SAID HE WAS ROBBED.

Postponed Remainder of Story Till after He Has A Nap, Two drunken men, one of them John H. Roche, of Bellevue, the other un-known and too drunk to tell his name, were picked up on lower Lackawanna avenue, near the Delaware and Hudson station, early last evening, by Patrolman John Duggan, whose attention was directed to them by a passer by, who said that the unknown man was accus-ing Roche of having robbed him.

Both were taken to the station house, and there before lapsing into utter insensibility the unknown reiterated the allegation that Roche had robbed him. How, when or where the alleged robbery took place, or how much was taken could not be learned from the stupefied stranger and Roche, of course, was not telling these things, if he knew anything about which knowledge he denied, Alderman Wright will hear all about it in the morning.

Storied Hogan Was Not a Circumstance to This Man.

At i o'clock this morning a man dressed only in trousers and red flannel undershirt, and carrying a huge club. rushed into the central police station all out of breath and asked for police help to save his house from destruction. When Desk Sergeant Deiter got the man coimed down a little he learned from him that his name was Thomas Dempsey, his home 655 Quincy avenue, Dunmore, and that his tenant, James Dunsey, who lived upstairs in his house. was on a rampage, destroying the furniture and the house, and threatening to demolish everybody who interfered with him. He further stated that Dunsey had a gun and bull dog, and was a dangerous man to approach.

The original cause of all the trouble was that the tenant was asked for the rent and not relishing the dun proceeded to resent the insult by getting drunk Societies Admitted -- Report Made and taking revege out of the landlord's Frothingham Secures a Large Territory to Exhibit It In.

Edison's latest and most mystifying creation, the vitascope, will be seen in this city soon, probably next week. Arthur Frothingham returned on Saturday from a four days' stay at Menio park, where he made arrangements with the "wizard" to exhibit his new wonder in New York, Connecticut, Minnesota, a part of Pennsylvania and on all the waters in the world. O. E. Jones, manager of the Frothingham, has been made general manager over all the terpresident: Miss Emily Jones, Shena-doah, third vice president: Miss Olwen Jones, Nanticoke, secretary: W. N. Evans, Plymouth, financial secretary; ritory controlled by Mr. Frothingham. This new machine is a kinetoscope with a stereopticon attachment. The first public exhibition of the vitascope was given in New York on the night of April 23 and it caused a great sensation. A reproduction of a scene at the Grand Central depot in New York, showing everything on canvass just as one would see it if on the scene, Rules motion and all, made a big hit with the

The programme included a talk by the chairman on "Our Young People in Relation to the Present State of Weish Baptist Churches" Miss Naomi Jones, of Sgranton, sang a solo. Professor L. J. Richards, of the Scranton School of Elecution and Orsatory, delivered a really fine address upon the striking subject. "The Oratory of the Nazarene." Miss Olwen Jones, of Nanticoke, recited pleasingly. T. G. Williams, of Scranton, sang in good voice, and Miss Mary A. Davis, of the North End, read an Interesting essay on "Young People and Missionary Work." By request Miss Cora Edwards of Wilkes-Barre, recited. The benediction closed the overvises. Five-Year-Old Youngster Wandering in Minooka.

At 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon a boy about 5 years old was found wandering along Main street, Minooka, near the city line and was taken in charge by city line and was taken in charge by it, J. Callery, who afterward turned him over to the police. Lieptenant Peter Zang has him now at the South Side station house on Alder street. The youngster is well dressed, but he is not capable of giving any definite ac-count of himself and therefore the police are at a loss to know with whom to communicate. He says, as near as can be understood, that his name is Johnny Weizel, that he was out with his mother, and she got on a street car and lost him. He said his home is on Scotch Hill, wherever that is.

BARBER MEN DESPERATE. They Have Called a Special Meeting for Tomorrow Night.

Six members of common council, John E. Regan, James F. Noone, Thomas McGrail, Philly Wirth, M. J. Sweeney, Thomas Norton and P. J. Nealls have signed a call for a special meeting tomorrow night for the trans-action of "general business." If there will be a meeting, which is not altogether positive, there will be very little business of a general nature transacted. The paying contract is the cause of the call. The Barber men con-tend that the reconsideration at the last meeting by which the contract was taken from the Barber company and given to Dunn Bros, was irregular, and they want a chance to show this before the matter goes over to select council Thursday night.

The Earber people argue that the coup of Dunn adherents was bregular masmuch as men who voted with the minority on the previous question. made and seconded the notion to re-consider.
