WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Johnsons and Terrys Mixed Up in Tragedy in White and Black That Ended in Kelley's Patch.

The notorious Kelley's patch on Luzerne stree was the scene yesterday of a prolonged fight among the colored element of the neighborhood. Beginning at 3 o'clock in the morning a continual wrangle was kept up until last evening, when the police quieted the disorder. Ben Johnson, he of the convict suit, ash wagon and educated dog, was the central figure of the melec. No bones were broken, but a shot gun was snapped in two by a pair of scufflers. Johnson received a knife thrust on the right thumb. The blade also made a slit in the back of Ben's coat. He charged Sam Terry as the slinger of the steel. A warrant was issued of the steel. A warrant was issued last night from the office of Alderman Blair for the arrest of Terry on a charge of assault, threatening and attempt to kill. A hearing was held in the police court at 9.30 o'clock.

tempt to kill. A hearing was held in the police court at 9.30 o'clock. It was a motley assemblage that listened to the ease. Johnson's wife is a white woman, and in the neighborhood of the patch the white man lives in the same house as the black man. The women are even more familiar. Last night Johnson had as his witnesses two black men, his white wife, two black daughters, a 14-year-old white boy and two white girls. Terry had no witnesses and no defense except an eccasional interruption. It was shown that Terry struck at Johnson with an open knife in his hand. The knife blade closed, cutting Terry's finger. Johnson showed the silt in the back of his coat. He accused Terry of cutting that slit. "No," said Terry.

Then after a weighty discouse Johnson proved that he himbself could not have possibly have cut the slit. The testinony of Annie Llewellyn and Nelhie Aten, the two white girls' showed that their habits of life might be changed with good results. The Aten girl lives on Tenth street. She is specially recommended to the attention of Mrs. Duggan, of the Associated charities The fight was the result of an old

Duggan, of the Associated chariries The fight was the result of an old grudge. Terry boarded once upon a time at Johnson's house. He refused to pay for the board and Johnson confiscated a pair of Terry's shoes in lieu of money. The alderman held Terry in $250 bell to appear at court Lohnson. soot ball to appear at court. Johnson was balled at $100 to appear as prosecutor and the two black witnesses, theorge Matthews and William Wade, were held in $59 cach.

All was furnished except Terry's, He will go to Jail. The main fight was in Matthews' house, 723 Seranton street, from whence Terry chased Johnson to the Kelley patch rendezvous.

FIVE AMPUTATIONS NECESSARY. A very critical operation was per-formed Saturday on the right limb of John Wusench, the West Lackawanna ayenue hotel keeper. Disease had eat-en its way into the bone of the leg and en its way into the bone of the leg and there was imminent danger of a fatality. Dr. Reynolds, Dr. Pennypacker, Coroner Longstreet and Dr. Lynch, of Moscow, were present and performed the operation. Five amputations were necessary and the time taken in the work was from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mr. Wuench bore the shock well and his chances for recovery are excellent.

SUNDAY NIGHT FIGHT. Hungarians in a house in the West Side "tenderloin" precinct on lower Jackson street had a beer broil last night. The West Side police force, as-sisted by David Owens and Tallie Evans, carried three persons to the lock-up. Ope of the prisoners was a woman, weight 195 pounds. The fight caused great excitement. No one was serious-ly injured.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS. One of the largest meetings in point of attendance and one of the most successful in point of interest was Saturday evening's session of the Welsh Philosophical society. Judge H. M. Edwards spoke at length on the Cuban question. The subject was discussed question. The subject was discussed by several of those present after Judge Edwards had given an interesting and

NARKET AND STOCK REPORT

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 18.—A firmer tone characterized the trading at the Stock Exchange today. It appears that on yesterday two prominent traders concluded to take profits and fully 30,000 shares of various stocks, including Sugar and the Grangers, were thrown overboard. The stock was well taken, however, and today when the bears discovered that there was no additional stock pressing on the market changed front and attempted to cover. Sugar was the special feature of the trading and on dealings of 20,000 shares moved up to 125%, which is within % per cent. of the best figure of the year. Washington houses and brokers connected with refining interests bought block. Tobacco jumped from 63% to 72371, recent short sellers being conspicuous buyers. In Gas stocks Consolidated of New York hounded up from 157 to 180% on intimations that there will be no unfavorable legislation at Albany at this session. Cotton Oil common and Preferred ruled higher, the common rising to 14 and the Preferred to 57. The talk on this stock is anything but favorable, because of the retirement of Directors Adams and Cheney from the management. It will be recalled that Adams was a factor in the last reorganization of the property. In the railway list Manhattan moved up 1½ to 119 and then returned to 1694;a1034. The changes otherwise call for no special mention. Speculation closed strong. Net changes show gains of 'sa2's per cent. Tobacco leading. Total sales were 74,801 shares.
