THE WIND IN

Held a High Carnival for a Short Time Yesterday Afternoon.

LITTLE DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING

Public School Building No. 4 Struck, but Only a Few States Were Loosened. Many Trees Blown Down and Cellars Filled.

High winds, rain and lightning vis-ted the city at 1.15 yesterday after-eas, and the elements held high carnivel for ten minutes without doing much damage. What damage was done, was subcipally the work of old Borens. dicted a severe rain and thunder storm, and when the clouds began to lower in the west, a verification of the prognes side their stores. For three or four minutes volumes of dust filled the air and everything not strong enough to resist the fury of the wind went down. All parts of the city felt the force of the wind about equally.

ON THE WEST SIDE. On the West Side, fruit and shade irees and awnings had a severe trial. Great damage was done to the former along Luzerne street, and when the min came the inhabitants of Kelley's Patch came very near getting "drownded out." The cellars and basements were gooded. A gust of wind litted the awning from its favorances on Clarke Broths.

The principal ef-fect of the rain upon the central city was to give the sewers a good flushing and settle the dust. Here and there some trees were shorn of their dead

Lightning struck the cupola of No. 4 public school in Fine Brock and only knocked a few slates off. The tower of a culm elevator, an appurtenance of the Columbia breaker on North Washing-ton avenue, was struck, but the dam-age was slight. The wind was high in Pine Brook, Creen Ridge and the North

A 2 LD CYCLONE.
A mild cyclone struck the South Side It did not do much damage, but that was because it didn't last more than a few minutes. A large cak tree in front of William Koch's clear store on Cedar avenue was blown down, and in falling it struck the trolley wire and brought that down with it. There were a number of school children passing at the time and their escape from inury was marvelous

When the wire got on the rails the flashes of lightning that illumined the street was splendid, but dangerous. Street car traffic was delayed about thirty minutes. Shade trees and fruit trees were blown down in various localities, and the streets, especially Pittston avenue, were flooded with ater. On the latter avenue, between irch and Beech streets, the housewives were out with their mops and brooms, a la Mrs. Fartington, endeavoring to keep their cellars dry. In Minooka the wind was high, but the rain only drizzled for a few min-utes, and in Greenwood there was no rain at all. No damage is recorded by A. C. Fuller's residence in North Park was slightly damaged by lightning. The bolt struck the ridge near the chimney and tore a small hole in it.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED.

Judge Edwards yesterday issued a such warrant for the arrest of Wilson S. Feyley on the charge of fraud, pre-ferred by Kahn & Kahn, a wholesale firm doing business in New York city. The warrant was served by Deputy Sheriff J. D. Ferber and the defendant came to the court house and entered bail in the sum of $1,000 for his ap-pearance before Judge Edwards in charibers tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for a hearing. Frank P. Christian became his bondsman.

The issuance of a bench warrant by the court for the arrest of a person is somewhat unusual. It is the same as if it were brought before an atterman or justice of the peace. The complaint on which Fegley was arrested was that e fraudulently contracted a debt with the prosecutor and unjustly refuses to

BAIRD WAS NON EST.

Forger Who Made Charges Against Jail Officials Did Not Substantiate Them.

Forger James Baird, who, after his release from the county fail Saturday, made charges of extortion against Warden Thomas Jay and Keeper W. D. Green, falled to materialize yesterday at 10 o'clock in Sherlif Clemons' office to substantiate his charges, nor did by the life and representations. he put in an appearance at all. No trace of him could be found in the city. Mr. Juy was interviewed in the afternoon by a Tribune reporter, and he said with reference to the matter that he wants to have it thoroughly investigated, so that all suspicion may be re-moved from him. He is not afraid to have every act that he is responsible for since he entered upon the duties of warden of the jall investigated and probed. Having done nothing wrong, he is ready at any time to account for historic.

IN THE SHERIFF'S HANDS. With reference to the particulars of the case he did not wish to speak, say-ing the matter was in Sheriff Clemons hands, and whatever was to be said, would likely be said by him. Concerning any partiality shown to Baird while in juil Mr. Jay said that the prisoner was fut to work in the kitchen and was free from confinement in the ceil mostly all of the day but this was because he was subject to frequent at-tucks of epileptic fits, and Dr. Van Cleef, who was jail physician when he was brought in, recommended that if he were given something to do and con-fined only when necessary, he would suffer less than otherwise from the ail-

County Commissioners S. W. Roberts and Giles Roberts said that Baird had been released from jail without serving the thirty days additional for the fine that had been imposed upon him, mereby because it was cheaper to let him out than to feed him. He served five months for forgery, thirty days for costs, and would have to serve thirty days more but for his release.

MANNER OF RELEASE. The commissioners very frequently, by virtue of the law, get a man out on what is called a convict's affidavit, rather than stand the expense of his support for the term he would spend for the fine imposed. Papers are presented to one of the judges of the court, who signs them if they think it advisable to do so, and the release is obtained.

Sheriff Clemons has not yet made a complete investigation, but he is dis-posed to place little credence in the He has made some investigahas gone, to be utterly groundless. The general impression among those who know Baird is that he is mentally unbalanced. He was at one time very seriously injured in a railroad wreck, he claims, and as an evidence of his experience he carries a silver plate in his skull to cover up a space left after a trephining operation. The night he was arrested and locked up in the police station he attempted suicide by means of a leather strap fastened around his neck.

Coursen, of the Thirteenth They relate to the recent correction obtained of the regiment's rating, which places it at the head of the National Guard of the state, where it properly belongs. The order is as following: Scranton, May 11, 1896. Circular No. 1.

Scranton, May 11, 1896.

Circular No. 1.

The attention of all concerned is hereby directed to the following:
Headquarters National Guard of Pennsylvania, Adjutant General's Office,
Harrisburg, Pa., May 5, 1896.

General Order No. 8.
Section VI.—"The inspector general reports the correction of an error in computing the general average and figure of efficiency of the Thirteenth Regiment Infantry, Gee page 24, annual report). The figure of efficiency of Company A should read 96.49. The general average and figure of efficiency of Company G should each be 22.86. These corrections will make the general average and figure of efficiency of Company G should each be 22.86. These corrections will make the general average and figure of efficiency of the Thirteenth Regiment Infantry 94.68, instead of 92.81, as published."

Daniel H. Hastings,

the Thirteenth Regiment Infantry $4.65, instead of $2.81, as published."

By order of Daniel H. Hastings,

Governor and Commander-in-Chief,
Thomas J. Stewart,

Adjutant General

It is with much polds and pleasure that the colonel congratulates the regiment upon the splendid showing the above ratings as published in General Orders No. 8, sive us for 1895. While it was a great disappointment to the regiment and its many friends that the errors in the annual report should have occurred and the glory of our victory somewhat lost to us throughout the state and country, still it is a great satisfaction to have the correction made and an order published so trampelly, giving us the first place in the best National Guard that exists today in the world, and when it is known that the regiment went into camp with four new captains, four new first leutenants, a new second lleutenants, a new regimental and two new battalion adjutants, a new leutenent-colonel and major, and last, but not least, a new chaplain, the results attained show the care and labor that has been spent upon the regiment by its former commanders, and the personal interest and order every member has in maintaining its high standing and past record of efficiency.

The First regiment of Philadelphia follows as with a rating of 93.29, the Eighth regiment with $9.73 next in order.

It is expected the cry will be "still onward," and that the close of 1856 will see the regiment still holding first place.
