OPENING OF THE SEASON.

Two Thousand Persons Saw a Great Game of Ball and Incidentally Saw Scranton Defeated by Springfield.

Two thousand spectators cheered and yelled and perspired and did other things that cranks are wont to do to make the home club win. It was no use. Springfield took the biscuit in a pitchers' melce in which Scranton's "Little Jack" Horner wasn't quite as good as a little Springfield colt named Easton. The score was 3 to 1, but the game was anybody's up to the last inn-ing, when McDermott's men missed the chance to get some hits together.

Scranton lost; but from an artistic base ball standpoint, the game was a beaut, one of the real, genuine kinds of beauts which keeps the bleachers in perpetual danger of heart disease. It was just the kind of a game for the opening of the Eastern league season, with but one drawback. The one disappointment was that the other fellows won, but they had to draw all the cards they needed and play a close, conserva-tive game to do the trick. And then, Umpire Kelly. He was in the game, too; that is, he was supposed to be in the game, but no one will stake their life on such a fact until Kel chalks up a bit on balls and strikes. Scranton didn't get the worst of it, but Mr. Kelly will run less chance of spoiling future matinees if he will sharpen his eagle eye a bit.

SWEETENED DEFEAT

SWEETENED DEFEAT

Everything conspired to sweeten the bitterness of defeat. The weather was ideal, the crowd was large, the patrons were accommodated as never before in Scranton, and the grounds looked like Scranton, and the grounds looked like the grounds you read about and not like a cow pasture, as in the days of yore—the good old days when everybody planked down the admission price and then hustled to get what very little there was of the best of everything. Surely all these things made a homoeopathic pill out of an alopathic deteat. What will interest the lady crapks— What will interest the lady cranks— all the gentler sex there were ladies— is the fact that Manager Burns, the Beau Brummell manager of the Eastern league, married a mascot in Springfield the other day, and the two are making a honey moon trip out of this jaunt with the club. Mrs. Burns is a mascot of the rare kind, as she didn't go to see the game, but her husband's club won that the server.

When play was called at 3.30 o'clock the crowd practically filled the two sets of bleachers, occupied most of the seating space in the enlarged grandstand and overflowed itself along the infield fences. The gathering was much bet-ter in tone than in the days of old, but ter in tone than in the days of old, but the old standby cranks were there just the same. And so was "Jack" Neat. He doesn't get a free pass to the games now-a-days and that's why he rooted for Springfield. Anyhow, the new bigness of the property and its cleanliness and the perfect arrangements and comfort put everybody in a goodnatured and enthusiastic humor.

Before the game was half finished it was apparent that the 1896 Scranton club is better than any that has represented this city in former years. The two weak spots on the team were recognized but were considered in a charitable light because the collective work was so good and because the work was so good and because the final result was plainly due to circum-stances fortunate to the visitors rather stances fortunate to the visitors rather than inferior work by Scranton. This is true because Hutchinson's error which permitted Springfield to score the winning run in the fourth was offset by a like offence by Lynch which gave the Coal Barons their only tally.

HEARTY IN ITS SUPPORT. That the crowd was hearty in its sup-port for the Scranton players and in full accord with the effort of the new owners to give the city real live base-ball was shown by the applause which greeted each Scranton player when he first walked up to the plate. The applause was of course greatest for Meaney, Ward and Ergan of the 95 team, but the others not the same kind of a reception. Plainly there was no need for grandstand posing or for a player throwing bouquets at himself; the audience did all that.

Hutchinson, the newest Scranton player, made a hit, not a base hit but a favorable impression. It was his misfortune to make a costly error, though the game was won later anyhow, but his heavy, fast field playing and brisk. clean style of hitting was sufficient to introduce him as a player, a good play-er. Rochester Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., May & Heal weather factored the opening of the Eastern league season here today. Gaffney falled to turn up, and Moran and Day umplied the game. It was a pitchers' battle. The home team fielded razgedly, allowing six unearned runs and falled to get a man past second base except in the seventh, when Stuart and Smith singled after two were out. Score: is bound to be fast and popular. These two, with Senator Ward, gave ample evidence that their section of the infield is all right. "Red" McDonald, the Sprinfield captain and second baseman, strained his side early in the week and will not be able to play for a week, and his cus-tomary place was occupied by Coogan, the ex-University of Pennsylvania catcher. The swift and sure shortstop work of Will Shannon, brother of Frank, the '95 Sprinfield shortstop, who was sold to Louisville, was a feature of the game. So was Gunson's catching, which had much to do with Easton's

FIRST AT THE BAT.

Scranton was first at bat, and Sonator Ward got an ovation and the same recognition was bestowed on Meaney, who followed. The applause was con-tinued until the batting order was completed in the third inning, and at fre-quent intervals thereafter.

Ward and Meaney flew out and Chiles rapped a hot liner to left. It was but a single hit but Lynch let it go through his legs, the ball rolling to the corner of the field and Chiles scoring with several feet to spare. Eagan flew out. For Springfield Leahy drew four wide ones and got third on Lynch's out at first and Coogan's fly to center, but Gilbert was thrown out at first. Score,

Flack, in the second, flew out to cen-ter; Maguire had the third strike called on him and Rafferty was nailed at first It was only by sharp fielding that the Ponies scored but one run. With one out. Shannon singled and went to third out, Snannon singled and white to that on a hit by Gruber. Gunson pushed a fast one down to Hutchinson, which that player did well to stop. Easton forced Gunson, and Gruber made a break for home, but was headed by Ward's quick throw to Rafferty. A short paried of see-saying on the line

Ward's quick throw to Rafferty. A short period of see-sawing on the line put Gruber out. Score, 1-1.

Horner started the third with a single to right, but was too greedy and was put out by Scheffler's good throw to second. Ward and Meaney fouled out. With two Springfielders out Coogan hit to left and Gilbert flew out to Flack.

Chiles and Hutchinson were out on flies in the fourth, but Eagan lined one over Shannon's head. Flack was thrown out at first. thrown out at first.

THE WINNING RUN. Then Springfield scored the winning run. Scheffler opened with a triple to right-center but couldn't get in on Shannon's out at first. Gruber hit one down to Hutchinson and Scheffler mosled for home. Hutchinson had him a mile but threw too low for Rafferty to handle the ball. The next two up were casy outs at first. Score, 1-2.

Maguire, Rafferty and Horner went out one-two-three in the fifth. The same fate awaited Springfield, though Lynch the visitors down. Gilbert led off with a two-bagger and Scheffler singled to short. Chiles muffed the throw, Gilbert getting third. Scheffler stole second. Shannon rapped a sizzler to Hutchinson and was retired. Scheffler was in a trance between second and third, and Gilbert started home when Chiles threw the ball to Ward. Gilbert was nailed at the plate. Gruber flew out.

Eagan drew four balls in the seventh but was forced by Flack. Maguire hit one which resulted in a double play. It was also one-two-three with Springit was also one-two-three with Spring-

In the eighth with two out Ward made a double and reached second by an eyelash. Meaney flew out to Leahy, THE FINAL RUN.

Springfield profited a run by Scranton's misfortune. Ward made a fine stop of Lynch's single but had no chance to field the ball. Coogan sacrificed. Glibert hit a cannon ball down to Maguire who blocked it but the ball shot up into who blocked it but the ball shot up into the air and came down too late to stop Lynch at third or Gilbert at first. This speedy hit would never have been made but for the collision between Chiles and Rafferty in chasing after a high foul from Gilbert's bat. The result was that Lynch scored on Scheffler's out at first. Shannon flew out to Ward. Score 1—3. With one out in the ninth Scranton missed a chance to score. After Hutchinson went to first on balls Eagan flew out and Flack was retired at first. Score:

May 8.—Fred Gil-bert, of Spirit Lake, Iowa, won the title of "Champion target shot of America" of "Champion target shot of America" at the National clay pigeon championship tournament which was concluded here this afternoon. Gilbert broke 266 out of a possible 300 flying targets, defeating E. D. Fulford, of Utica, N. Y., and J. A. R. Elliott, of Kansas City, who tied for second place with 261 breaks each. Rollo Heikes, of Dayton, Ohio, finished fourth with a total of 253 broken.

The trophy won by Gilbert is a handsome silver cup, valued at $300, and will be held subject to challenge at due notice. The winner is a well known live bird shot in the west. He won the Dupont cup at the big shoot at Baltimore last October. In addition to the title and trophy Gilbert won about $500 at the tournament and had the best general average of 643 in the four days shoot. Fulford's average of 636 was second best and Elliot came next with 624. Helkes was close on third with a 624. Heikes was close on third with a general average of 620.

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

Barron, in the Times-Herald.

Barron, in the Times-Herald.

London's newest paper, the Daily Coursier, chose Shakespeare's birthday for its own "borning." It makes its appearance in folio size and in pamphlet form, having some twenty pages. Well-printed and clean, it makes a bright bid for public favor somewhat on American lines. Two radical departures from what may be termed the chronic English journalism are newslness and headings. An effort is made to present a wide variety of matter, a complete digest or chronicle of news of interest, as well as of dramatic, musical, literary and sporting affairs, each article, feature or independent paragraph having a heading, so that the reader is spared the necessity, forced upon him by other papers, of getting half way through and article before he can learn what it is about. A peculiarity is the absence of editorials, all editorial comment being made in connection with the imparting of the news or information. The Courler is the nearest approach to an American newspaper, in its comprehensiveness and classification, among London journals; and that the departure from the old conservative style of acephalous leaders, editorials and general news paragraphs is a welcome one the popular demand for the paper in the last two days would seem to indicate. One other virtue it has in the moral tone it adopts; the editors seem to have resolved that a newspaper can thrive and abundantly prosper without permitting its columns to be defilled with scandals, disgraced by sensations or brutalized by the exploitation of crimes and criminals. In these respects the London press is really the best in the world, but the new daily starts out with the cleanest pages of all, a cleanness that does not diminish its brightness.

HIS VISIT WAS INSIGNIFICANT

Controversy of Power, the Player, is Still

President Powers, of the Eastern league, came to Scranton last night and met the Brooks brothers and Messrs. Simpson and Shepherd. They had a long conversation in Mr. Brooks' office in the Traders' bank building. Manager McDermott was present. No particular significance was attached to Mr. Powers' visit.

The Tom Power matter was dis-cussed in a general way, but is still in the same condition as early in the week. Manager Burns, of the Springfields, still has hopes of getting the player and so expressed himself to a Tribune re-ton would nave with a competent list baseman and a heavy hitting catcher. This is not indicative that the management hasn't the object in view. They have, and the arrangement will permit putting Chiles in center field, thus increasing the already great hitting strength of the team and strengthening its only two weak points.

opening game showed the Scranton club strong and worthy of support and it will probably get this afternoon the support it deserves,

The Tribune acknowledges President Powers' courtesy in granting its rep-resentative the entrance to all base ball parks in the Eastern league circuit.

Jack Glasscock, the once famous shortstop in the national game, is gathering in new laurels in the Western league. He is playing first base for Charlie Comiskey, manager of the St. Paul team in the Western league. In Milwaukee Jack knocked the board off the fence for a home run in the tenth linning, and won the game for his team.

Manager Dan Shannon, of the Rochesters did a wise thing when he secured the release of Bottenus from the Bisons and signed him for Rochesters' right garden, where he played yesterday. HERE OF INTERST TO WHEELMEN.

The South Scranton Wheelmen mad a club run to Elmhurst and return last Buffalo is now the greatest "Bicycle city in the world." It claims 40,000 wheelmen and women, and the number is increasing at the rate of 100 a day. Both the Scranton Bicycle club and the Green Ridge Wheelmen are taking in many new members at each meeting. The boom in the wheel trade adds members to bicycle clubs everywhere. The bicycle division of the "Country club" consisting of the younger people of "The Hill" enjoyed their first club run Monday evening out through Green Ridge. James Blair is captain, and Miss Archbald, Heutenant.

A number of the Green Ridge Wheelmen are contemplating a vacation trip on their wheels to Kichmond, Va., vin Harrisburg, down the Shenandoah Val-ley. The trip will probably consume two weeks and will be taken in August. The formation of a new bicycle club which is being agitated on the West Side bids fair to be a success. The promoters of the scheme have already secured upwards of forty wheelmen, who will join at the first meeting, which will be held very soon. The new club will immediately secure a club the house after perfecting an organization. We would suggest to the management of the Baseball association that they make some arrangements whereby wheelmen who ride their wheels to the games may have them checked and taken care of while they witness the play. The wheelmen would greatly appreciate this convenience and would willingly pay a small sum say ten cents. willingly pay a small sum, say ten cents. for the accommodation.

We do not uphold the right of wheelmen to ride on side-walks, but will say right here, that if the streets were in good condi-tion, there would be no cause for a "sidewalk ordinance." Anyone who knows anything about cycling knows that a dirt road in good condition is pre-ferable to a stone sidewalk or an asphalt pave for easy riding and com

One of the many bieveles made "expressly for Lillian Russell" was on ex-hibition in this city Thursday last durthe actress's engagement at the Acad the actress's engagement at the Academy of Music. The wheel was a handsome one. The parts ordinarily enameled, were silver plated, and the sections which on the ordinary safety are nickled, were gold plated. The wheel is said to be worth $1,000. It attracted much attention in Florey's show win-dow, placarded as it was, "Lillian Rus-sell's $1,000 blcycle." As a matter of fact, Miss Russell has nover ridden the wheel, and in all probability never will, but has no doubt, for due consideration, allowed the wantfacturers to make this allowed the manufacturers to make this wheel "expressly" for her, and exhibit it in the rities in which she appears. This isn't the first wheel made "ex-pressly for Miss Russell"; there are others.

The Green Ridge Wheelmen will conduct a club run to the meeting of the Anthracite Valley Cinder Path association at Mahon's hall, Olyphant, next Thursday evening. All the wheelmen of tht city and vicinity are invited and requested to join the "Run", as a large attendance is desired at the meeting, the object being the perfect arrange-ments for the building of the cinder path from Scranton to Carbondale and Crystal lake. It is important that all wheelmen who are interested in this great improvement should attend the meeting. A few enterprising wheelmen have organized and perfected plans, etc., and with the aid of the majority of the riders throughout the valley the "path" will soon be a matter of fact. All wheelmen who will accompany the Green Ridge boys to the Olyphant meeting are requested to be at the Green Ridge Wheelmen's club house not later than 7.00 p. m. Thursday as Captain Carr and his riders will start promptly at that time.

Tom Eck and Johnnie Johnson, the great American trainer and rider respectively, have a Jonah. At least, that's what professional wheelmen say. For five years whenever they started out for records, and Willis B. Troy, the well known trainer-manager, appears on the scene, their plans have unvariably gone wrong. On this account we suppose, E. C. Stearns & Company, of Syracuse, have engaged Troy to take a "Stearns team" across the water, where Eck and Johnson are at present cutting a great figure in racing circles. Troy will sail for France about the at that time. Troy will sail for France about the last of this month, taking with him Charley Murphy, Harry Wheeler and Robinson street, the only approach to the West Side which can be used by wheelmen, cculd be put in passable condition at very little expense. This street is always very muddy in the damp season, the only remedy for which is a pavement, but during dry weather, such as we have had for two weeks, the road could be made very rideable if the big stones, which lay loosely on the surface of the street, and which make wheeling very dangerous, both by day and night, were removed. Councilman Seamans of the Thirteenth ward, has had all the loose stones which lay on the streets of his stones which lay on the streets of his ward removed and has filled up all the uneven places in the streets with cin-ders so that wheeling in that section is a pleasure. By removing the loose stones on Robinson street (many of which are as big as watermelons) the wheelmen would not be the only ones benefited thereby, but also the owners of vehicles who are obliged to drive on that thoroughfare. Remove the stones.

Fourteen entries have been received for the handicap alley ball contest at the court at Dunmore corners. Players from Olyphant, Archbald, Bellevue, Sibley, Taylor and other towns in the county will participate.
