TWENTY HAVE RESIGNED.

Three young ladies, members of the Salvation army, called at The Tribune office last evening in the interest of those members who will soon join a Volunteer corps in this city. They say contrary to the report of the members of the army, that there have been no disturbances at the meetings in the Price street barracks, as far as they were concerned. Furthermore, not a dozen, but twenty members of the army have decided to abandon the Salvationists. According to the young ladies re-ferred to, what has riled the Salvation-ists, is that they did not send in their resignations to the officers of the local corps, but sent them direct to the head-quarters in New York city. Another thing which caused a harsh feeling, was the fact that those members who had sent in their resignations were in the habit of participating in the meetings of the army and, knowing of the in-tended desertion, the faithful soldiers could not tolerate their activity at the meetings. Of the twenty who have al-ready practically left the army, five are "local" officers, and there are a number of the older members who will join Ballington Booth. Major Pattle Watkins will be here next Sunday. In the evening she will address a public meeting at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. At this meeting it is thought that the Volunteer corps will

Upon his promise to pay for the injured heads, Mr. Philbin was released.

MARKET AND STOCK REPORT

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 20.—The stock market was a very tame affair again today. The volume of business was small and the changes, as a rule, confined within narrow limits. After a comparatively steady opening the bears made a demonstration against the market and six-seeded in bringing about a decline of $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent. The bears used the talk about impending heavy shipments of gold against the market, but their raid brought out very little long stock and in the afternoon the earlysellers turned buyers. The greatest contest was over Sugar, which was sold down to 122 soon after the opening. When the shorts attempted to cover, the stock rose rapidly to 1234 and the supply on the way up was disappointingly small to the bears. American Tobacco rose from 11% to 12%, reacted to 11% and closed at 11%. Chicago Gas developed new strength, selling as high as 70% and closing at 6%. The terangers left off within $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ and closing at 6%. The terangers left off within $\frac{1}{2}$ are cent, of last night's prices. Among the specialties, Metropolitan Tractoin jumped 2 to 107%, while New Haven dropped 3 to 170. The trading was light in both. Shipments of gold by Saturday's steamers are still indefinite. None of the bankers have yet concluded arrangements to export the yellow metal, although it is tolerably certain that a considerable amount will be followed. It is to be remarked that the bankers disposing of bills found the market more limited than they had anticipated. The call upon the depositary banks by the treasgry department for part of the money deposited with them on bond account, it is expected, will lead to slightly higher rates of interest, the tendency of which will be to restrict gold shipments. Speculation closed firm in tone. Total sales were 118,502 shares. Net changes as a rule show gains of $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.
