WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Banquet of the Chi Upsilon Society of the Washburn Presbyterian Church.
Those Who Attended It.

The Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn Presbyterian church banqueted, talked and listened to talk last evening in their cozy parlor in the church building. It was one of the semi-annual events and was much enjoyed. Each member had as a companion a lady friend. The banqueting room was prettily decorated. Shortly after 9 o'clock the first course was served by the ladies of the church. After the banquet there were toasts with suitable responses.

Rev. J. P. Moffat, pastor of the church, talked on "The Woman of the Past." His remarks were not only scholarly but of a philosophically humorous nature. Then followed the natural sequence, a toast on "The New Woman," by George Watres, Jr. Mr. Watres gave a fine sketch on "The Drama of Life," and Professor D. A. Stone talked on "Hunting." The subject is meaningless. Not alone will the speaker hunt the denizens of the wood, but there were other phases of Nimrod which received attention. These were the principal toasts. In addition there were several impromptu talks and musical selections by A. E. Morse, the mandolin artist. Those who sat at table were:

Misses Nellie Fellows, Harriet Fellows, Mame Coons, Myrtle Van Gorder, Grace Peck, Ada Davenport, Mame Whetstone, Ella Hunscock, Margaret Foster, Margaret Hill, Jennie French, Jessie Winans, Libbie Saunders, Naomi Jones, Anna Watres, Catherine Merriman, Juanita Kiefer, Catherine Davis, Laura Martin, Belle Doud, Emma Shaeffer, Ella Saunders, Horace Keene, C. H. Hall, Charles C. Battenberg, John Henry Will, George Sheehan, W. T. Burdell, J. S. Hutchinson, George Watres, Frank H. Thornton, C. H. Derby, A. E. Morse, George Keene, George Barrowman, Herbert Watres, G. Alex Bender, Theodore Meyers, Harry Neimeyer, Walter Davis, Professor D. A. Stone, D. W. D. and Mrs. J. P. Moffat. Photographers Van Gorder took a flash light photograph of the banqueters.

WILL BEGIN THURSDAY NIGHT.

Beginning next Thursday evening, the Scranton Christian Endeavor union will begin a series of meetings on the West Side. The first meeting will be held in the Washburn Presbyterian church. Rev. W. H. Stubblebine, president of the city union, will be the speaker. On the following evening Rev. J. P. Moffat will speak at a meeting in the Plymouth Congregational church. The committee in charge requests that the young people in particular attend these meetings. Everybody is welcome. As a final meeting Dr. P. E. Clark will lecture at the Frothingham on May 20. Dr. Clark's lecture is eagerly anticipated by the Christian Endeavorers. The meetings are thought to be a move in the right direction.

BOY HAS DISAPPEARED.

Frank, a 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio T. Fellows, of 423 Tenth street, has been missing for several days. His whereabouts is a mystery to everybody. Last night the parents saw the first ray of hope in a current report that the boy was in Stroudsburg. It was thought that some railroad, in a well-meaning spirit, gave the little fellow a ride. Information as to the whereabouts of the wanderer will be thankfully received by his parents. The lad has brown eyes, and when he left home he wore a light cap, red cape, "sweater," knee pants, black stockings and lace shoes. The disappearance is causing much excitement on the West Side.

QUIETLY MARRIED.

John Davis, son of William Davis, of Bellevue Heights, and Miss Mary Jane Davis, of the same place, were married recently. The fact was kept quiet until yesterday, when the minister gave out the information. Mr. Davis is a prominent meat market proprietor at Bellevue. Miss Davis is a daughter of Dr. W. Davis, of Corbett avenue.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.

The funeral of the late Mary Jane Jones occurred yesterday. Rev. W. S. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, preached a touching funeral sermon. The deceased had many lovely qualities. Her death was very unfortunate. Burial was made in Washburn street cemetery.

Charles Boldry, of Washburn street, spent Monday in Binghamton. On May 18 the Christian Endeavor society of the Plymouth Congregational church will celebrate its fourteenth anniversary. The society was the eighth that came in line of organization and it was thought that in Pennsylvania circles the Plymouth young people were leaders. A supper will mark the celebration. Remarks by officers and members of the society will be in order during the evening's exercises.

Hyde Park is awake. If this is doubted a glance at the new lunch wagon which made its bow on Jackson street last evening is sufficient proof. Born, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rice, of Academy street.

John James, traveling representative of the Salt Lake City Herald, who has been in this city for several days, has returned home. Mr. James made many friends here. He was here on business connected with the Herald.

A very enjoyable time was had by the following members of Otesingo Chapter, No. 14, Order of the Eastern Star at Binghamton on Monday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. David Brown, Mrs. Frederick Boldry, Mrs. George M. Chase, Mrs. Byron Wade, Mrs. E. Swartz, Mrs. O. Eshleman. The occasion was the official visit of the grand officers and a banquet. The party from Scranton was nicely entertained by their Binghamton sisters.

The funeral of J. C. Tibbett, formerly of Gravity, Wayne county, was held from his late residence on Aswell court Tuesday morning. Rev. F. P. Doty, of the Hampton Street Methodist church, officiated. Deceased was a worthy citizen, a consistent Christian and loving husband and father. The Patriotic Order Sons of America, of which he was a member, attended the funeral and accompanied the remains to the Delaware and Hudson station, whence the remains were taken to Honesdale for interment.

Miss Lizzie Thomas, of Eynon street, has recovered from an illness. George, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams, of Washburn street, was painfully buried Monday.

G. A. Williams and David Owens were in Wilkes-Barre last evening. Constable Timothy Jones is ill.

Late Mayor William D. Stover was called to Kelly's Patch. There was no disturbance, however, the summons being groundless.

PROVIDENCE.

George Jones is seriously ill at his home on Wayne avenue, and was in a critical condition last evening. Miss Joyce, of Olyphant, spent yesterday among friends in the North End. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edwards, of Wayne avenue, are being widely congratulated over the arrival of a bright young daughter at their home.

A most interesting handicap foot race has been arranged to come off on May 6, the contestants being Andy Phelan, Evan Simms, Mike White and Thomas Miller, at the Driving park for $100, each man posting a stake of $25. The betting is decidedly in favor of Mr. Phelan.

The members of the Mozart Glee club are requested to meet in the basement of the North Main Avenue Baptist church this evening.

The entertainment and pie social held last evening under the auspices of the Sunday school of the Puritan Congregational church, decided success. An excellent program was heard in the following order: Selection, Sunday school; recitation, Kiah Davis; solo, Hattie Sharples; recitation, Kate Jones; solo, Griffith B. Davis; recitation, Alice Leonard; selection, Sunday school; recitation, George Bowen; instrumental selection, Alfred Humphrey; "Tempest," G. R. Davis and party.

G. W. Mahey is slightly ill at the Bristol house.

All notes for The Tribune left at the Lewis drug store, Henwood's drug store and at Thomas Jehu's grocery store, on Wayne avenue, will be called for each evening.

George Davidson, of Pittsburg, who has been visiting friends in this part of the city, returned home yesterday.

Another Power House Needed.

Officers of the Scranton and Pittston traction company are making investigations and considering plans with a view to erecting a power house in the vicinity of Pittston to furnish electric power for the new line. Until some plan of securing a greater supply of electricity is devised, the route cannot be operated to Pittston successfully. Another dynamo may be added to the plant in this city to temporarily furnish the necessary power.

Died This Morning.

John McDonald, who was injured in the Storr's shaft ten days ago by an explosion, died at 1 o'clock last night after a long illness. He was 50 years of age and married.

THE TWO ORPHANS.

Produced by Carrie Louis and Company at the Academy.

"The Two Orphans" was presented by Carrie Louis and her company last night at the Academy of Music and the excellence with which the various roles were impersonated speaks volumes for the ability of the members of the company. Miss Louis essayed the character of Louise, the first orphan, in which Kate Claxton achieved such wonderful success, and the cleverness with which she impersonated the unfortunate young woman called forth the liveliest applause.

Between the acts Professor and Mme. Zera entertained with their wonderful feats of magic and Professor Ott rendered selections from "A Fair Rebel" will be the attraction.

ATTENDED SUICIDE.

Women's Discovery May Save a Jeopard Man from Death.

Patrick Sweeney, of Jessup, attempted suicide by hanging on Monday. He was discovered, hanging, by a woman who lived next door. Neighbors cut down the body before life had left it. The attempt was made in Sweeney's barn, and is supposed to have been caused by domestic troubles. Sweeney is of middle age and a prominent resident of Jessup. He was not out of danger last night.

Death of Bridget Ferguson.

Bridget Ferguson, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ferguson, of Monroe avenue, Dunmore, died at 11:30 o'clock last night after an illness lasting about a month. The deceased was a bright and interesting girl, beloved by her friends and associates. The funeral announcement will be made later.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Slight Fire in the Boiler Room of the Sausage Mill—A New School to Replace No. 10 Building.

A few minutes after 9 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm of fire was sounded from box 53 at Cedar avenue and Elm street. Flames had originated in the boiler room of the Sausage Mill, but before any damage was done the flames were extinguished. The South Side companies responded promptly; fortunately their services were not needed, but there was one lesson taught that should be profitable to the South Side councilmen. For several years the necessity of more alarm stations has been apparent, and it was fully exemplified yesterday.

The distance from the mill to the school is a quarter of a mile. The Sausage Mill, Knitting and Button mills are situated close together and as they form a large part of the industry on which the people are dependent, there ought to be better facilities for sending in an alarm of fire when the occasion requires it.

NEW SCHOOL IN SIGHT.

In the district accommodated by No. 10 school it has been decided that a new building is necessary. The present structure will remain until the end of the term and will then make way for a new building. The new building will be modern and convenient. It will be impossible to have the new building ready for the opening of next term, but the work will be pushed rapidly. The residents of the Twentieth ward are after a new building also.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS OF NEWS.

The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kotch, of Pittston avenue, will take place this afternoon. Interment will be made in the Twentieth Ward cemetery.

GREEN RIDGE.

J. Williams has moved from Ararat to Denon street. The social committee of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church is attending the presbytery at Carbondale.

Mr. Robinson will celebrate his fiftieth birthday on Friday, May 22.

TELLS A STRONG STORY.

Minooka Young Woman Who Declares That She Was Drugged.

Charles T. Honeyager and Katie Feeley were made man and wife yesterday by Alderman O. B. Wright. The ceremony was the closing chapter of a case that attracted much of the public's attention. The groom is a bartender now, but at one time conducted a saloon on Pittston avenue and later was part proprietor of a restaurant in the upper Lackawanna avenue. His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bridget Feeley, of Pittston avenue, formerly of Greenwood. They are both 25 years of age. On Monday evening of last week Mrs. Honeyager left home to attend a ball in the central city. She failed to return after this ball. Tuesday night her mother got so worried that she went to Chief of Police Simpson and laid the case before him. Thursday evening Katie returned, and her explanation for her absence went to prove that Honeyager was a rascal. She said that he had given her a potion and its effect on her left her incapable of resisting his reason for three days. When she passed from her self she found herself on the streets down in Taylorville. She also confessed that previous to this adventure Honeyager's relations with her were improper.

It took a few days for her mother to get the story from her, and when she did she went to the office of Justice of the Peace P. O'Hara, of Minooka, and swore out a warrant for Honeyager on three serious charges. The warrant was given to Constable John P. St. John to serve, and he located the defendant Monday night at 11 o'clock and locked him up in the central police station until yesterday morning.

Constable St. John went to the station yesterday morning to get the prisoner and bring him out to Minooka before Squire O'Hara for a hearing. He took him first to Attorney M. A. McGinley's office. Mrs. Feeley and Katie were present, and the charges would be withdrawn upon promise of marriage. Honeyager agreed to this and Constable St. John accompanied the couple to the court house, where they got a license. They next went to Alderman Wright's office and were married.

MARKET AND STOCK REPORT.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 23.—Stocks opened firm and generally higher on commission house buying. The reasonable weather and the weakness of the sterling exchange market the result of offerings of security and loan bills were the principal factors at work. The advance which was equal to 1/4 per cent, was most pronounced in the Grangers, the southwestern, Wheel and Lake Erie Preferred and the Northern Pacific. The last named was organization will be carried through successfully. The advance led to realization of the dividend on the Granger, 1/4 per cent, and the stock fell from 12 1/2 to 12 1/4 and closed at 12 1/4, a net loss of 1/4 per cent. for the day. Cotton Oil Preferred moved up to 5 1/4 at one time, but later dropped to 5 1/2. It was stated semi-officially that the dividend on the Preferred, which is due in June will be paid. Rumors have been current that the company will divide the dividend on the Preferred into a division of profits. The rumor probably grew out of the resignation of the Granger, the southwestern, Wheel and Lake Erie Preferred and the Northern Pacific.
