SUCCESS OF MISS THOMAS. The Charming Contratto Scores a Hit at

Wilkes-Barre. Miss Mary Thomas, the London con-tralto, who will sing at Young Men's Christian association hall on Monday evening next, made a most remarkable hit at Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday night, where she shared the honors with Madame Blauvelt. Of Miss Thomas' work the Wilkes-Barre Record of yesterday speaks as follows: "Miss Mary Thomas is a new star on the musical horizon. She is only peeping over the edge just now, but she promises to become more brilliant as the years go by. She is a tall, well made, handsome young woman and possesses a rich, and an exceptionally sweet contraito. Her first number, "The Flower Seng." from "Faust," was not be in the contraint. Flower Song," from "Faust," was per-fectly sung, and it made a pronounced impression. It was a crucial test for the young singer, but she stood it bravely and scored a triumph. Her second, "Good Bye," revealed a depth of feeling that surprised and delighted the audience. But it was in the closing selection, Thomas' "Summer Night," that Miss Thomas excelled. Her rendition of this was exceptione. She thoroughly identified with the piece, bringing out all its tenderness and pathos. While her lowest tones are remarkable, those of the middle and upper register are sweet and true and she sings with great intelligence throughout.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONCLAVE

Visiting Knights Will Arrive on Monday May 25-Plans That Have Been Perfected for the Entertainment of the Visitors.

In connection with the approaching state conclave of the Knights Templar, in which the people of the city and its vicinity are showing a great interest, the following has been issued by the executive committee having the ar-rangement for it in charge: To the Citizens of Scranjon.

rangement for it in charge:
To the Citizens of Scranjon.
Our city will be visited on the 25th, 25th and 27th by the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvanin. It will bring to us approximately 2,500 guests, whose good opinions are desirable and of much value to our city.

The Order of Knights Templar is too well known to require any special commendation. Its ranks contain some of the most representative men of our state. Scranton has acquired an enviable name for her hospitality as well as her enterprise and material progress, and the local committee of arrangements therefore appeal to you to assist in making the occasion worthy of our reputation, that our guests may take away with them increased evidences of those characteristics of which we boast. We ask for them a hearty welcome and your generous efforts to make their vist a pleasure to them.

On Thresday, the 25th, the usual paradwhich will be participated in by from thirty to forty commanderies from all parts of the state will take place at 10 o'clock a. m., and we shall be pleased to have the citizens decorate their residences in a suitable manner.

On Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m. the officers of the Grand Commandery will be publicly installed at the Frothingham, admission to which will be by card to be distributed by a committee to be announced Trusting that our appeal may meet with a cordial response, we are classis last year. BURGLAR WAS DESPERATE.

Returned to the House at Which He Was Shot to Get Assistance in Getting to a Hospital.

Petersburg. Scranton's most quiet and best ordered suburb, contributes a rather exciting episode to the day's doings. Hotelkeeper Benjamin Thauer, of Ash street, was aroused about 1 o'clock yes-terday morning by a noise in his bar-room and descending cautiously from his living quarters on the second door espled two men behind the bar, one at the till and the other standing guard with a cocked revolver in his hand. Mr. Thauer had a revolver, but being a good wing-shot and like a true sports-man distliking not to give his game a fair chance he called out, intending to frighten them and then get a pop at them while they were on the run. But they didn't frighten for a cent.

But they didn't frighten for a cent. Instead they made a rush for the room into which Mr. Thauer had retreated when he heard one of them call out "Plug him Jack"— and commenced firing through the door. They also tried to batter it down with a monkey-wrench but failing in this they made for a window and got out.

Just as the second man was climbing out of the window Mr. Thauer got back into the bar-room and fired. He then went to the window and emptied his revolver at the fleeing pair.

went to the window and emptied his revolver at the fleeling pair.

About 5 o'clock in the morning Mr. Thater was again aroused by the same parties. In answer to a rap at his door he went down and found a trampish looking fellow who said that he was wounded and wanted to get into a hospital, adding that as Mr. Thater had wounded him, I was his duty to assist wounded him, it was his duty to assist him in getting medical attendance.

Mr. Thauer quietly informed his ner-vy caller that he would be nursing an-other wound if he didn't make himself scarce and followed up the remark by retiring to get his revolver. When he returned the nervy burglar had depart-ed. Tracks of blood on the porch and about the garden proved that the fel-low was telling the truth when he said he was wounded. No tidings of a man with a bullet wound could be gleaned from the hospitals. from the hospitals.

WHIPPED HIS STEP-FATHER. Select Council Will Be Asked to Confirm Kobling and Taylor.

HICKEY AND PITZSIMMONS

Both of Them Are Slated, Former fo Chief of the Fire Department and Latter for Captain of Police.

Mayor Bailey will send some of his appointments to the select council to-night for confirmation. He will name Captain Frank Robling and Joseph Taylor as patrolmen and P. J. Hickey as chief of the fire department. The intention is about June 1 to promote Robling or Taylor to the office of chief. There has been no announcement offic-ial or semi-official as to which of them will ultimately be made chief, but the impression is that Robling will be the man, and that Taylor will wear a lleutenant's uniform. John Fitzsimmons is slated for captain, but the appointment will not be made tonight. Two weeks hence his name will probably be sent to council or confirmation.

Hickey was told that he would be named for chief of the fire department if he could give the mayor positive as-surance that select council would confirm his appointment. It was reported last night that a majority of the selectmen will vote to confirm Hickey, and It is therefore probable that the ap-pointment will be made tonight. Patrolman John McHale was called before Mayor Balley yesterday afternoon and asked to resign. He refused to do so, Since he went on the force one year and a half ago he has been one of the most faithful officers on the force and his habits have been above criticism. No charges have been preferred against him and his resignation is asked solely for political reasons. What action will now be taken in his case remains to be seen.

Today Stephen Dyer, Thomas V. Lewis and James Coleman will be asked to hand their resignations to the mayor. Patrolman John McHale was called
