

WILL BE A CIRCUS PARADE.

Knights Templar Pageant.

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE, 120 Wyoming Ave.

CITY NOTES.

Bauer's band will give a concert at Lau rel Hill park on Sunday afternoon. Arthur Frothingham returned last night from a four days' visit with Mr. Edison, the Wizzard of Menio Park.

William Scott and Albert Vaughan, two North End men in jail on the charge of making threats, were let out yesterday on ball.

"The Doctor of Alcantara" was repeated at College hall last night by the Scranton-ians before a good-sized and well-pleased audience. Thus the people will not be disappoint-ed; we will not interfere with the knights, and Mr. Balley will be able to open his doors for the afternoon show on time."

Andrew Simonyk, through his attorney, ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, began an action in trespass against the borough of Win-ton yesterd ay.

The semi-annual statement of the Dime Deposit and Discount bank shows an in-crease of deposits of $110,000 over the statement published six months ago.

Winnie Miller, colored, was sent to the Founty jail in default of bail yesterday by Alderman Millar for making threats against Annie Anderson, also colored. Both were residents of Oakford court.

KNIGHTS PREPARING Grand Commandery Conclave Promises to Be a Big Affair. WILL BRING 12,000 STRANGERS the Home of the Friendless, who, it appears, also asked the same question The committee was continued with instructions to prosecute the father if it can be proven he is able to support Extensive Preparations for the Parad on Tuesday, the 26th, and That the children.

Night's Ball-There Are Other Important Features.

One week from next Monday. Tue day and Wednesday, or, on May 25, 26 and 27, this city will practically be given over to the Knights Templar. to Interfere, However, With the comprising the grand commandery of the state of Pennsylvania. It is esti-mated that on Tuesday and Wednesday Barnum & Balley will give a free the city will contain from 10,000 to 12,000 strangers, who will come especially on account of the conclave, while Tues-day's crowd will number also the thoutreet parade in Scranton on Tuesday. May 26, and it will not conflict with the parade of the Knights Templar. Clar-ence L. Dean, special agent for the show, was in the city yesterday, and made the necessary arrangements. "Mr. Bailey sent me here from Balti-more," said Mr. Dean to a Tribune man last night. "for the express purpose of settling the matter of the parade. He had been informed that there was op-position to his making a parade at all, and he told me that if I found this to be the fact, or if his parade would in any May 26, and it will not conflict with the sands attracted by Barnum's circus and the every day thousands of transients. Of the 16,000 or 12,000 attracted by the conclave, over 2.000 will be members of the commanderies which will participate in Tuesday morning's parade, 2,000 will be members of the Masonic order but not Sir Knights, and the remainder will be strangers who are not Masons and the wives and daughters of the Sir Knights, it being an unwritten the fact, or if his parade would in any way interfere with the programme of the Knights, he would abandon it and Templar law that the women shall enjoy the pilgrimage and other features attending the annual conclaves. But aside from the large crowd, an show here without the customary street parade. When it was first told to him that he could not start from the grounds important fact is that it will contain scores of men who enjoy prominence and repute beyond the localities in that he could not start from the grounds until 11 o'clock, he said to me that it would'be impossible for him to make a parade and be ready to open the doors for the afternoon show. I telegraphed him the full situation today, however, after looking over the ground, and his reply is that he will make the parade, but it must be over a short route. "I find today, after making inquiries and repute beyond the localities in which they live, the Knights Templar, it is said, possessing more men of distinction than any secret order ex-tant. Several of those who will be here hold high state office, some are repre-sentatives at Washington, and many are financiers or professional men of no little note. Scranton's six largest hotels have been engaged for months and each is equipped with a sufficient number of cots to fill all its halls and other avail-but it must be over a short route. "I find today, after making inquiries in all quarters, that not only is all op-position to his making a parade absent, but that the citizens of Scranton, the mayor and city officials and my brother Sir Knights are anxious to make it as easy for him as possible to give to the people their customary free pageant. All that is asked by any one is that ar-rangements be made in such a manner as to insure no conflict between the paable space. The smaller hotels and large boarding houses, too, will have all their unused rooms occupied. rangements be made in such a manner as to insure no conflict between the pa-rades. That, thanks to the thoughtful suggestions of several Sir Knights, and of Mayor Balley and Commissioner Kinsley, has been done. BEGINS ON TUESDAY.

While the conclave proper does not begin until Tuesday morning, the larg-est portion of visiting commanderies will reach here by midnight Monday. Tuesday morning the parade will take place, and in the afternoon will begin the meeting of the grand commandery "Mayor Balley has very justly given the preference to the visiting knights, and at the same time has so arranged Next Tuesday the solicitors of the third-class cities of Pennsylvania will the meeting of the grand commandery it that the circus parade can follow imin the Frothingham theater. That night the ball will be given. Wednesit that the circus parade can follow im-mediately the knightly display. The only appreciable effect on the circus parade will be to make it briefer than it would otherwise be. We must get back to the grounds at noon in order to day morning the grand commandery will continue its session in the theater and will install its newly elected offlcers in the afternoon. That will conget ready to open the doors at 1 o'clck. "The show will be located on the old clude the conclave. But there are many attendant fea-tures which will keep the members of the order and their wives busy from the fair grounds on the Providence road, near the ball grounds, as pretty and convenient a location as can be found in time they enter the city. On Monday night levees will be held by a number Scranton, and really much better than the Driving park, where we were two years ago. The parade will leave there at 10 o'clock and will come down to the of the commanderles' officers at their respective halls and in halls procured especially for that purpose. The biggest Monday night reception will be that of the two Scranton comcorner of Vine street and Franklin ave-nue, where we can 'dress up,' or put on the flags. Then, as soon as the knights manderles, Coeur de Llon, No, 17, and Melita, No. 63, in the Rowing associamove off the street we will follow at a brief distance, make a short parade up tion rooms on Spruce street. No cards will be issued but Sir Knights will be Lackawanna avenue to Adams avenue, and back on Spruce to Penn avenue, and then return quickly to the grounds. expected to wear their fatigue caps.

thus securing without delay their own admission and that of the ladies ac-companying them. There will be music and refreshments. The wives and daughters of the members of Melita and Cocur de Lion will assist at the reption. The electric decorations will clude the cross and crown emblems. ception. Early Tuesday morning a long string been doing a big business. In Balti-more, where he left it, the tent was packed Tuesday night, and many had to go home, unable to get seats. The show is making a big hit, especially the fifty-one trained horses exhibited in a single ring by John O'Brien.

of open carriages containing the wives and daughters of the Sir Kaights will leave some central point for a trip over Elmhurst boulevard, returning before the heat of the day and in time for the parade.

able to take care of the youngest child. ACCIDENTS SUICIDE which she wants to take out of the house. She is also willing to contribute to the support of the other two children but believes that her ex-husband should be compelled to look after them. Two Early Morning Deaths of a Sad Secretary Lynett wrote to the chief of police of Syracuse to inquire as to how Mrs. Ellis was conducting herself and Tragic Nature. and was referred to the secretary of SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1896.

Mrs. Swan says that it is reported that Ellis is enjoying a life of compara-tive case and although fully capable to help support his children, has never contributed anything to them except ix cents and some cigarette pictures.

Some merriment arose from a some-what ghastly subject, the bill for the burial of the two Hillside Home inmates, Patrick Duffy and Jacob Walz, who on March 7 were run down and literally ground to pieces on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, near Hallstead. Although only one of laid up in bed with a serious complaint and who wants his four children taken and who wants his four children taken care of by the authorities as they are running about wild, with but little food.

insufficient clothing and no care. Mr. Langstaff was given the case in charge.

CITY SOLICITORS COMING.

Their Convention Will Begin in This City

convene here to consider and formulate amendments to the act of 1889. It is expected that nearly all of the twenty-our third-class cities of the state will e represented and that as each of them will have some idea to put forward, the convention will be an interesting and

This convention is the outcome of the convention held in Reading last March, when the mayors, city clerks, city engineers and city solicitors were called together to discuss ways and means for securing better government. So many evils and inadequacies in the act, under important one.

TORREY WAS CHOSEN.

on Tuesday.

GEO. MINNICK SHOT HIMSELL

Poor Health Was the Cause of the Rash Deed-Christopher Purcell in Seeking a Cool Place to Sleep Fell Out of a Window.

Two tragic deaths took place yesterday morning. One at Dunmore and the other at Bellevue. George Minnick, an old man 63 years of age, killed himself at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 207 Fifth street, Bellevue, by firing a bullet into his brain through the center of his forehead. The deed was committed in an outhouse at the rear of the lot. A 32-calibre revolver was the weapon them, Walz, was buried by the Great Bend poor authorities the bill submit-ted for this district's consideration The deceased was a blacksmith but had not done any work at the trade for three years. He lived with his wife and amounted to $62.10. To give an idea of how our country neighbors proposed to balloon their bill in order to run their a grown-up family, and had not been in very good health recently. Two months ago a man named Philip Young. poor district a year or two at our ex-pense the following item is printed in full: who lived next door to Minnick, killed himself in a similar manner, and Min-nick's family often heard him threaten since then to end his existence as Young For services in assisting in the disposa

did. HE AROSE VERY EARLY.

For services in densiting in the disposal of two men killed by the cars near my house, being called at 2.30 p. m. (he meant a. m.,) April 7, and helping to put them in my barn, where they remained nearly two days, greatly to my inconvenience-88. B. E. Smith. HE AROSE VERY EARLY. They watched him and kept weapons out of his reach. E. T. Swartwood, his son-in-law, owned the revolver which ended the old man's life, and how the latter got hold of it without being no-ticed is a mystery. Minnick arose at 6 o'clock and after dressing himself, went out the rear door of the kitchen. A few minutes later a shot was heard and when Mrs. Minnick investigated The bill, it is needless to say, was returned as excessive. Superintendent Beemer reported that he had Dr. Sturge examine all of the thirty head of cattle at the farm and all were found to be in good health and ree from any taint of tuberculosis. Another gratifying re-port from one of the board's officers was that Solicitor Scragg had succeed-ed in collecting $175 from the estates of two inmates of the home who had died recently. and when Mrs. Minnick investigated she found that her husband had killed himself. He was in a sitting posture when she found him and the blood was ouring from the wound. Life was ex-The most pitiful appeal that came to the board was a letter from Michael J. Mooney, of 137 Keyser avenue, who is tinct.

The police were notified and Captain Edwards and Patrolman Saul arrived at 10.30. They sent for Coroner Long-street and removed the body into the house, Dr. E. M. Pennypacker, deputy coroner, held an inquest in the after-noon and empaneled the following jury: Thomas Duggan, A. J. Winebrake, F. Dal aso, Henry Dusgan, John Carnif DeLacy, Henry Duggen, John Carniff, and R. F. Nector. Their verdict was to the effect that it was a case of suicide. PURCELL'S FATAL FALL.

One of his feet went through the glass and two large gashes were inflicted at the ankle. The loss of blood was so profuse that he died three hours afterward.

leaves a wife and family of four small children. The weather was so warm that he was unable to sleep and he left his bed and went to the window sill to derive the benefit of a draught Whether he fell asleep there and fell out, or fell out without falling asleep is not known.

which third-class cities are governed. were pointed out that it was concluded WIFE HEARD THE FALL. that a body such as made up the Reading convention was too unwieldy to deal expditiously with the many ques-His wife heard the noise of the fall and after she saw him and fealized his and after she saw him and fealized his condition she awakened some of the neighbors, and Dr. A. H. Bernstein, of Ash street, was sent for. The doctor came as quickly as the circumstances would permit, but he found Purcell in a dying condition from loss of blood and shock. Purcell died at 6 o'clock. Deputy Coroner Pennypacker, in re-sponse to a call from there went up in tions brought up, so it was decided to refer the business of the convention to a committee composed of the city solicitors alone, this committee to agree upon and formulate the amendments which in their judgment were desirable and submit their actions to a convention of all city officials to be held at Williams-port in the fall. sponse to a call from there went up in the afternoon to investigate the death on account of the rumors of foul play that were prevalent. He found nothing This committee met and chose Scranton's city solicitor, James H. Torrey, as chairman, and City Solicitor Stuart, of Carbondale, as secretary. It was agreed that an inquest was unnecessary. Pur-

Gold and Silver.

Berry

eweler

423 Lackawanna Avanua.

THE

NOL

NO

In the milligery department for the remainder of this week we will offer our stock of millinery for less than est in leather, with Gold cost.

and Silver Buckles. Waist 150 ladies' trimmed, worth from $2.00 to $4.50, Buttons, and Links in Our price, $1.98 150 children's trimmed leghorns, sold elsewhere for $2.50.

Our price, 14c. One lot of untrimmed leghorns, sold elsewhere at $1,00,

Our price, 59c. One lot of untrimmed leghorns with fancy straw edge, sold elsewhere at $1.50,

Our price, 79c. One lot of ladles' untrimmed hats, worth $1.25. All we ask is 19c.

Children's Lawn Hats.

One lot of children's lawn hats, sold eisewhere at 50 cents. We sell them for 19c.

One lot of fine lawn hats trimmed with embroidery for 45c.

One lot of English embroldery hats, got up in real childish styles, for S5c.

One lot of organde hats, people look-ing for new up-to-the-hour styles should look at these. All we ask for them is 98c.

Baby Caps.

One lot of baby caps, worth 40, we sell them for 200.

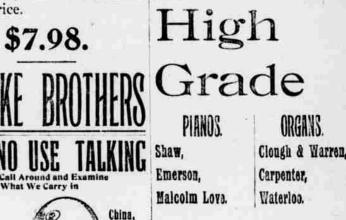

One lot of baby caps, worth 50 cents, we sell them for

25c. One lot of dotted swiss caps, trimmed with narrow lace, only 50c. Children's hats and bonnets are shown by us in almost endless variety of silk in white, pink and blue, from 75c. to $2.75.

138 Wyoming Avenus.

And Lower Grades at Very Low Prices.

were residents of Os Rev. Thomas B. Barker, of this city, an eloquent speaker, will address the men's meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3.45 at the Young Men's Christian association rooms. There will be good music and all men are cordially invited.

are cordially invited. 9. G. Kerr's St. Bernard dog, "Beauty," died yesterday morning. The animal was 12 years old. Eight years ago it tracked a lost boy in the West Side woods and found him. Mr. Kerr prized the dog very highly: it was one of remarkable instinct. highly: it was one of remarkable institut. James Price, Mrs. Annie Price and Miss Mamie Price, charged with stealing $50, a gold watch and three valuable pieces of cloth from Tallor Gilberti, of West Lack-swanna avenue, were discharged by Al-derman Kellow, there not being evidence sufficient to warrant sending the case to court.

William Hawkins, of Miner's Hill, Mi-nooka, and Miss Elizabeth oJnes, of this city, got a marriage license yesterday and were married in the court house by Alder-man Fuller. Hawkins is 59 years old and burled bis first wife in December 1822 the buried his first wife in December, 1893; the first husband of the present Mrs. Hawkins died last July. She is 52 years old.

died last July. She is 52 years old. The Bon Ton Social club, composed of the younger members of the Turn Verein, gave a social at Turner hall last night. Many of the club were present. Music for the dance was furnished by Miss Nellie Curran. At midnight refreshments were served. The affair was one of the most enjoyable of the many given during the season by this club.

Marriage licenses were granted yester-day by Clerk of the Courts John H. Thom-as to Hiram A. Swingle and Agnes M. Ki-ger, of Kizer village, this county; Charles E. Kizer, of Kizer village, and Sosaney Stevens, of Storling, Wayne county; Pe-ter Garnock and Francesco Vanterska, Olyphant; Henry A. Lewis and Nellie Owens, Carbondale; Martin McHale, of Jessup, and Bridget Davit, of Winton. An action was brought vesterday by Mrs

Jessup, and Bridget Davit, of Winton. An action was brought yesterday by Mrs. Lizzie M. Leibig against the Royal Bene-fit society of New York to recover $1,900 insurance upon the life of her father, Michael Kelly, who died Dec. 28, 1855. The policy was issued on Sept. 6, 1855, and the plaintiff claims that the monthly pay-ments of $5 each were duly plaid up to the time of her father's death. The amount of the policy has not been paid... City Solicitor Torrey yesterday morning of the policy has not been paid... City Solicitor Torrey yesterday morning filed a demurrer for the city to the bill in equity filed by John Jermyn in his suit against the city for increasing-by $50,000 the valuation upon the Hotel Jermyn, as fixed by the assessment made in January. The demurrer is to the whole bill for the following reason: That the bill sets forth no facts which in law or equity entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for, or to any other equitable relief.

other equitable relief. A conference was held Thursday after-noon by General Manager Frank Sill-man, jr., of the Scranton Traction com-pany; Mayor Halley. City Treasurer Bo-land, Councilman John J. Flansghan, of the Eighth ward, Street Commissioner Kinsley and City Engineer Phillips. The outcome of the conference was that Mr. Silliman agreed to take up one of the tracks on Spruce street and the other will be removed to the center of the street. The work of paving is now in progress and will be finished in time for the Kuights Templar parade on May 28.

A Day in Dress Goods.

If the ladies of Scranton appreciate the bargains we offer for today only, our store will be crowded with custo-

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Miss Nellie J. Allen, college secretary Pennsylvania, will conduct the regu-ar gospel meeting at the Young Women's Christian association Sunday, May 17, at 3.45 p. m. Miss Sara Carson has returned from actoryville, where she has been hold-ag special services, and she will con-luct services every evening but Sun-by this week at the South Side asso-iation day evening, 7.45. Miss Carson will at Green Ridge Presbyterian h to attend this meeting.

Do not fall to see the Stereopticon Exhibition this evening, Court house guare, commence & clock.

FIRE ON SPRUCE STREET. noke Seriously Damages Friedlander

Co's Millinery Stock. A crowd of several thousand persons

Dean says that the show has

Mr.

grand commandery officers from a stand to be erected at the corner of Lackahad plenty of entertainment at a fire which was discovered at 10.30 o'clock wanna and Wyoming avenues. During last night at 508 Spruce street, next to the progress of the parade in the busi-ness section there will be no street car traffic. This will be necessary owing to the new Mears building. Before the source of the dense volume of smoke which poured from all the windows in the building was discovered the magnitude of the parade and the evolutions which will take place. Alby the firemen, a number of well known ready the police officials are arranging men were rescued by means of ladders from their perches on win-dow sills of the third floor. Two their plans so that there will be no street intersection blockades or crowding from the sidewalks. Ing from the sidewalks. The ball at the Frothingham theater Tuesday night promises to be a gala affair. The arrangements are being made by a committee of thirty of which ex-Mayor W. L. Conneil is the chair-of the number have living apart-ments in the building and the oth-ers were the guests of the two. After finding there was a fire the party start-ed to make its escape via the halls and stairways, but were driven back by man. A band and orchestra will furn-ish the intermission and dance music respectively under the direction of Bauer. The musicians will occupy a platform which will be sum of a smoke

The street floor of the structure, which is a double one, is occupied by Speicher's barber shop and the mil-linery establishment of Friedlander & Co. After a long search the flames were located in the cellar of the latter store. The fire had started in a pile of boxes and rubbish in the rear and had spread to the flooring overhead and to the cellar stairway leading to the store. vitations will be issued. Only Knights in complete regalla and the ladies with them will be admitted. Re-The flames were subdued soon after be ing located. Friedlander & Co. are the only tenfreshments will be served beginning at 10.30 o'clock. The installation of the grand comants who suffered serious loss, and their's is from the damage done by smoke to delicate millinery goods. The insurance is not known. Two hundred dollars will cover the damage to the mandery officers will take place in the theater Wednesday afternoon. It is a most impressive ceremony and will b semi-public; that is, admission will be given to only such ladies and gentle-men as are attended by a Sir Knight. building.

HE AVOIDED PAYING TOLL.

But Bennett Afterwards Paid Two Dollars for His Fun.

Lew Bennett, an itinerant merchant, Did Mrs. Swan, Chairman of the Pool drove his steed through the Capouse toll gate yesterday without stopping to settle for the privilege of inhaling Boulevard dust. Some time afterward a nice looking gentleman asked the ped-dler to give him a ride. Mr. Bennett readily consented, and at the request of the passenger drove down to Dickson avenue. The stranger requested Bennett to stop a moment in front of the office Alderman Bailey. He did so and the passenger, who proved to be Special Ofpassenger, who proved to be Special Of-ficer Stone, incognito, went inside and soon returned with a warrant for the arrest of the peddler on charge of run-ning toll gates. The alderman came out and heid court on the porch and imposed a fine of two dollars on Ben-nett.

The peddler wept at the ingratitude port on them at the next meeting of the man who had asked a ride, but finally paid the fine and whipped up his horse in the direction of the central The case of the three Ellis children, who are still at the Home of the Friendless, was again brought to the notice of city a wiser man.

DEATH OF REV. GRIFFITH.

Succumbed to Diabetes in a Hospital at Utics, N. Y.

Utica, N. Y. Intelligence reached here yesterday afternoon that the Rev. Owen Griffith (Geraldus) died Thursday morning of diabetes at the St. Elizabeth hospital, Utica, N. Y. Mr. Griffith was editor and proprietor of the Wawr (Dawn). He came to this country from Abercanne, South Wales, in 1867 and took charge of the Miners-ville Welsh Baptist church. In 1876 he gave up the pastorate and devoted his time to his magazine. He was a strong preacher and a poet of note. He was the author of several very readable assure the board that she is fit and J. ALFRED PENNINGTON Will receive pupils in Plano and Organ Playing at his New Studio, to be opened Sep-tember 1, corner Malison avenue and Linden street, (opposite Elm Park parsonage.

breacher and a poet of note. He was the author of several very readable books, and was widely known on both sides of the Atlantic. He has left a gap in the ranks of the Weish Baptists of this country not eas-ily filled. The funeral will be held at his home, 227 Blaudine street, Utica, N. Y this afternoon ... this afternoon.

Midsummer Millinery Opening. Will take place Tuesday, May 19, at M. A. Friedlander & Co., 568 Spruce street, opposite Court House.

and the states

FORTY COMMANDERIES. plenty of time to find out its wants and a wife and one child. It appears now that about forty comprepare them for presentation. On May 7 the chairman and secretary sent manderies and nearly that number of bands and drum corps will appear in the parade. It will be reviewed by the out a circular reminding the members of the committee of the date of the con-recently.

ention and requesting them to send on head an outline of any legislation they intended to introduce. The replies to these circulars so far received indicate that the convention will be on extremely busy one

Among the most important matters that will come before the solicitors will be Mr. Torrey's bill providing for the creation of the office of receiver of taxes, the full text of which was printed in Thursday's Tribune. On all sides the greatest commendation is heard for the proposed act and if the prayers of the people are listened to this very de-sirable innovation will be adopted.

NO DEFINITE PLAN. No definite plan for the sessions of the convention or arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors has been mapped out, but these things will all be platform which will be suspended from properly attended to. Mr. Torrey has secured the use of the select council chamber for the sessions and Select the celling over the stage, thus insur-ing every possible amount of standing and sitting room. It is promised that the floral and electrical decorations will be something magnificent. No in-Councilmen George Sanderson and Wade M. Finn have volunteered to look after the entertainment. Sir

The convention will probably last two days. In case the visitors can stay for three days, a trip to Farview or Honesdale will be one of the events of the enertainment programme.

YOUNGEST ON RECORD.

Six-Year-Od Child Arrested for Assault and Battery.

Harold Reed, the son of Groceryman George Reed, of Kellum court, un-doubtedly holds the distinction of be-RECEIVED SIX PROPOSALS. ing the youngest defendant to face a bar of justice, in this city or possibly anywhere else.

Although only six years of age Har-old was yesterday arraigned before Al-derman John T. Howe, of the Seven-teenth ward, on a charge of assault and battery. The accusation was made by Robert Hoag, representing his 5-year-old daughter, who, he alleges, was at divers times, and on Tuesday last in particular beaten and otherwise in-jured in person by Reed's little boy. He told the alderman that he had had He told the alderman that he had frequently complained to the Reeds of their boy's actions but it seemed to have no effect in preventing his child from being abused and when patience ceased to be a virtue he had recourse ing offices at 28 Breaker street. The bids were referred to a special com-mittee consisting Mrs. Swan, Dr. Paine and Mr. Fuller with instructions to re-mate them et the neutron store. to the law.

The alderman ruled that the child was not accountable and dismissed the case. Mr. Reed promised to see that his boy behaves himself hereafter.

Ask Your Dealer.

the board by the mother's efforts to prevent their being indentured. At the last meeting Secretary Lynett and So-licitor Scragg were appointed a special committee to investigate the case and for McGarrah's Insect Powder, 25 and 10-cent boxes. Never sold in bulk. Take no other.

Do not fail to see the Stereopticon their inquiries revealed the fact that Mrs. Ellis, who has been writing to the board under her maiden name, Jennie Exhibition this evening. Court house square, commence 8 o'clock. L. Davis, is now married to H. L. Ren-ford, and is living with him on Sabine

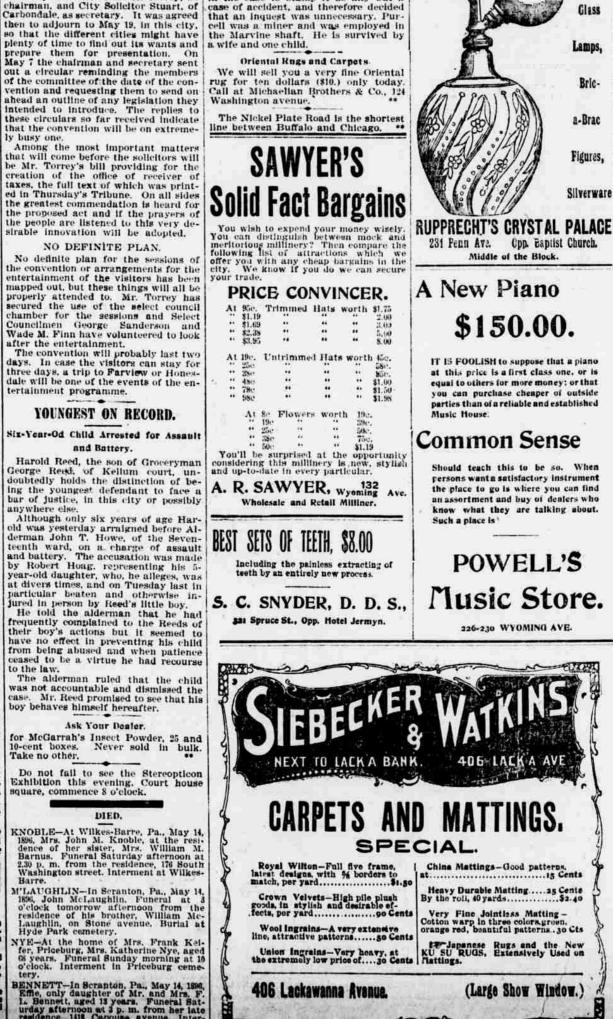

DIED.

KNOBLE-At Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 14, 1896, Mrs. John M. Knoble, at the resi-dence of her sister, Mrs. William M. Barnus, Funeral Saturday afternoon at 2.30 p. m. from the residence, 176 South Washington street. Interment at Wilkes Barre.

Barre. "LAUGHLJIN-In Scranton, Pa., May 14, 1896, John McLaughlin. Funeral at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence of his brother, William Mc-Laughlin, on Stone avenue, Burial at Hyde Park cometery.

YE-At the home of Mrs. Frank Kei-fer, Priceburg, Mrs. Katherine Nye, aged & years. Funeral Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Priceburg ceme-tery.

Mr. Pennington is a pupil of Turner and Dunham, Boston; Gulimont and Shriglia, Paris; Ehrlicht, Haupt, Reimann and Becker, Reilin. BENNETT-In Scranton, Pa., May 14, 1896, Effic, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bennett, aged 13 years. Funeral Sat-urday afternoon at 3 p. m. from her late residence. 1418 Capouse avenue. Inter-ment at Forest Hill cometery. Berlin. Organ pupils will receive lessons at the Elim Pask Chuich. Organ practice may be obtained at the rudio on a navy two-manual argan. For terms, etc., address 439 WYOMING AVENUE.

street, Syracuse.

She made this admission in order to

ORGANIST ELM PARK CHURCH.

for building the new chapel at the Hillside Home. Secretary Lynett was instructed to open the bids and they instructed to open the bids and they were discovered to be as follows: Con-rad Schroeder, $9,244; John Benore & Son, $9,000; Edwin S. Williams, $8,827; J. B. Woolsey & Co., $8,652; John T. Fitz-patrick, $7,896; J. A. Wilson, $7,350. Mr. Wilson, the lowest bidder, is a contrac-tor and builder of the North End, hav-ing offices at 28 Breaker street. The