SCRANTON, MAY 14, 1896.

The Tribune is the only Republican daily in Lackawanna County.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Congressmen-at-Large. GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna.

Samuel A. Davenport, of Erie. Election Day, Nov. 3.

The general impression seems to be that Mr. Platt's tirade against McKinley was the New York boss' political death song.

An Untenable Position.

We do not concur in the Wilkes-Barre Record's almost daily insinuations that the Pennsylvania delegates who propose to vote for Senator Quay...

The latest story is that William Leach, having decided to cast his lot with the new anti-Quay ring in Philadelphia, has returned $5,000 to the senator...

An Opportune Suggestion.

The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, although known throughout New York state as a staunch Platt paper, rises superior to factional trammels in the matter of Platt's vicious and unprovoked attack on ex-Governor McKinley...

If the situation were reversed, and Quay were to seem the sure winner at St. Louis, the Record to be consistent with its present attitude, would have to cast insinuations on every Ohio delegate who would not turn back on McKinley and make a precipitate rush for the Quay band wagon.

It is estimated that there are 4,000,000 bicycle riders in the United States who spend each year in caring for their wheels and on excursions $200,000,000.

High Time for Emphatic Action.

Events are happening in a manner likely to make it imperative for congress, before it adjourns, to put the question directly before President Cleveland whether he will or will not issue a proclamation recognizing the Cuban insurgents as belligerents.

This condensation of the issues might well be adopted at St. Louis as the Republican platform. It covers the vital points of Republican doctrine and leaves no loopholes for Democratic attack.

It must by this time be manifest to congress, as it is to the people, that the further management of this important question cannot with safety be entrusted to Grover Cleveland.

The esteemed Troy Times believes Morton should get out of McKinley's way, but first wants the Ohio candidate to speak out on the money question.

Mr. Magee's brace of Pittsburg papers are having lots of fun with Senator Quay these days; yet there isn't much doubt as to who will laugh last.

One Bill Which is Doomed.

Representative Sherman, of New York, has tried to get congress to pass an act repealing that part of the interstate commerce law which subjects convicted railway officials to imprisonment.

However the pending completion may result, we are firm in the opinion that the Cuban insurrection will terminate within six months. It is inadvisable that this country can much longer continue at such a state of barbarism.

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Ajaclus, The Tribune Astrologer.

A child born on this day will notice that it is about time to hang out the storm flag on Mayor Ball's administration.

There seems no reason why the festive correspondent should be backward about sending in the annual snake story.

Mr. Chase, of the "rainco," appears to have been a better jumper than a runner.

Do not expect too much of the umpire. He cannot see as much with two eyes as the grand stand beholds with a thousand.

following congress' adjournment. This seems a harsh thing to have to say of an American president, but in the saying of it is not made necessary by Mr. Cleveland's own actions.

Fortunately the opportunity for action is near to hand. Senator Morgan, some time ago took the wise precaution to introduce in the senate a joint resolution of recognition of Cuban belligerency.

This interesting bill came near creeping through congress unnoticed. It may have had its pathway smoothed and it may not.

In this connection it is refreshing to learn that the United States Supreme court has just refused to grant a rehearing of the Brown case.

Dispatches from Madrid leave no doubt that Senor Sagasta, the leader of the opposition to the present ministry, and probably the ablest living Spaniard, has, in his country's emergency, desisted from the role of political obstructionist and voluntarily offered to support the government.

Do not expect too much of the umpire. He cannot see as much with two eyes as the grand stand beholds with a thousand.

For an "administration paper," the Republican seems to be singularly misinformed upon the workings of the present Democratic machinery.
