Man Discovered Skulking About the Store of Protheroe & Watkins on South Main Avenue

A few months ago the store of Protheroe & Watkins, on South Main avenue, was entered by burglars. A quantity of grocerics were taken out. No clue to the thieves was obtained, though young men were supposed to have been the guilty ones. Last eve-ning as two small boys were playing in the yard at the rear of the store one of them stumbled across the body of a young man who was in hiding un-der a shed.

The fellow got up and ran, giving a warning to another person, who also arose from nearby and hustled behind another building. Lieutenant Williams was appriséd of the incident. He searched about but the two men had made good their escape.

ON THE DEATH OF MR. WATROCK Resolutions were passed on the death of W. Scott Watrons at a regular meet-ing of Martha Washington chapter, No. Baston Star, held April 27. Maud, a 7-year-old daughter of Mr.

DEATH OF GUS FERBER.

v sad death was that of Gus Ferber, 17-year-old son of Chief Ferber, of the fire department, which occurred at sunset last evening. The young man had been sick for over three weeks, death. His parents followed the advice Peritonitis was the final cause of some of the leading physicians this side and everything that care and attention could accomplish was done to event the untimely death. The young wan was of a quiet and attractive dis-position. His large following of young friends was shown last evening when many gathered around the Ferber home on South Main avenue and talked over companionable qualities of the dead play mate. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

AFTER THE BALL.

Richard Phillips, jr., and John Jones, both of the neighborhood of Thirteenth street, was playing base ball Saturday afternoon on the flat near Luzerne street. They came together in a mutual attempt to catch a fly ball. Phil-lips' nose was badly smashed and Jones has a mark on his forehead.

The dual honor is seldom given to the same individual. Captain Bird, of South Hyde Park avenue, is about again after a period of illnes: Morris Thomas sang for the first time yesterday as a choir member of the Penn avenue Baptist church. The funeral of the late Mrs. C. W. McCarthy will take place this morning at 9.30 o'clock. Services will be held at St. Patrick's church, and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic

Miss Carolyne V. Dorsey, who has been in charge of the elocution and ora-tory department of the Central Normal school, at Danville, Ind., for the past four years, has returned to her home at $21 Delaware street. Miss Dorsey was compelled to give up her position last fall on account of poor health, and during the past winter has been sojourn-ing in the South. Rev. Aldrich, of the Grace Reformed Episcopal church, will give a Bible reading in the Women's Christian Temperance union rooms on Penn avenue near Marion street, tonight at 7.45. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Rury, of Delaware street, have returned from a week's visit in Binghamton.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS. Three Additional Electric Lights for the Twentleth Ward-Where Councilman Coyne Will Locate Them.

Select Councilman T. J. Coyne has secured the passage of an ordinance, providing for three additional electric lights for the Twentieth ward and he is pressing his claims for an appropriation for three more, relying on the obvious need of them as his right to insist upon supplying his demand. The obvious need of them as his right to insist upon supplying his demand. The three which have been granted will be erected this week, within a few days. One will be placed at the corner of Celar avenue and Fig street; another at the corner of Pittston avenue and Saginaw street; and the third at the carner of Cedar avenue and Sanders street street. Saginaw street is a block south of Connell Park, and Sanders street is the one which runs by Minooka store. Mr. Coyne intends to have a light crected at the city line with a few months. The three which will be added this week are very much needed. MR. SCOTT'S PETITION.

and SCOTT'S PETITION. There is no man on the South Side more indignant than Patrick Sarsfield Scott, of Fig street; all on account of a stream of waste water which is of con-siderable annoyance to him. There is a nine per cent. grade on Fig street between Cedar and Pittston avenues, but the stream does not observe the laws of gravitation and it stagnates in front of his property. The water comes front of his property. The water comes from a pipe which leads from some of the properties above Pittston avenue, and Mr. Scott thinks it is an injustice of frightful men. He went around yes-terday with a petition asking councils for redress. His opposition to this private waste water pipe may lead to hav-ing a pipe drain laid on Fig street from Stone avenue to the river. Such a thing would be the same as a sewer and the property owners are said to be in favor of it. WILL TAKE AN EVENING SPIN. Captain Joseph F. Woelkers, of the South Side Wheelmen's club, has issued an order to the members to report at

CHICAGO BOARD OF

On next Thursday the management of the Academy of Music has a treat in store for its patrons; the queen of them all, Lillian Russell; Of course with her comes a grand opera outfit, gorgeous costuming and scenery, well trained chorus, enlarged orchestra, etc. "The Goddess of Truth," a new comic opera by Stanislaus Stange and Julian Edwards, authors of "Madeline, or The Magic Kiss," and other bright musical gems, will be the bill of fare. It is said to be a novel idea suggested by the romantic story in Gilbert's palace of truth. In the opera Miss Russell assumes a double role—Princess Alma and the "Goddess," which characters are said to be peculiarly adapted to her rich sourano voice, and excellent dramatic qualities.

In the sixteenth century the highest note ever trilled was by Le Bastardella and Catalina, whose voices had a com-pass of three and a half octaves. The and a name of the second a name occaves.
