but when the game was finished they were pretty tired from running.

It was the first inning that hoodooed the college boys. We do not blame them, for it was enough to demoral'ze anything. Twenty runs was terrible odds to battle against and they must have decided it was too much. After this dreadful inning the Wyoming boys braced up a little, but they had some-how lost all interest in the game. Just what the score was at the end of the game no one knows. The official scorer of the day fled in terror at the end of the fifth inning and no two of the spectators agree Long before the game was ended all the spare paper that c u'd be found was used up and the peanut and popcorn bags were selling at a high premium. We did observe one person who had the courage to keep the score to the end of the third inning, but notice of his death appears in an-other column. We must give the college boys credit for the run they se-cured. That man who scored will be a hero in the eyes of his fellow students for many years to come. But we must drop the curtain on the sad scene at the end of the sixth inning as the last spectator left the wrounds. The obit-uary was 27—1 in favor of Carbondale.

STRUCK HIS FATHER.

The Offender Now Languishes in the County Jail-

Patrick Dixon, jr., was yesterday committed to the county jail on a charge of drunkenness and attempt at assault and battery. Dixon has given way to the intoxicating liquor quite frequently lately and this has caused trouble between him and his father. On Sunday Dixon again became intoxicated and in th's condi-tion went to his father's house, where he caused considerable disturbance. Early ye-terday mornin Mr. Dixon went to Alderman Atkinson's where he swore out a warrant for his son's arrest. The warrant was served by Constable Moran and he was soon in court. While the case was being heard young Dixon suddenly seized a chair and commenced striking at his father in a most savage manner. He was soon stopped, however, and the alderman committed him to jail without further hearing.

NO MONEY FOR BREAD.

The Miners' Taxes and Rent Were Paid, However. That some people hereabout are suf-fering is in evidence at Miner's Mills Many of the miners at Pine Ridge col-liery, operated by the Algonquin Coal company, had no pay to draw last pay day, and some were in debt to the company. One section of the mine works on alternate days, and only about four hours at that. During that time they get about two cars or a total for the mouth of twenty-six cars, more or less, with more of the less than the more. Last month the taxes were stopped out of the pay and with the rent and other items that were stopped it left no noney to purchase bread.
