THE REASON OF THE CHANGE

Harrity Will Control Allentown Gather ing and the only Way the Men from This County Can Secure Recognition is by Getting in Line.

The result of the recent meeting of the Democratic state committee at Harris-burg, which accepted William F. Har-rity's orders without question, has caused a great change of sentiment, it Loughran up and down the valley will be pleased to hear that his illness passed away after a few days and that he is now recuperating and in a short while will be restored to good health. His trouble was not organic, but a gen-eral indisposition from a cold.

caused a great change of sentiment, it is said, on the part of the delegates elected by the Democratic county committee to represent this county.

The names of the delegates chosen by this body are. Pirst legislative district, James Flynn, Providence; John Gaffney, West Side; Second district, John J. O'Boyle, Charles Schadt, John J. Shea; Third-district, W. W. Baylor; Fourth district, James J. O'Neill, Carbondale; Miles J. McAndrew, Archbald; James J. Lynch, Olyphant.

It was understood at the time these gentlemen were named that they would The Atlanta Constitution, in a recent number, contained an item of casual interest to users of telephones. It said: "The Alabama Telephone Construction

The Alabama Telephone Construction company, known as the Harrison Telephone exchange of Selma, has collapsed. The exchange was built just eighteen months ago to compete with the Southern Hell Telephone exchange. The poles and wires were sold yesterday at a nominal price, said to be enough to cover the outstanding indebtedness. The original investment proved a total loss."

The Selma Journal adds these particulars: "George A. Wilkins, secretary of the Alabama Telephone and Construction company, in conversation with a reporter of the Journal this morning, said in answer to a question gentlemen were named that they would go to the state convention to oppose Harrity and the unit rule. This was understood by Harrity's friends, who immediately began preparations to send delegates down from each legislative district to contest the rights of the men elected by the county committee to hold seats in the convention. In the fall of 1894 the Democrats of the First district elected Postmaster F. M. Vandling and P. F. McCann to represent them at the coming convention. Mr. Vandling is a Harrity admirer so no effort was made to secure another delegation from the First. In the Sec-ond district E. C. Newcomb. S. S. Spruks and M. E. McDonald were semorning, said in answer to a question as to why the company abandoned the telephone business in Selma: 'The simple reason was that the exchange was not paying expenses and there was no prospect of its doing so at the prices charged. It appeared to be impossible with the instruments used, principally the Harrison, to give satisfactory service, or a service that would bear comparison with the Rell. This was a conlected as the rival delegates, but in the Third district W. W. Baylor, the county committee delegate, was influential enough to secure the endorse-ment of the district committee.

The Fourth district also elected delegates to contest the seats of the men selected by the county committee and the probabilities are that all of these delegates will go to Harrisburg. "The delegates elected by the county committee have ceased to talk against Harrity," said a well-known Democrat last night. "They are anxious to get in last night. "They are anxious to get in out of the wet. It is as plain as the writing on the wail that Harrity will have the Allentown convention in the hollow of his hand and the man who expects to be in the swim must be with him all through the race. The county committee delegates realize that their credentials are faulty enough to give a committee on contested seats an excuse for ignoring their claims, and since Arthur Frothingham Makes An Early cuse for ignoring their claims, and since they can hardly expect favors at the hands of Harrity if they show a dispo-sition to unhorse him, the reason of their flop is evident. ANDERSON—In Scranton, Pa., Friday, April 24, 1896, Mrs. Emma Dean Anderson, aged 51 years and 5 months. Funeral from residence of Issaec Dean, 2430 North Main avenue, on Tuesday, April 28, at 10.30 a. m.

O'llara at St. John's Church.

A class of 275 children was confirmed at St. John's church yesterday afternoon by Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara. Sixty per cent. of the class were girls, and dressed in their white gowns, with wreaths of flowers in their hair and their flowing white vells, they presented a beautiful appearance. The boys were neat and trim in their white waists and knickerbockers. Boys and girls were young, on an average about 12 years of age.

At 10.30 a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Moffitt; Rev. J. J. B. Feeley, of the cathedral, was deacon; Rev. Walter Gorman was sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Melley was master of ceremonies. Haydn's Sixteenth mass, was sung by the choir. Miss Katie Donahoe, Miss Winifred Melvin, Miss Lizzie Durkin and Thomas Needham sang the solo parts.

The sacrament of confirmation was imparted at 2 o'clock. The bishop was assisted by Rev. Father Feeley, Rev. Father Moffitt and Rev. Walter Gorman. In the sanctuary were Rev. Father Melley, Rev. M. F. Crane, of Avoca, and Rev. A. J. Kilcoyne, of Florida. The bishop preached to the children and in simple and beautiful language dwelt upon the life of St. Joseph as a model for them to follow. The sermon was edifying alike to young and old. The church was crowded to the doors. Each child was presented with a medal as a memento of the enlistment as a Christian soldier.

During the confirmation services the children sang several hymns. They had been prepared by the sisters in the usual thorough manner that is characteristic of them in everything they un-
