A Handsome Young Woman Sent to Jail for Moonshining in Florida.

Pensacola, Fla. April 23.--Mary Sharp, a handsome young woman, was sentenced by Judge Swayne, in the United States court today, to pay a fine of $500 and serve eighteen months in the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio. By the woman's side was her husband, William Sharp, who received a similar sentence. The couple were convicted of illicit distilling, having operated in Jackson county for several years, giving the revenue officers more trouble the revenue agents.

Once a spy visited her home and being very pretty Mrs. Sharp induced him to fall in love with her and for nearly a year she made the government's paid agent dispose of the illicit liquor made by her husband and herself. Mrs. Sharp's success, however, made her careless and last January the revenue officers came upon her and her husband as they were distilling whisky in a dense swamp. Mrs. Sharp showed fight. Seizing a rifle she sent a bullet through one officer, but before she could fire again the officers took the gun. Then she drew a knife from her bosom and slashed another officer. She has always claimed that she would have whipped the officers if her husband had aided her. Mrs. Sharp's father was an expert shiner and when she was a little girl she aided him. She received her sentence stoically. The couple have no children, but they have a comfortable fortune accumulated from the profits of the moonshine in-resolution providing for voters to ex-press their preference for United States senator at the primary elections, which had been killed by the committee. The amendment was defeated: Yeas, 72:

At this point Congressman Robinson started the McKinley boom by offering as an amendment to the platform, the resolution to the effect, given above. Silas W. Pettit, president of the Philadelphia Union league, moved to lay the amendment on the table.

The yeas and nays were called, but before the roll call began Mr. Robinson got the floor on a point of order. He shook his finger at Mr. Pettit and said that it was very strange that a gentleman who came into this conven-tion as the particular apostle of reform inson down, and the chair ordered the roll to be called.

Robinson stood in the main aisle with a howling crowd about him, his right arm raised trying to make himself heard. He insisted that he had the floor but cries of "Sit down," "Throw him out," etc., drowned his voice. The derk was about to call the roll when Robinson insisted that he should no

Chairman Mylin made a statement to the effect that an attack by Robinson on Pettit was not a point of order. After Robinson and Penrose had spoken on the subject and the conven-tion had rejected the amendment, C. L. The adoption of the platform as read followed. The plank in the platform in reference to reform was made with a view to covering the bills presented by the Philadelphia and Pittsburg contingents.

The election of the national dele-gates at large and the presidential electors was then made. Ex-County Chairman Isador Sobel, of Erie, placed Samuel A. Davenport in nomination for congressman-at-large.

The nomination was seconded by Judge Wallace, of Lawrence. Delegate Robertson, of Allegheny, nominated William F. A resolution offered by Congressman Bingham, giving the state committee power to fill any vacancies that may occur in the list of candidates, was adopted, and at 5.15 o'clock the con-vention adjourned sine die.

THE PARTY PLATFORM.

Straightforward Declaration in Favor of Protection, Reciprocity and Inter-nattonnt Bimetallism.

Harrisburg, April 23.—The platform adopted by the Pennsylvania Republican convention today is as follows: adopted by the Pennsylvania Republican convention today is as follows:

For fidelity to the principles of Republicanism Pennsylvania holds first rank among all the states. Year after year it has returned great majorities for the candidates of that party, with no selfish demands for recognition of any of its own citizens as a national candidate. The time has come when the state which has so long and faithfully led the Republican column may justly and properly submit its own preference for the Republican nomination for the presidency. In the presentation of the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay, the Republicans, not alone of Pennsylvania, but of the entire Union, will recognize one of their foremost leaders—wise in counsel and brilliant and able in action, at once the type of the American citizen, scholar, soldier and statesman.

First, of all national issues stands protection and first among its advocates have been the Republicans of Pennsylvania. We believe in protection as a right to all American industries, but as a special favor to none. It should be neither partial, sectional nor hypocritical; it should be, as nearly as possible, equal and universal. We are not pledged to any schedules, but we demand a restoration of the policy of protection, and we pledge it as soon as the Republican party shall be fully restored to power in the executive and congressional departments of the government, and it shall be restored equitably to the farmer and the miner, to the manufacturer and the artisan.

We demand the restoration of that wise demand the restoration of that wise We demand the restoration of that wise policy of reciprocity which was framed by James G. Blaine, and adopted by the wise and beneficient administration of President Harrison, to the great benefit of the commerce of the country, and which has been abandoned by the present Democratic administration. We approve the policy of national protection to our ship owners and the shipbuilding interests by discriminating duties in favor of American shipping, in order that the American flag be restored upon the high seas.

FOR NATIONAL CREDIT.

The Republican party has always maintained the national honor and credit. It enforced the resumption of specie payments. It kept faith as to every debt created for the preservation of the Union, and has paid the greater part of it in accordance with the spirit and the letter of the laws, under which it had been contracted. It largely reduced the interest charges upon the balance of the debt by refunding at lower rates. It substituted for the fluctuating and inadequately secured notes of the state banks a uniform national currency of stable value and of equal purchasing and debt paying power. Faithful to its record, believing that the people are entitled to the use of the best money and anxious to restore and preserve the industrial and commercial prosperity of the Union, the Republican party favors international bimetallism, and, until that can be established upon a secure basis, opposes the coinage of silver, except upon government account, and demands the gold value. FOR NATIONAL CREDIT.

upon government account, and demands the maintenance of the existing standard of gold value.

There should be no statute of limitations against a grateful recognition by the government of the services and sacrifices, of the soldiers and saliors who preserved the Union. We denounce the present administration of the pension bureau for its betrayal of the interests of these heroes, and its attempt to nullify existing laws.

We believe in the enactment of such restrictive legislation, as will admit to our shores only those immigrants who have the capacity and desire to become good American citizens.

We reaffirm the declarations contained in the state platform of 1885, looking to needed reforms in state and municipal government and to the purification of elections and the exercise of the elective franchise. We earnestly recommend to the consideration of the next legislature the several reform bills promulgated by the Republican state committee, and request the Republicans of both houses to give them favorable consideration and support and such other bills as may be introduced at the next session of the legislature in line with the principles of reform.

We reaffirm our declaration in favor of the state aiding in the improvement of the channel of the Delaware river, so that Pennsylvania may have a free and unobstructed highway for commerce as now carried by the steamships of the greatest draught, which would enable us to compete with our sister states on the Atlantic coast in doing business with the outside world.
