OLYPHANT MINE FATALITY

Inquest Conducted by Coroner Longstreet at Olyphant.

NOBODY WAS RESPONSIBLE

Francis Lewis, the Only Sufyivor, Testified That the Roof Had Been Tested and Was Considered Sound and Safe-A Quick Verdict.

The coroner's inquest upon the death of the four miners who lost their lives in a fail of roof in the Eddy Creek shaft of the Delaware and Hudson company of the Delaware and Hudson company at Olyphant Saturday morning took place at Owens' hall, Olyphant, yesterday afternoon. The evidence was conclusive in its indications that the blame for the fatality could not be placed upon the negligence of the men who were killed, the company or its mine officials, and the verdict was in accordance with this testimony.

The inquest concerned only the death Orders for copies of "Our Women's Newspaper," which will be issued from The Tribune office on May 14, are pouring in so rapidly that from present in-dication it will be necessary to print an edition of 60,000. There is a great de-

II. D. Gardner's Harn Consumed I Flames of Unexplainable Origin.

Dr. H. D. Gardner's barn, located on Hitchcock court in the rear of his resi-dence, No. 529 Quincy avenue, was al-most totally destroyed by a fire which broke out at 11.36 o'clock last night... The flames originated from some un-explainable cause in the hay loft. Neighbors who discovered the fire be-Acignoors who discovered the fire be-fore-it had gained much headway re-moved the four carriages, three horses, a cow and all the harnesses from the ground floor and as a consequence the loss is confined to the building and contents of the loft, which will not exceed

Dr. Gardner's hostler sleeps in the barn, but last night he was out of town. There was a store on the lower floor on the side of the building opposite to where the fire originated and it is improbable that it could have started the blaze even if there was a fire in it, and it is thought by Dr. Gardner that there was not. One theory advanced is that a trame got into the hay loft and set the place afire. The firemen searched about in the ruins to see if there were any charred remains about, but could not find anything of that kind, so it is evident that if a tramp was there he got out safely.

The barn was located in about the center of the block bounded by Vine and Olive streets and Monthe and Quincy avenues, wherein are located some of the finest residences of the city, including those of T. H. Watkins and H. P. Simpson. Had a wind such as that of the night before been blow-ing much alarm would undoubtedly have been felt.

CONFERENCE TONIGHT.

Matter of Appointments Will be Considered and Afterwards the Members of the Demogratic City Committee Will Be Dined by the Successful Candidates. At the office of City Treasurer C. G. Boland tonight members of the Democratic city committee will meet with Mayor James G. Bailey to consider the matter of making appointments. It was generally supposed that Mr. Bailey would have a slate ready to submit for approval, but prominent Democrats said yesterday afternoon that such was not the case. The mayor they said had not yet decided upon his appointments and had asked for to-night's conference that he might be aided in making his choice.

W. W. Wharton's boom for chief-ofpolice, which was sprung a few days ago, is said to have practically collapsed. While it is acknowledged that he is a most worthy young man and probably entirely competent to hold the probably entirely competent to hold the office, yet he has done nothing to de-serve the appointment. He is comparatively unknown to the party leaders and it is said did absolutely nothing to assist in gaining a Democratic victory at the last election

Many prominent Democrats say they are willing to go to some lengths to secure harmony in the party, but do not think it absolutely essential to se-cure that end, that the choicest plum in the gift of the new mayor should go to a man who has done nothing for the party.

Harmony that must be purchased that way is not popular.

As the outlook seems to be at present P. J. Hickey is reasonably sure of being named as chief of the fire department, although the choice of a chief-of-police may make it necessary to stand him aside. After tonight's conference the suc-essful Democratic candidates at the last election will dine the members of the committee at the Hotel Jermyn.

They started from department houses. They started from the city hall in carriages at 2 o'clock and visited the Crystals, Nay Aug, Hook and Ladder, Franklins, Colum-bias, Eagles, William Connells, Nep-tunes, Centurys and Phoenix in the or-der named, finishing the first day's tour at 6 o'clock. Today the North End and Petershurg companies will be inspected Petersburg companies will be inspected. At each of the houses Chief Ferber had the men give an exhibition of hitching up and starting. The city officials expressed themselves as highly gratified with their tour and Mayor Balley expressed surprise at the excellence of the department.

Another Johnson's Patch Outrage-Victim of Thieves, Supposed to be in a Drunken Stupor. Locked in a Cell Over Night.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman Martin Gurrell, who was doing duty on court house square, had his attention attracted to a man wandering aimlessly about the lawn as if in a drunken stupor or walking in his sleep. Upon approaching him the officer discovered that the man's face was bespattered with blood and his clothing torn and covered with dirt. Suppos-ing that he had fallen and cut himself while stupefied from drink the officer took him to the station house and locked him up, entering upon the docket the charge "drunk and unable to take care of himself." An effort was made at the station house to have the man tell something about himself but as he was an Hun-garian, unable to speak English, and on account of his semi-conscious con-dition being scarcely able to mutter anything at all, he was put into a cell to sleep off his supposed drunkenness Great was the surprise of the police when upon arraigning him in police court in the morning it was learned that the man instead of being a "stupe fled drunk" was the victim of an out-rageous assault at the hands of highwaymen. He had been stabbed three times and his body besides bore evidence of other brutal blows. PORT GRIFFITH HIS HOME

With the aid of an interpreter he told that his name was Mike Duricho, and that his name was alke Duricho, and his home Port Griffith. He came here Tuesday looking for work and when night came on not having secured em-ployment he turned his steps toward Johnson's Patch, where he knew he could get shelter with some of his countrymen in the Hungarian colony of that place. Just as he was entering the "Patch" two men sprung upon him from behind a building and tried to bear him to the ground. He struggled with them and had about released himself when one of his assailants drew n long knife from his belt and stabbed him twice in the head and once in the left side just above the hip. He has no clear conception of what happened from that time until he came to ful consciousness in the station house cell about daylight. He had only 64 cents with him and this the robbers took. It is supposed that he also received a blow on the head from some blunt instrument and after recovering from the faint caused by loss of blood from the

The richest picking and the quickest selling we've had this season. In all the country there are no brighter, shrewder, better posted women than right here in Scranton, and the crowds that have visited our store means something.

The possibilities of trade are simply wonderful when such novelties and values are represented. All new goods, no old stock, with our facilities for buying it would be worse than folly to deal in trash. That's when good management shows itself, and no day without something newer and more tempting. That's why this store will always lead.

We have twice over what any other store in Scranton can show, and we question whether any stock anywhere represents better values for the money.
