Sad Death of Miss Mary Jano Lewis Causes on Assault and a Series of Conflicting Charges-

"Considerable excitement was caused in the reighborhood of Twelfth and Thirteenth street last night by the firrhirteenth street and had an ewspaper ing of two pisted shots at a newspaper vendor. It transpired that the paper sold by the young man contained a criticism on the conduct of a Richard contained as the latter's sister en-Phillips and that the latter's sister en-deavored to retaliate by means of the pistel. Fortunately both shots missed their mark.

Thus reads a note in one of yesterday's paper. Investigation proves that there were no shots fired in that neighborhood on Saturday night. The orig-in of the report lies in the fact that Mrs. Sarah Crew assaulted Patrick Campbell, of the North End. Campbell was feeddling the Harrisburg Telegram in which was an article regarding the death of Miss Mary Jane Lewis, which was attributed to the perfidy of one Richard Phillips, of Thirteenth street, As Campbell went along he shouted was attributed to the perildy of one lichard Phillips, of Thirteenth street. As Campbell went along he shouted several of the strong phrases of the article. He made direct for Thirteenth street, and there cried his wares. When opposite the Phillips home he was told "not to go over there, 2 but the news vendor with bold. He enterefithe front year look Phillips house and shouted."

Then it was that Mrs. Crew, a sister to the accused young man, came out of the house and asked:
"What are you saying?"

Campbell repeated his words and in taunting way added: "And I can prove it, too. This angered Mrs. Crew and she truck the news man in the face three times. Campbell ran. He is a man of about 30 years of age. When a Tribune reporter called at the Phillips home last evening the family had not heard of the considerable excitement. In the house were several friends of the parties concerned. Mrs. Crew and her husband. Samuel Crew, live with the Phillipses. Mrs. Crew stated it was not his nephew. Richard Phillips', act which caused the girl's death. He said that she had taken a drug which did the terrible work and produced a small bottle as an evidence of the truth of his statement. The bottle was more than half filled with a dark-red colored liquid,

"This it was the girl took," said Crew.
"How do you know?" queried the re-

"For this reason," answered Crew, as he held the drug in his hand. "I found this bottle in my house. It was given to my daughter by this Lewis girl. When I discovered the bottle I demanded my daughter to tell me where she had got it. She told me, and I then asked Mary Jane Lewis where she had obtained the drug. She said that she had purchased it from a woman on North Main avenue, Providence. This was the seventh bottle she had bought, 'she said, paying $1 for each bottle, Last Saturday I took the drug to Koempel's pharmacy, on the corner of Linden street and Washington avenue, Mr. Koempel looked at and examined the medicine. He asked me where I got It; I told him. He seemed much excited, and said that for the past tree years he had tried to discover who it was that compounded the drug. Three years ago Mr. Koempel was shown by some one another bottle containing the same drug. Upon analyzing the medi-cine, he found that the compound was of turpentine. Dutch drops, oil of almonds and one other ingredient."
Mr. Crew avers that Mr. Koempel.

the druggist, will proceed against the North End woman for compounding and selling the vile drug. He expressed his willingness to prove conclusively that Richard Phillips is not the villain that he has been painted.

Alfred Lewis, father of the dead girl. Affred Lewis, father of the arribune was also seen last night by a Tribune reporter. He said that his daughter confided to him and a West Side minister on-her death bed that Phillips was responsible for her condition.

There may be a series of counter ar-rests as a result of the trouble. Campbell, the news man, threatens to sue Mrs. Crew for assault, and the Phillipse Harrisburg Telegram. Saturday night. as Mr. Phillips, sr., was on Lackawan-na avenue, he encountered Campbell. A fight was imminent, but Campbell ran, Phillips following. DIED IN HIS CHAIR.

While seated in his chair in the front parlor of his home on North Hyde Park avenue, Samuel Jeffreys died suddenly at 9.45 o'clock yesterday morning from an attack of heart trouble. The disease was of a rheumatic nature. Mr. Jeffres had complained of a pain in his right foot. The affection seemed to creep upward and finally it reached the heart. At the time of death the un-fortunate man was conversing with his son, Samuel Jeffreys. Death was al-most instantaneous. Deceased was 58 years of age. He was born in Duckenfield, Cheshire, England, and came to this country 42 years ago. He was quite well-known and had many praiseworthy qualities. The funeral will oc-cur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

MARKET AND STOCK REPORT

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 25.—American Sugar was the feature of the trading at the Stock Exchange today, the stock inguring for 55,500 shares in a grand total of 130,457 shares, following in point of activity was highly erratic in its course and ranged between 121,34125%, closing at 1229, a gain of 5, per cent, for the day, The street was flooded with rumors of unfavorable legislation at Washington. This perhaps was due to the fact that Washington firms were given up as the largest sellers. It was said that a bill will be introduced in the senate next week by Senator Platt abolishing the 4, per cent, differential duty on refined. Operators who sold the stock at higher figures covered on this report, as it was considered that if any such action was contemplated the street would not be taken into the confidence of the national law makers. The changes in the usually active railway is sues were unimportant. At the opening the market was firm in tone, but the selling of Sugar exerted an unfavorable influence until near the close, when the stock referred to railied to 123 and speculation left off firm. Net changes show gains of 1525, per cent., Tobacco leading.

BELLES ON A STRIKE.

Tea Young Women of Baden, Pa., Determine to Dispense With Men.

Pittsburg, April 26.—Ten young wo-men, belonging to the best families of the town of Baden, Beaver county, about twenty miles from Pittsburg, have organized a strike against the boys of the place. The girls have or-ganized what they call the "Trilby Club," have vowed never, never to marry men and will not even asso-ciate with the horrid things.

The cause of this strange action on the part of the ten girls is a grievence.

It seems that the boys of the town expected the girls to make some use of leap year privileges. The girls, on the contrary, wanted the boys to be as attentive as ever. The upshot was that indignation meetings were held.

While the weaker of the girls go on as usual, the ten members of the club have remained out of young men's so-ciety. Instead they hold meetings at their own homes. These meetings a member of the club describes as revels. At one meeting they all dressed in their brothers' clothing. At another they dressed as ballet girls. One of the female stoles says the ballet was the best show she ever saw. The club is about to purchase bloomers and wheels and enjoy life without masculine aid.

LUCK WILL DECIDE TIE VOTE.

Cherry Valley Aldermanic Aspirants to Shake Dice or Draw Straws.

Rockford, Ill., April 26.—The tie vote on the license question at Cherry Val-ley will be settled in this city before the county court Monday. The contest-ants, L. H. Brown and E. J. Carbon, who received an equal number of votes for alderman, will shake dice, draw straws or use some other method, as the law provides a tie shall be decided by lot.

Whichever way luck goes, so goes Cherry Valley for the next year on the liquor question, and both sides are hunting up rabbits' feet and other supposed bringers of good luck. Much interest is taken in the result.
