

"Pure and Sure."

CLEVELAND'S

BAKING POWDER

"I prefer Cleveland's baking powder because it is pure and wholesome. It takes less for the same baking, it never fails, and bread and cake keep their freshness and flavor."

MISS CORNELIA CAMPBELL BEDFORD, Supt., New York Cooking School.

Norman & Moore
FIRE INSURANCE,
120 Wyoming Ave.

Lackawanna
THE Laundry.

308 Penn Ave. A. B. WARMAN.

Marked Down Sale

Real Brussels Lace Curtains:

$4.70, Former Price $6.00

5.30, Former Price 6.70

5.65, Former Price 7.00

5.85, Former Price 7.50

6.25, Former Price 8.00

7.65, Former Price 10.00

The Above Prices
Are for This Week Only.

WILLIAMS & M'ANULTY

CITY NOTES.

Alderman Miller sent in fifty transcripts for the coming session of the grand jury.

Ascension Day services will be conducted in Trinity Lutheran church at 8 this evening.

The will of James E. Beagle, late of this city, was probated yesterday and letters testamentary were granted to Stephen Jones.

The King's Daughters of Elm Park church will serve for cream, cakes and strawberries in the church parlors this evening.

The will of Honora Swift, late of Archibald, was admitted to probate yesterday and letters testamentary were granted to Winifred Swift.

The hearing of W. H. Johnson, the colored proprietor of the Oriental club, charged with keeping a gambling room and lottery, was yesterday continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

There was a general observance of Street Commissioner Kinsley's edict concerning street obstructions yesterday, and only in one or two instances has any pronounced opposition been shown to the order.

The work of repaving Spruce street between Franklin and Wyoming avenues, will be commenced today. The street car company will tear up its double track and lay a single track in the center of the street.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by Clerk of the Court John H. Thomas to Gomer E. Jones and Ellen Edwards, of Taylor; Abner Tyner, of Equinnum, Wayne county, and Lenora Barner, of Pleasant Mount.

Richard Jordan, of the South Side, was held in $200 bail yesterday by Alderman Miller for abusing a horse and damaging a carriage hired from Liverman W. W. Arnold. In default of bail he was sent to the county jail.

On Tuesday evening Philander Hornbaker, of Capone avenue, entered bail before Alderman Wright to answer on May 22 a charge of obtaining a consignment of bay by false pretenses from James Rooney, of Sougham.

Anton Yonker and Anna Lessor, the former accused of assault and battery and the latter of indecency, were yesterday held in $200 bail each for their appearance at court. Mrs. Lessor's husband was the prosecutor in both cases.

Contractor E. S. Williams was arraigned before Alderman Howe yesterday for throwing rubbish in Forest court. At the request of the prosecutor, Street Commissioner Kinsley, the fine was remitted. Mr. Williams admitting his guilt and agreeing to be more careful hereafter.

The Central Women's Christian Temperance union on Tuesday appointed Mrs. Field and Mrs. Wright to supply the railway stations in the city with temperance literature. The union decided to furnish buttoned bouquets to the railway men at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association on Memorial Day.

The case brought against Thomas Carroll, of Lawrence street, for connecting his property with a sewer without permission, was dismissed by Alderman Howe, Carroll bringing in the mislaid permit and the intelligence that a resolution had passed select council the previous night granting him special permission.

PERSONAL.

Frederick M. Kappeler and son spent yesterday at Lake Ariel.

Henry Conroy, of this city, is in charge of the Lake House, at Lake Ariel.

W. F. Hallister went to New York yesterday to attend the funeral of W. S. Sloan.

Fred Bailey has returned to his home in Chicago, after visiting his brother, Mayor James C. Bailey.

Mr. R. Jackson, of Washington, D. C., is being entertained by Mrs. Shoemaker, of 42 Adams avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Davidson entertained a number of friends at their residence, 215 Monroe avenue, Tuesday evening.

W. H. Cross, of Albany, N. Y., has been appointed division passenger agent of the Pennsylvania division of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, with headquarters in this city.

Senator James C. Vaughan went to Philadelphia yesterday accompanied by his son, William F. Vaughan. The latter will enter the Pennsylvania Nautical school, at Philadelphia.

MR. LAUER'S LEGACY.

Big Job Now Under Way in the City Engineer's Department.

One of the biggest jobs ever undertaken by the city engineer's department is now under way. It is the completion of a new assessment map of the city of Scranton, showing the lots as laid out at present, together with the street and block numbers and dimensions.

The resolution directing that this work be done was introduced by Mr. Lauer just before retiring from council and it is on that account dubbed "Mr. Lauer's Legacy," by the persisting employees of the department.

Special attention and private dining rooms for dinner parties at Lohmann's, Spruce street. Service and cuisine unequalled in this city.

A. A. Friedlander & Co. are preparing for their summer opening, which will take place in a few days.

CONVENTION OF IVORITES

Second Day Devoted to Entertainment and Parade.

VERY CREDITABLE PROCESSION

At the short Business Session in the Morning the Delegates Decide to Make No Change in the Mode of Holding Elections.

The second day of the Ivorite convention at Olyphant was devoted chiefly to the entertainment of the visiting delegates. There was a business session in the morning and the afternoon a social session. The day closed with an entertainment given at the Baptist church at Olyphant. It was thought that much of the business of the convention would be transacted before the chief part was laid over until the meetings of today, which will probably be the last of the session.

The morning session of the grand lodge was wholly taken up with discussing a proposed amendment to the constitution. Under the present rule the elections of grand lodge are held directly by the lodges. At each annual convention the delegates nominate their favorites for the different offices. The men thus named are to serve during the year ensuing the next annual convention. After the nominations have been made the grand secretary gives a list to each lodge and they hold a secret ballot for their choice of the candidates. The result of this ballot is placed in an envelope and sent to the grand secretary. When the convention opens up the next year the grand president appoints an election board of three delegates. To this board the grand secretary gives the sealed envelopes and the count is then made, and the successful candidates named.

At the last convention an amendment was offered to the effect that the officers be elected by a direct vote of the delegates at the grand lodge. The matter was according to standing rule, laid over until this year and the convention acted upon it yesterday. Those who spoke on the question whether or not the amendment should be adopted were John Owen, Utrich, E. D. Jones, Seranton; John Powell, Pittsburg; J. F. Evans, New York city; Richard Hughes, Edwardsville; Reese Morgan, Wilkes-Barre; and Grand Secretary Daniel Moran, from Miner's Mills. The amendment was rejected upon ballot. There was some objection to the vote. Mr. Jones, Utrich, claimed that each delegate was given only one vote and the per capita membership had represented. This would be one vote for every fifty members. According to this the delegates would have only 200 votes. The point was not pressed.

After the amendment had been disposed of it was time to adjourn. This was done, the rest of the day was given up to amusements and celebrations.

PARADE IN AFTERNOON.

Soon after the noon hour the streets of Olyphant became more and more agitated. The parade started at 2 o'clock and ran a short time before the march was begun. This greatly augmented the crowd. The parade started at 2 o'clock and ran a short time before the march was begun. This greatly augmented the crowd. The parade started at 2 o'clock and ran a short time before the march was begun. This greatly augmented the crowd.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

The streets were little the worse for dust.

Olyphant was agitated. A circus would hardly have caused more small boy clamor. The parade had two flags, one of the colors of the grand lodge, and the other of the city of Olyphant. They were the two men on horseback, with blazing costumes of red and other startling hues.

The national colors were on nearly every building along the line of march. In proportion to its size, Olyphant can be said to be as enthusiastic as any city in the country.

The Hyde Park people put up at Mahon's hotel. Across the street is a barber shop and in one of the chairs reclined a male visitor. He was in a razor in hand was a very thin man that seemed to be a woman. "A woman barber" created much interest in the group of men. The talk naturally drifted into reminiscences of days in old Gwalla. One man remembered a female barber at Aberystwyth. Another said he saw one at Scranton. This was becoming more interesting when a cold chill circulated in the group as the "female" across the street drew a cloak from "her" shoulders and lit a cigar. She was a man.

Alderman Owen D. John, of the West Side, was in the parade for a short distance. The walk was almost too long for the paraders. If the dust had been avoided a few hours before, the visitors would have forever kindly remembered the town authorities.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.

"Temple of Love," an organization from Taylor, preceded the Jermyn lodge. The North End crowd was accompanied by the Niagara Drum corps. The corps were neat uniforms and they added much to the spirit of the marching. Luke Evans was marshal of the Providence division. The rear end of the parade was taken up by the Emilin lodge, with nearly every one of the eighty-six members in the ranks. There were three carriages in the parade. In the first were the grand officers of the lodge, W. H. Hughes, Reese Morgan, B. F. Lloyd and Daniel Bevan. In the second were Rev. John Williams, Daniel Williams, Charles Reese, Richard D. Jones, of Olyphant, and Mr. George, of Plymouth. The third contained Moses J. Jones, mayor of Pottsville, V. T.; E. D. Jones, John H. Phillips, of Scranton, and Henry Williams, of Olyphant.

The three last mentioned are past presidents of lodges. The line of march went to Lackawanna, down Delaware to Blakely and as far as Johnson's store; from thence up Lackawanna to Third, over the Scott road to the Union hotel and disperse. Along the line of march the buildings showed decorations in the national colors. The citizens generally showed an interest in the convention.

In the evening an entertainment was given to the visitors at the St. Agatha's Street Baptist church. The townspeople crowded the auditorium. In the evening of E. Hughes, of Scranton, who was to have been chairman, Henry P. Davies, of Eynon street, announced that that popular Welshman was unable to attend. Mr. Davies asked who should be selected as substitute to Mr. Hughes. The name of John Powell, the noted Welsh bard of Pittsburg, was offered. The gentleman accepted in a characteristic speech in the Welsh language, but, in courtesy to those who could not understand the language, Mr. Powell announced that the entertainment would be conducted partly in English.

WELCOME TO VISITORS.

He called upon Dr. W. E. Lloyd, who, as a representative of Emilin lodge, gave the visiting delegates a hearty welcome to the town. He said, in part: "We feel honored that the Order of American True Ivorites has dignified to hold one of their conventions at Olyphant. It is assembled for a noble purpose. When men gather together with benevolent intent or to alleviate the sufferings of mankind, I deem their mission a holy one. With the advance of thought there comes a furtherance of the good, and we must advocate the best interests of the order. Our nation should not lose its identity and we should draw the younger element to the ranks of Ivorism."

Dr. Lloyd's effort was loudly applauded. Chairman Powell called upon John Astin and party for a vocal selection. The response was "The Two Roses," a very beautiful piece. The singers showed excellent training and the melody was well balanced. James H. Reese, of Olyphant, recited an "Elegy to Man From the Coat That He Wears." It was in Welsh. An encore was demanded; Mr. Reese gave a humorous story. Logan Lloyd, of Priceburg, played two selections on the zither.

CHARGES ARE REPUTED

Statements Made by Forger Baird Proved to Be Utter.

AFFIDAVITS ON THE SUBJECT

Were Made by Charles Searies and John J. Langan and Exonerated Warden Jay and Keeper Green—Communication from Latter.

From affidavits printed below, it will be seen that there is no truth in the charges preferred by Forger James Baird against Warden Thomas Jay and Keeper W. D. Green, of the Lackawanna county jail. Sheriff P. H. Clemons is satisfied that the charges are groundless and when he was interviewed on the subject, he expressed himself positively concerning the falsity of the charges. Forger Baird was one of the best witnesses for the accused men, inasmuch as he failed to come forward and substantiate his charges.

Warden Jay was seen at the jail yesterday afternoon and he said no more than what was printed a few days ago in this Tribune. He was conscious of his innocence and thought that he could prove it. He felt pleased that he was able to secure proof positive. Keeper Green, when spoken to, said he would make a statement in writing.

The affidavits are from Charles Searies and John J. Langan, the two persons who were sworn to have paid to Messrs. Jay and Green money to secure their release from jail. Searies lives near Schuylville and Langan lives in Blakely. Both affidavits were sworn to before Justice of the Peace Gould Whitlock, of Newton township. Langan lives in Blakely, and his son, Michael, spent three months in jail for betraying a girl. His affidavit was sworn to before Justice of the Peace S. W. Arnold, of Peckville. The affidavits are as follows:

POEM ON IVORISM.

D. Edwards, of Youngstown, read a poem on Ivorism and was loudly applauded. Grand Secretary Daniel Moran, of Miner's Mills, read an interesting report of the condition of the order. He said that the Ivorites have expended since 1872 an immense amount of money. $182,587.52; donations, $10,234.83; burial, $46,017.26. Total, $238,840.41. In proportion to its membership the order has paid out for benevolent purposes more than any other order in the world. Henry P. Davis, of Scranton, talked on the benefits of Ivorism. He reverenced the history of the organization, which is a Welsh body. Mr. Davis took his hearers away back in time, to the early centuries, and to the history of the Welsh people. The speaker, before closing, read an original poem in praise of the Welsh language.

During his remarks he compared the Ivorites to other orders and endeavored to show the vital necessity of such an organization as Ivorism to the Welsh people in this country. He was listened to with evident interest. Miss M. J. Davis sang pleasantly, the selection being "Good Night, but Not Good-bye." The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm. The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm. The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm.

SELECTION BY THE GLEE.

The Gwent Glee club, of Olyphant, sang Dudley Buck's impressive maritime song, "The Swallow," which was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club.

AFFIDAVIT OF SEARLES.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county Charles Searies, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind whatever. I never told James Baird that I had to put up a watch in order to get money to pay for my clothing. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. There was nothing said about bonus or interest. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. And further depose that Charles Searies, sworn and subscribed before me the eleventh day of May, 1896. Justice of the Peace, Gould Whitlock.

AFFIDAVIT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

STATEMENT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Committee Discusses Arrangements for the Opening Next Fall.

The high and training school committee of the board of control met last night to begin the work of arranging for the opening of the new high school in September. Nothing of a definite nature was done, the members simply talking over the various ideas that have suggested themselves.

The members elected themselves not to divulge any of the proposed plans, consequently the public will have to wait for a few weeks, possibly, for this kind of interesting information. The make-up of the faculty and the curriculum are the two principal matters which the committee will have to wrestle with. Authoritative report has it that a four-year course and a faculty made up almost entirely of male teachers has been about decided upon. A well known professor of a local academy is spoken of for principal and several out-of-town college professors are being considered for positions.

DRUGGIST HAD A SHOVEL.

Druggist P. J. Vetter, of 415 Penn avenue, is one of the business men who were compelled to remove street signs of the sidewalk, under Thursday's dictum of the street commissioner.

Yesterday morning upon coming to his store Mr. Vetter found that the edge of the sidewalk from which he had been compelled to move his sign the day before was occupied by a pile of cobble stones, placed there by employees of the Traction company, which yesterday began the laying of tracks on that thoroughfare, between Mulberry and Olive streets.

Without any delay Mr. Vetter proceeded with his coal-car, secured a shovel and began shoveling the cobble

CHARGES ARE REPUTED

Statements Made by Forger Baird Proved to Be Utter.

AFFIDAVITS ON THE SUBJECT

Were Made by Charles Searies and John J. Langan and Exonerated Warden Jay and Keeper Green—Communication from Latter.

From affidavits printed below, it will be seen that there is no truth in the charges preferred by Forger James Baird against Warden Thomas Jay and Keeper W. D. Green, of the Lackawanna county jail. Sheriff P. H. Clemons is satisfied that the charges are groundless and when he was interviewed on the subject, he expressed himself positively concerning the falsity of the charges. Forger Baird was one of the best witnesses for the accused men, inasmuch as he failed to come forward and substantiate his charges.

Warden Jay was seen at the jail yesterday afternoon and he said no more than what was printed a few days ago in this Tribune. He was conscious of his innocence and thought that he could prove it. He felt pleased that he was able to secure proof positive. Keeper Green, when spoken to, said he would make a statement in writing.

The affidavits are from Charles Searies and John J. Langan, the two persons who were sworn to have paid to Messrs. Jay and Green money to secure their release from jail. Searies lives near Schuylville and Langan lives in Blakely. Both affidavits were sworn to before Justice of the Peace Gould Whitlock, of Newton township. Langan lives in Blakely, and his son, Michael, spent three months in jail for betraying a girl. His affidavit was sworn to before Justice of the Peace S. W. Arnold, of Peckville. The affidavits are as follows:

POEM ON IVORISM.

D. Edwards, of Youngstown, read a poem on Ivorism and was loudly applauded. Grand Secretary Daniel Moran, of Miner's Mills, read an interesting report of the condition of the order. He said that the Ivorites have expended since 1872 an immense amount of money. $182,587.52; donations, $10,234.83; burial, $46,017.26. Total, $238,840.41. In proportion to its membership the order has paid out for benevolent purposes more than any other order in the world. Henry P. Davis, of Scranton, talked on the benefits of Ivorism. He reverenced the history of the organization, which is a Welsh body. Mr. Davis took his hearers away back in time, to the early centuries, and to the history of the Welsh people. The speaker, before closing, read an original poem in praise of the Welsh language.

During his remarks he compared the Ivorites to other orders and endeavored to show the vital necessity of such an organization as Ivorism to the Welsh people in this country. He was listened to with evident interest. Miss M. J. Davis sang pleasantly, the selection being "Good Night, but Not Good-bye." The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm. The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm.

SELECTION BY THE GLEE.

The Gwent Glee club, of Olyphant, sang Dudley Buck's impressive maritime song, "The Swallow," which was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club.

AFFIDAVIT OF SEARLES.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county Charles Searies, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind whatever. I never told James Baird that I had to put up a watch in order to get money to pay for my clothing. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. There was nothing said about bonus or interest. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. And further depose that Charles Searies, sworn and subscribed before me the eleventh day of May, 1896. Justice of the Peace, Gould Whitlock.

AFFIDAVIT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

STATEMENT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Committee Discusses Arrangements for the Opening Next Fall.

The high and training school committee of the board of control met last night to begin the work of arranging for the opening of the new high school in September. Nothing of a definite nature was done, the members simply talking over the various ideas that have suggested themselves.

The members elected themselves not to divulge any of the proposed plans, consequently the public will have to wait for a few weeks, possibly, for this kind of interesting information. The make-up of the faculty and the curriculum are the two principal matters which the committee will have to wrestle with. Authoritative report has it that a four-year course and a faculty made up almost entirely of male teachers has been about decided upon. A well known professor of a local academy is spoken of for principal and several out-of-town college professors are being considered for positions.

DRUGGIST HAD A SHOVEL.

Druggist P. J. Vetter, of 415 Penn avenue, is one of the business men who were compelled to remove street signs of the sidewalk, under Thursday's dictum of the street commissioner.

Yesterday morning upon coming to his store Mr. Vetter found that the edge of the sidewalk from which he had been compelled to move his sign the day before was occupied by a pile of cobble stones, placed there by employees of the Traction company, which yesterday began the laying of tracks on that thoroughfare, between Mulberry and Olive streets.

Without any delay Mr. Vetter proceeded with his coal-car, secured a shovel and began shoveling the cobble

CHARGES ARE REPUTED

Statements Made by Forger Baird Proved to Be Utter.

AFFIDAVITS ON THE SUBJECT

Were Made by Charles Searies and John J. Langan and Exonerated Warden Jay and Keeper Green—Communication from Latter.

From affidavits printed below, it will be seen that there is no truth in the charges preferred by Forger James Baird against Warden Thomas Jay and Keeper W. D. Green, of the Lackawanna county jail. Sheriff P. H. Clemons is satisfied that the charges are groundless and when he was interviewed on the subject, he expressed himself positively concerning the falsity of the charges. Forger Baird was one of the best witnesses for the accused men, inasmuch as he failed to come forward and substantiate his charges.

Warden Jay was seen at the jail yesterday afternoon and he said no more than what was printed a few days ago in this Tribune. He was conscious of his innocence and thought that he could prove it. He felt pleased that he was able to secure proof positive. Keeper Green, when spoken to, said he would make a statement in writing.

The affidavits are from Charles Searies and John J. Langan, the two persons who were sworn to have paid to Messrs. Jay and Green money to secure their release from jail. Searies lives near Schuylville and Langan lives in Blakely. Both affidavits were sworn to before Justice of the Peace Gould Whitlock, of Newton township. Langan lives in Blakely, and his son, Michael, spent three months in jail for betraying a girl. His affidavit was sworn to before Justice of the Peace S. W. Arnold, of Peckville. The affidavits are as follows:

POEM ON IVORISM.

D. Edwards, of Youngstown, read a poem on Ivorism and was loudly applauded. Grand Secretary Daniel Moran, of Miner's Mills, read an interesting report of the condition of the order. He said that the Ivorites have expended since 1872 an immense amount of money. $182,587.52; donations, $10,234.83; burial, $46,017.26. Total, $238,840.41. In proportion to its membership the order has paid out for benevolent purposes more than any other order in the world. Henry P. Davis, of Scranton, talked on the benefits of Ivorism. He reverenced the history of the organization, which is a Welsh body. Mr. Davis took his hearers away back in time, to the early centuries, and to the history of the Welsh people. The speaker, before closing, read an original poem in praise of the Welsh language.

During his remarks he compared the Ivorites to other orders and endeavored to show the vital necessity of such an organization as Ivorism to the Welsh people in this country. He was listened to with evident interest. Miss M. J. Davis sang pleasantly, the selection being "Good Night, but Not Good-bye." The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm. The address of the speaker was Mr. and Mrs. William Voyle Davies, of Blakely, sang two juvenile songs and placed the audience in great enthusiasm.

SELECTION BY THE GLEE.

The Gwent Glee club, of Olyphant, sang Dudley Buck's impressive maritime song, "The Swallow," which was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club. The song was sung by the club.

AFFIDAVIT OF SEARLES.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county Charles Searies, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind whatever. I never told James Baird that I had to put up a watch in order to get money to pay for my clothing. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. There was nothing said about bonus or interest. I never saw or knew of W. D. Green. And further depose that Charles Searies, sworn and subscribed before me the eleventh day of May, 1896. Justice of the Peace, Gould Whitlock.

AFFIDAVIT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

STATEMENT OF LANGAN.

Lackawanna county, ss.: Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace in and for said county John J. Langan, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: That I was in or out of jail ask me or receive any money or gift of any kind to get you released from the county jail. (Answer) No. Did he tell you at any time that you were to put up a watch in order to get released? He did not. Did you read the article in the Scranton Sunday Free Press of May 10, 1896, which Thomas Jay, warden, is accused of extorting money from Searies and others? I do not know of any article of that kind before he would be released from the county jail. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived. I am not a man who would be so easily deceived.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Committee Discusses Arrangements for the Opening Next Fall.

The high and training school committee of the board of control met last night to begin the work of arranging for the opening of the new high school in September. Nothing of a definite nature was done, the members simply talking over the various ideas that have suggested themselves.

The members elected themselves not to divulge any of the proposed plans, consequently the public will have to wait for a few weeks, possibly, for this kind of interesting information. The make-up of the faculty and the curriculum are the two principal matters which the committee will have to wrestle with. Authoritative report has it that a four-year course and a faculty made up almost entirely of male teachers has been about decided upon. A well known professor of a local academy is spoken of for principal and several out-of-town college professors are being considered for positions.

DRUGGIST HAD A SHOVEL.

Druggist P. J. Vetter, of 415 Penn avenue, is one of the business men who were compelled to remove street signs of the sidewalk, under Thursday's dictum of the street commissioner.

Yesterday morning upon coming to his store Mr. Vetter found that the edge of the sidewalk from which he had been compelled to move his sign the day before was occupied by a pile of cobble stones, placed there by employees of the Traction company, which yesterday began the laying of tracks on that thoroughfare, between Mulberry and Olive streets.

Without any delay Mr. Vetter proceeded with his coal-car, secured a shovel and began shoveling the cobble of all kinds. The very latest in leather, with Gold and Silver Buckles. Waist Buttons, and Links in Gold and Silver.

Belts, Belts

Berry
THE Jeweler

423 Lackawanna Avenue.

CLOTHING

Men's Gray Clays—the bargains of the season. We are selling a Cutaway or Sack Suit, well made and trimmed up to date and sold everywhere at $12.00. Our Cash Store price.

$7.98.

CLARKE BROTHERS

IT'S NO USE TALKING

Call Around and Examine What We Carry in

WANTED TO TAKE SOMETHING

Very Likely Explanation Given by Burglar Barrett in Police Court.

John Barrett, of North Washington avenue, whose arrest for burglarizing "The Office," 106 Wyoming avenue, at an early hour yesterday morning was reported in yesterday's Tribune, was given a hearing at 9 o'clock a. m. by Alderman Wright and pleaded guilty.

When asked why he had entered the premises of another at that unseasonable hour, when no one was about, Barrett indignantly answered: "To take something. I guess you had better know that the county jail is waiting for me. The same place was entered and robbed the night before and Barrett is suspected of the crime."

RHEUMATISM is caused by lactic acid and other toxins. Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes this acid and completely and permanently cures rheumatism. Be sure to get only Hood's.

HOOD'S PILLS cure nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. Sold by all druggists.

Pillsbury's Flour—We have a capacity of 17,500 barrels a day.

Sawyer's Millinery.

A POPULAR PIANO

4 IN ONE DAY.

THE

WERS & POND

SOLD ONLY BY

L. B. POWELL & CO.,

226-230 WYOMING AVE.

Best Sets of Teeth, $8.00

Including the painless extracting