides of the chamber was that ongress had done its duty in adopting by an overwhelming vote, the resolu-tions declaring that the insurgents were entitled to beligerent rights. Having done this and the matter now being in the hands of the president, it is deemed better to leave it there. While not openly expressed there was a tacit admission by many of the con-spicuous leaders that the house would be acting unfairly to the president in adopting a joint resolution of belliger-ency which would be mandatory upon him to approve or to veto. Democrats generally who claim to have familiar-ized themselves with the subject assert that recognition is purely an ex-centive function and that the house would not be justified in going further than defining its own position. It was not doubted, however, that if a joint resolution came before the house it would pass though by a majority much less than that which was given to the senate resolutions a week ago. It is also believed by members who would oppose such a measure that it could be carried through the house over the president's vcto.

There is one gentleman who does not agree with his associates as to the president's probable action. This is Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, the chairman of the house foreign affairs committee whose prominence in the several Cubar debates gives to his utterances an especial significance. Mr. Hitt regards it as likely that President Cleveland will. as they that Present the clear within a reasonable time, issue a proclamation recognizing the belligerency of the Cubans. He does not base this upon any information he has received nor did he care to predict when the president might take such action. The speedily approaching season, ending active campaignings for six months, makes that time a fit limit and the last one for waiting. Mr. Hitt referred to the enormous majorities with which the first resolutions passed the house and said that after a month, when every said that after a month, when every member had an opportunity to hear from his constituents, the resolutions again passed the house by practically the same majority. He believes that if the president has reasons and facts fatal to the spirit of the resolutions he would have communicated them to congress, during this month of interval while the question had been pending.

THE PRESIDENT WISE. The president, he said, in conclusion, The president, he said, in conclusion, is a wise and prudent man and the mere fact that the resolutions were not joint resolutions, thus requiring his approval, does not affect the case. They redected public sentiment and the president dent is too sensible not to appreciate that circumstance.

Mr. Patterson, of Tennessee, who is a strong administration man, was satisfied that the president and secretary of state, who are in communication with our consular representative in Cuba have better opportunities for knowing the facts upon which to predict a resolution of belligerency than congress. "My idea" he continued. "Is that the action of congress will result in the president and secretary moving solution i of the problem, and that the president will issue a proclamation or furnish reasons for not doing so that will be so plain that congress and the people will acquiesce in his opinion."

Mr. Draper, of Massachusetts, one of the Republican members of the foreign affairs committee, does not be-lieve that the president will issue such proclamation and he does not think likely that congress will act further in the matter if the president allows it in the indicer it the president allows it to remain in abeyance.

Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky; Mr. Money, of Mississippi, and Mr. Dinsmore, of Arkansas, compose a trio of Democratic members of the foreign affairs committee and each in turn when questioned as To what the president might do or what action the house would take if the president failed to tion upon which to base an answer and that they, therefore, could not tell what might happen in either case, SENATOR HAL'S OPINION.

"I do not think congress will take any further action on this subject," said Senator Hale, of Maine, who was one of the most determined opponents to the passage of the resolutions in the "Congress has done all it consistently can do in the matter, and it now rests with the president to act as he may deem proper. Of course, no one can prevent the introduction in the senate of any or all sorts of resolutions, but they would only express their indi-vidual opinion of the senator who in-troduced them, and if pushed to a vote they could not possibly pass. The judicious effect of deliberation in this body was manifested in the debate on the conference report. Originally the senate resolutions passed with an adverse vote of but six, and yet when the conference report was sent back to committees we had at least thirty-four senators who stood ready to vote against that report, and I believe that against that report, and I believe that after a little further discussion we could have beaten it on a test vote. "Whatever may happen, I believe we have heard the last of the Span-ish-Cuban affair so far as any action by congress is concerned and it is but for all parties that such is the case. The president will act as seems to him best; no attempt to pass a joint resolution could possibly succeed. What the president may do I do not know, but I have faith in his ability to handle the subject in a fair and statesmanlike fashion.

"The future action of congress depends largely, if not entirely upon the events that transpire in Cuba," said Senator Gray, of Delaware, of the recognized friends of the president upon the floor of the senate. "And," he continued, "the action of the president, whatever it may be, will, in like manner depend upon the trend of events on that island. If there should be some great success attending the efforts of the insurgents or any other condition the insurgents or any other condition of affairs demanding the attention of the congress, I believe congress would deal with it in the proper manner. I president are, but I feel sure that he will accept the concurrent resolutions passed by congress in their proper spirit, and be guided by the opinion of the law making power as expressed by them.

DECLINE TO BE QUOTED.

Other senators who declined to be quoted, spoke freely in private upon this subject, and the consensus of opinion gathered from senators represent-ing both sides of this subject was that congress must wait a reasonable time in order to give the president the neces-sary apportunity to act, before even considering any future plans. Those who opposed the passage of the resolu-tions will not say that the president will ignore them, and those who fa-vored the cause of Cuba most serilously express the belief that the president will be controlled by the sentiment of congress so strongly set out in the text of those resolutions.

CONGRESSIONAL FORECAST.

Variety of Ouestions to Be Considered During the Coming Week-Peffer Will Bring Up Bond Sale Investigation.

Washington, April 12.-As soon as the Indian bill is disposed of in the senate.

Mr. Hale will call up the naval bill, which was reported Wednesday last.

Incidentally there will be a variety of questions called up during the morning hour. Monday, Mr. Chandler, according to notice, will speak on the Dupont election case, and will probably be fol-lowed by Mr. Gray, of Delaware. Mr. Squire has given notice that on Tucsday he will address the senate on the comprehensive bill for the erection of fortifications, reported by his commit-tee some weeks ago. A spirited de-bate is expected on Wednesday, Mr. having secured unanimous consent to call up on that day his bond sale investigation.

House bill to reduce the cases in which the penalty of death may be inilicted has been made the special order for Wednesday. Mr. Lodge has given notice that on Thursday he will call up the immigration bill, providing for an illiteracy test.

Meanwhile the joint resolution of Mr.
Cannon, directing the secretary of the interior to open for public entry the Uncompanier reservation, holds its place on the calendar as the unfinished business.
Under the rules of the house, tomorrow is district day, that is the day set aside for consideration of matters pre-sented by the committee on affairs of the District of Columbia, but that it will be so devoted is uncertain. Two other matters are pressing for consideration now—the fortifications appro-priation bill and the contested election case of Goodwin vs. Cobb from the Fifth district of Alabama, in which the committee on elections No. 1 recom-mena the seating of the contestant. Goodwin, Judge Daniels, chairman of the committee, gave notice ten days ago that he should ask the house to dispose of the case tomorrow, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Babcock of the District com-mittee, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appro-priations, may not be so leniently dis-posed, and the house may have to determine the order of business for itself.

The probabilities seem now to favor the fortifications bill as the first item. and at the conclusion of its considera-tion, the rest of the day to be given to the District of Columbia. Mr. Cannon was of the opinion Saturday that he could get the bill out of the way in an CAMPIE hour and a haif. He may find it dif-ferent at the beginning of the week. However they are arranged, these two matters will hold the boards against all other business until dis-posed of, unless a conference report on representation bills shall be presented. The preliminary report upon the legis-lative, executive and judicial appropriation bill has been agreed upon and will be presented tomorrow or Teus-day. It relates to those items about which there was practically no dis-agreement among the conferees and a further conference will be ordered on the matters of more serious difference.

As opportunity presents itself, the general pension bills reported by the committee on invalids pensions and the bankruptcy bill will be considered, but no time can be fixed at which they will be taken up. AFTER SIXTEEN YEARS.

Deathbed' Confession Brings Justice at Last to William Slowey. Des Moines, Iowa, April 12.--William Slowey, who has been in the Fort Mad-ison cenitentiary for sixteen years for the nurder of a traveling man in his saloon in Clinton, was pardoned by the legislature today. The murder was a most brutai one. The man was choked to death in an attempt to rob him. Slowey's wife and a negro named Hardes resisting as was then supposed ris assisting, as was then supposed. Slowey bore a hard name. He was sent to the penitentiary for life and his attorney, Lyman A. Ellis, was glad to set torney, Lyman A. Ellis, was glad to set his client off without a death sentence. Harris was sent to prison for a term of years and died there. On his death-bed he confessed that he and Mrs. Slowey killed the man, and that Slowey tried to bring him to life, as they did not suppose they had killed him. Law-yer Ellis, now in the senate, has been successful in securing a pardon for his successful in securing a pardon for his old client. Slowey is an old man and served four years in the army. He was a model prisoner, never breaking a rule and helping other convicts. He has a brother in New York who offers him a home there the rest of his life.

MARKET AND STOCK REPORT.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 11.—Stocks were dull and neglected today, the sales for the two hours of business footing up the meagre total of 36,580 shares. Sugar which was the most active stock on the list was traded in to the extent of only 7,000 shares and Northern Pacific which was second in point of activity figured but for 4,400 shares. It goes without saying that the trading was wholly professional in its character. The market was inclined to work higher, the offer of the presidents friendly services to Spain in the Cuban matter having been favorably construed by the trading element. The government crop report for April which showed that the condition of the winter wheat was 77.1 against 81.4 last year who at was 77.1 against 81.4 last year and 86.7 in 1894 had no influence.
