FORECAST FOR THE WEEK

Programme of Business That Will Come Before Congress.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASES

hhey Are to Be Considered-The River and flarbor Bill-Efforts Will Be Made to Pass All Appropriation Bills.

Washington. May 10.—There are two sontested election cases that will prob-ably come up during the week—Mur-(Rep.,) vs. Elliott (Dem.,) from the First district of South Carolina and Rinaker (Rep.,) vs. Downing (Dem..) from the Sixteenth district of Illinois.

Both will be vigorously contested.

A day has been promised the committee on labor to discuss the Philips' labor commission and the Erdman arbitration bills. The former provides for the appointment of a commission to fu-vestigate the relations of labor to capital and the causes of the troubles that have occurred, growing out of those relations. The Erdman bill in the Olney arbitration bill, which passed the house last session, and which the labor unions have approved.

The committee on immigration and naturalization and on inter-state and foreign commerce are each pressing for time in which to present some measures passed upon by them, notably the bills to further regulate the adression of immigrants. But it is hardly possibe that they or either of them will get the floor.

The determination of the senate committee on appropriations is to keep that body constantly at the consideration of those measures during the week that opens tomorrow, save such matters as have been heretofore agreed upon. Mr. Frye hopes that the river and harbor bill will be finished tomorrow, but in this he may be disappointed. Mr. Frye will speak in favor of the action of the committee in appropriating upwards of three millions under the contract system for the improvement of the harbor at Santa Monica, Cala. This speech may call forth a reply from Senator White. Mr. Gorman has also indicated his intention of offering an amendment making a horizontal reduction in all appropria-tions that exceed $100,500. This will in all probability precipitate some dis-

DUPONT ELECTION CASE.

According the the agreement made ome days ago the two days immediately following the passage of the river and harbor bill are to be devoted to the Dupont contested election case with the understanding that at 5 o'clock on the second day the vote is to be taken. The whole time may not be consumed in debating this case, and a few speeches on general subjects may be delivered, of Maryland, have speeches Mr. Gibson, of Maryland, have speeches ready to deliver on the immigration question and they may find time to address the senate during these two

The District of Columbia bill will be called up as soon as the Dupont case is out of the road. This will probably consume the remainder of the week, much of the debate, doubtless, growing out of the appropriations for the char-ities, over which there was a lively dis-cussed in the house cussed in the house.

The senate has restored all the items for this purpose, stricken out in the house, and while the champions of the nouse, and while the champions of the policy pursued by the house are not body was cold when it was found, the so numerous in the senate, the action of the committee will cause a number of protests, at least, to be raised. The fortifications bill will be reported by the end of the week. Mr. Allison expects to see all of the appropriation bills are landlored for damages, etc. Have the end of the week. Mr. Allison expects to see all of the appropriation bilist passed by the senate and will make every effort to accomplish such a result.

Hartford, May 10.—Ex-Governor M. J. Bulkeley, who is chairman of the Connecticut delegation to the St. Louis Republican national convention, returned today from a week's trip to Ohio. where he visited Major McKinley and where he visited Major McKinley and Mark Hanna. The governor, in an interview today, came out flat-footed for McKinley and said that he has always been for him. This is Governor Bulkeley's first public announcement of that fact. He said that what he seen since he left the state convinced him that McKinley would be nominated on the first ballot, and that the Ohio man is all right on the money question. is all right on the money question.

The Connecticut delegation, he said, stood six for McKinley on the day it was elected at New Haven, and he firmly believed would vote solidly for Mc-Kinley when the roll of the states is caled at St. Louis. There was never any truth in the statement that the Connecticut delegation was a Reed del-

Governor Bulkeley denied the truth of the rumor that he went to Ohio in the interest of Senator Hawley or himself for the vice presidency, and said that there was not the slightest foundation for the story. The question of the vice presidency, he said, would be settled after McKinley's nomination.

MINISTER ROBBED.

Suffern is Visited by an Old Woman Who Begs and Commits Thefts.

Tuxedo Park, N. Y., May 10.—Suffern has a sensation. A decrepit old woman visited the town on Wednesday. She went from house to house seeking alms with which to aid her to an old woman's home. The residence of the Rev. R. S. Mansfield was entered Wednesday night and the pastor robbed of $100. When the robbery became known the town was thoroughly aroused.

It was thought to be the work of professionals. Information was given that other houses had been entered. Then the old beggar woman and the questions that she had asked were remembered. Her face did not bear the wrinkles of age. A search was immediately wrinkles of age. A search was immediately instituted for her, but without Hogan readily agreed, and this morning they came up on the Reading road to New Hope, and Con-stable Bennett, who had been previ-ously notified, arrested them on "sus-picion." Squire Eastburn gave them a hearing, and placed them under $1,500 ball each. Being unable to furnish the amount they were taken to the county jail. Hogan does not yet know that his partner is a detective, but thinks they are arrested on suspicion. The detective will occupy the same cell as Hogan, and hopes to succeed in getting further confessions from him. So far he has confessed to burning the barns of Edward Stack, John Poole and one near Dry Lake, in Bucks county, and the barn of Mr. Titus, five miles east of this city. Hogan worked at all these places, and was dismissed. Each fire happened after his discharge. The last parn fired in Bucks county was that of Edward Janney, and the next day Edward stack found a note in his feed chest saying his barn would be next.

MYSTERIOUS SUICIDE.

Woman Signing Her Name as Mrs. Everett Shoots Berself at the Colonade Hotel-Identity Carefully Concealed.

New York, May 10.-A number of persons went yesterday to the Colon-nade hotel, at No. 726 Broadway, to make inquiries about the woman who had committed suicide there, and most of them went later to the morgue to yiew the woman's body, but they were not able to throw any light upon her suicide. Nobody believed that the wo-man's name was Mrs. Everett, although she was registered as Mrs. Everett, of Boston, when she went to the hotel on Wednesday and was assigned to room

When her body was found in the room on Friday afternoon it was evident that she had made careful preparations for suicide, and had taken much pains to prevent her identity from being known. She had cut from her clothing all marks of identification, except that one piece of underclothing was marked by the initials of "K. B." in red silk. As the body was cold when it was found, the police thought the woman killed herself on Thursday night about midnight. On paper on the mantelpiece lay a small purse containing $89.13. A revolver lay in the bed beside the woman's body, and she had shot herself over the right ear the builet passing nearly to the left car. As her hair was not singed where the bullet entered her head, she must have held the weapon several inches away when she fired the shot. The woman who commmitted suicide was about thirty-five years old, somewhat below the medium height for a woman, and slender. Her features, while not pretty, had the stamp of re-finement. She had dark brown eyes, and hair which was almost black, slightly mixed with gray. The woman's clothing was of fine quality and fash-lonable make. Her gloves and shoes were believed to have been purchased In England, but she had been careful to remove the marks from them. Cor-oner Fitzpatrick applied water to a glove on which a name had been stamped. The water so smoothed the surface of the glove that the words "Harrod's Stores" were clearly visible. A shoe-dealer said that the shoes were not made in the United States, but probably in England. They are No. 2½ and of expensive make. One pair vere bicycle slippers.

He was taken into the morgue by Night Captain McCale. He looked at the cody and then asked to see the letter that the woman wrote just before she killed herself. When told that the let-ter was in the hands of the coroner or the police, he left the morgue. The captain asked the young man if he knew the suicide, and he said that he lid not, and when he reached the platform he fell in a dead faint. A doctor was sent for, but before the physician arrived the young man regained coa-sciousness and left the grounds. He was an apt apprentice, and it was not long before he knew how to make boilers and other machinery, including various parts of locomotives. He worked as a machinist until he was twenty-one years old, when he entered the United States navy as an engineer. He was assigned to the Iroquois, and was in several naval engagements in the Civil war. He left the navy for the army. In the army he was regarded as a brave and gallant officer, and won promotion rapidly.

After the close of the Civil war he engaged as a draughtsman for the Del aware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company at Scranton, Penn. Later he was superintendent of motive power of the Eastern division of the Pennsylvania road. Next he entered the service of the Baldwin Locomotive company. In 1871 the Baldwin people sent him to Russia to attend to the introduction of their locomotives on railroads in that country. #### KILLED A MOB'S LEADER.

A Negro Shoots Into a Party That Broke Into His House.

New Orleans, May 10.—William Be-noit, at the head of a party of white regulators, endeavored to force his way into the house of a negro named Leonard Godie last night to whip him. The party broke down the door and en-tered the house, when Godie opened fire on them, killing their leader, Benoit. The other men removed the body to Benoit's father's house and then scattered. Godle at once surrendered to the ice, and as the regulators threatened to lynch him was sent to the jall in Lake Charles, Colcasieu parish, for protection from the mob. The regulators have been carrying things with a high hand in Lafayette parish, and no negroes were allowed to vote there during the state election last month. Godie had charge of a corn mill, and the complaint of Benoit was that Godle ground the corn of negroes first and made white man wait.
