OUR WILKES-BARRE LETTER. (Our Wilkes-Barre correspondent's letter to the editor of the Woman's Paper is published in this column.)

There can be no doubt of the result. The Woman's Paper is published in Scranton, and when I see it I shall better understand what labor is demanded, and when this is made clear to me, I shall endeavor to enlighten the people in a similar manner.

Never has our city presented a more charming appearance than in this delightful spring. The spirit of improvement has been for several years past manifest in Carbondale.

Our birthday party was a delightful social affair. A pleasing program was given, during which Miss Marie Tracy Weston captivated her audience with several selections from her repertoire.

The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. has been the chief object of interest for the Young Women's Auxiliary of this year. Much has been accomplished.

Jenkins & Musgrave, Prescription Druggists. 101 South Main Avenue, Scranton, Pa. We give special attention to the compounding of prescriptions, and our business being large our stock of drugs and chemicals is constantly changing hands thereby insuring our friends and patrons pure and fresh drugs at all times.

Since contagious diseases are common in this season, it is best to isolate any suspected cases until the physician in charge is certain of the nature of the disease. Scranton has been favored in this class and fortunately so indeed, for we are all prepared for such an emergency with the more virulent symptoms, rapidly growing population to be more than watched, that the proper care be taken to protect the other members of the family during the course of the disease and also the houses which are properly disinfected after the convalescence or death of the patient.

Those who have been exposed to the disease from schools, churches, or from any public gathering and particularly those who have been in contact with the patient, should be kept under observation for several days. If the patient has been in contact with the patient, should be kept under observation for several days. If the patient has been in contact with the patient, should be kept under observation for several days.

Soft undressed linen not too fine, should be used for covering cloths, center and table doilies. After white, the palest tints of green are considered the best choice for embroidery. Other pretty pieces are in the Napoleon, Dresden, Empire or Delft styles, the latter is pretty used with delft dishes. The floor pillow made of beautiful colorings are very striking.

Books should not be taken from public libraries, at the time, until it is safe, and all library books, at the house, should remain in care of the health officers, and not be received at the library until they are certified as safe by the Board of Health.

Home Decorations. An artistic cozy corner may be fitted up at a small expense, it all depends on material used. The foundations consists of two boxes (which may be made of ordinary hemlock boards, such as are used for packing purposes), and should be provided with hinged covers about three inches from the back line, so as to permit falling over all sides, and the top of the box should be made in two sections, the piece of seat in the angle to remain stationary. This design is most suitable for the parlor. A great addition to these are the downy pillows of various kinds. The most satisfactory pillow is one of white linen grass cloth, made to slip over with a pillow case, this is beautifully embroidered with sprays of flowers, finished with ruffle of the same. Another pretty design for pillows is the Napoleon combined with Dresden China. The floor pillow made of denim, colored satin, damask and heavy
