SCRANTON MOVES UP A PEG

Johnson gave Only Three Hits to Providence--Wilkes-Barre Gets the Best of Springfield in a Loosely Played Game.

The four tail-end clubs won yesterday. Scranton going up from fifth to fourth place ahead of the Springfield champions, who drop to next to last. Wilkes-Barre won from Springfield, getting the best of a game played loosely by both clubs.

JOHNSON'S GREAT WORK.

He Holds the Strong Providence Men Down to Three Hits--Game Full of Snaps, Gingery Play.

Johnny Johnson had been pitching for his life yesterday. He would live to be a thousand years old. That Tommy pitched a great game, and today in his favor, that the strong Providence team was the organization which procured only three hits, is another thing in his favor.

WILKES-BARRE WON.

Springfield Lost because of Many Costly Errors.

Wilkes-Barre, May 13--Wilkes-Barre won the second game of the series with Springfield today. Both teams played a loose game in the field, the errors made by the visitors being especially costly.

GOOD WORK ALL AROUND.

Effort again caught a trophy game and handled Johnson's amazing show in splendid fashion. Ward, Maguire and Hutchinson participated in some sharp, gingery work and Eagan accepted five chances, three of which were difficult and which he gathered in only after long hard runs.

ROCHESTER-BUFFALO

Buffalo, N. Y., May 13--Buffalo today defeated Rochester in a game filled with hitting and heavy batting on their part. Score: Buffalo 10, Rochester 2.

THE FOURTH INNING

In the fourth inning, which was a warm one and not mixed between Basset and Cooney, Basset's hunt and a single to right by Maguire earned a run. The Grays were retired one-two-three.

THE FOURTH INNING

Johnson started in the fifth and was forced by Ward, a single by Pink and a base on balls filled the bases. Two runs came in on Eagan's single drive to right. For Providence, after two were out, Rutherford reached first on Hess' error, but Ward made a splendid one-hand stop of Lyons' boulder and nabbed him at first.

THE ONLY TIME

The only time he hit a foul ball of third base. Basset caught it after a run and Johnson beat the ball home. For Providence, with one out, Lyons got to first on Hutchinson's error, alone second and went to third on wild pitch, but Basset flew out to Hess and Knight fanned.

public as would pay 25 cents. The Shamokin team did not play a good one at all. In fact, they were completely disgusted when they went home. They had come with the well meant intention to give Carbonade a spanking, but they did not succeed, for it was Carbonade who gave the spanking and Shamokin who received it with very bad grace.

A little change was made in the make-up of our team. Fallen, a new acquisition of Marty Swift's, holding down and second, and O'Grara going to right field. Fallen was decidedly nervous, which kept him from hitting the ball, but he showed up well in the field.

CLOSE OF THE GAME

In the eighth inning reached first on Basset's miff of an easy fly. He was advanced to third on Maguire's sacrifice and Raftery's out at first. Johnson, after being out at first, was out at second on a sacrifice. Hutchinson got runners on third and first on a base on balls to Basset and Knight's single, but Draboy was nailed at first on Hutchinson's fine stop and throw.
