Philadelphia and Pittsburg Are Now-Alone in Pirst Place.

SEVERAL EXCITING CONTESTS

Irwin's Giants Romain In Disgrace Next to the Tail-End Colonels-Baltimore Jumps Up and Cleveland Goes Down a Peg.

Pittsburg and Philadelphia yesterday won their right to alone remain in first position by their own victories and the position by their own victories and the defeats of Washington and Cleveland, which clubs until yesterday shared first place honors. Brooklyn by defeating Washington joins that club and Cleveland in second place, from which St. Louis drops down to third with Chi-cago, Cincinnati and Baltimore. Bos-ton goes from fourth to fifth. New York remains next to the Louisville tallers.

Off Meekin in the third inning the Philadelphia sluggers pounded out nine runs and incidentally knocked Jouett out of the box. Baltimore won easy on Pond's great twirling; he held the Beaneaters down to two hits until the eighth inning, when they knocked out their only run. Cincinnati won from Cleveland in a pitchers' battle. The great playing of Frank Shannon, last year's Springfield shortstop, could not save the Colonels from defeat by the Pirates. Brooklyn won from the Senators a game that was full of kicking injuries and other exciting features. The percentage record:

New York-Philadelphia.

New York, April 22.—The New Yorks were budly defeated by the Philadelphians at the Polo grounds today. Meekin started in to pitch, but in the third inning, after chances had been offered to retire the side, the Philadelphias fell upon Meekin and piled up nine runs. After that there was no interest in the game, for the New Yorks could not hit Taylor. Weather cold. Score:

Washington-Brooklyn.

Washington-Brooklyn.

Washington, April 22.—Today's game was very loosely played on both sides, Brooklyn winning through better hitting and McJames' liberality with bases on balls. Captain Joyce was hit in the face with a pitched ball in the second inning and was compelled to retire. A great deal of "kicking" was indulged in by both sides over Keefe's umpiring, and the wrangling was of such frequent occurrence that only six innings were played. Score:

SNOW AT BROCKTON.

It Prevented the Scranton Game in That

City Yesterday. Brockton, Mass., April 22.-Snow and severe cold weather prevented today's Scranton-Brockton game. The clubs will play tomorrow here. On Friday and Saturday McDermott will pit his men against the Fall Rivers. All the Scranton players are well and Manager McDermott is not yet able to decide positively concerning Pitchers Herr and Stemmell, but it is indicated that they will begin the regular season with the team. Neither is a novice. Herr was with the Norfolks, of the Virginia league, last year and Stemmell was with Chambersburg, of the Cumberland Valley league.

Concerning the shortstop vacancy Mc-Dermott writes that he will have a good man for the position by Saturday. He is now negotiating with three National lear-uers, whose names cannot be announced at this time. Rellly, the crack short field-er of the Fall Rivers, could have been ob-tained, but the Fall River owners wanted $500 for his release. McDermott offered a much smaller sum and the deal fell through.

Maguire, the little third baseman who created such favorable comment last year with the Amsterdams, of the New York State league, seems to be one of the most promising players on the team. He has in the practice games shown quickness and energy in field work and is hitting well. His throwing is strong and accurate and he plays intelligently. BASE BALL NOTES.

physical condition of the men. All are in fine fettle, excepting Ward and Bradley, who are suffering from soreness. Ward's case is trivial, but Bradley has a very had arm which cannot be expected to be in good shape until next week.

Says a Syracuse exchange: "The team is weak behind the bat. Rafter has been sent home to Lansingburg to recuperate with orders to report at Star park in May. If he does not get into condition another catcher will be secured, as Hess cannot be expected to catch all the games. First Baseman Carey is at his home in this city, and will remain here until the opening of the championship season. He is in poor health, and Manager Relly, to put him in good trim when May comes, sent him to Syracuse to rest, rather than risk having him laid off after the season opens."

opens."

Springfield Union: "Tom Power, who was sold to Scranton by Syracuse for $200 does not want to go to the coal regions evidently, as he has not yet signed a Scranton contract, and is endeavoring to get his release from Syracuse. It looks as though Syracuse would either have to pay his salary or release him if he is under contract to that club and refuses to be transferred to Scranton." Springfield's secretary is all right, but he should have made the foregoing item complete by saying that Burns has encouraged Power to hold out against signing with Scranton. Burns wants Power badly.

According to Jim Corbett a man can be knocked out by a blow on the cheekbone or in the eye. According to Corbett's theory, a series of hits on that prominent bone of the face brings about a gradual weakness, till the opponent loses his nerve, and is either knocked out or wants to quit, unless he is dead game. He feels, so to say, a sort of paralysis of the face, which spreads to the heart. This idea is a new one. It is not new, however, that as a disorganizer of knickles second fiddle to the elbows.

Cornell's track team is doing energetic work in preparation for the meet with Pennsylvania. George Connors, of the Chicago Athlette Association, is training the men, and rapidly bringing them into condition. As England Knows Us.

"But I don't see." I heard one man say, while he knowingly twisted his glass under his eyebrow, "what I cawn't get at is this: I thought there had been n big war between North and South America, and here see the North sticking up for one of the Southern states. The Yankees are a very odd people, I must say."

No one seemed to be able to enlighten him, and another chap, in a high collar, took up the running.

"Poor devils, they've got no generals. Grawnt and Lee are too old, I expect."

One peculiarly intelligent, middle-aged, retired army colonel quietly muttered:

"Grawnt is dead, you idiot."

"They've got Stonewall Jackson," suggested the new speaker who had just come into the smoking-room.

"Wan a sthey?" quickly demanded the excolonel.

"South America," replied the newcomer.

"Why Stonewall Jackson is a Northern general!" shouted the first young man with the eyeglass.

"No fear," from the ex-colonel, with a covert wink.

"I've got a live on it," said the young man with the eyeglass.

"Done," quietly remarked the colonel.

"Rut who'll decide it?" asked several voices.

"I will myself," said the colonel. "You As England Knows Us.

"But who'll decide it?" asked several volces.

"I will myself," said the colonel, "You said Stonewall Jackson is a Northern general. I say he is not because he's dead."
"What a Jolly sell!" "I say!" and "I never!" filled in the gaps in the laughter. "Come, hand over the fiver," demanded the ex-colonel.

"Stop a bit," spoke a voice not heard before. It came from an old gentleman who was quietly sipping very weak grog near the fire. "Stonewall Jackson was a South American general. If so, the bet must be off. You are both wrong."—San Francisco Argonaut.
