CONVENTION CONVENES.

Many A. O. H. Delegates in Town This Week.

The first session of the State convention of Ancient Order of Hibernians. Board of Erin. was held yesterday morning. It was called to order at 10 o'clock by State Delegate C. T. Boland. of Scranton, and was mainly for the murrous of examining the credentials of Scranton, and was mainly for the purpose of examining the credentials of the delegates. A committee consisting of Miles McAndrew, of Archhald; Joseph McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, and M. M. Sweeney, of Luzerne, were appointed for the purpose.

The parade which was to have taken place at two o'clock, was obliged to be postponed until evening, as the heavy rain put the streets in a bad condition. It was successfully held however, in the evening, and there was cuite a large number in line.

evening, and there was cuite a large number in line.

All the delegates were present at the production of "Arrah Na Pogue" by the Garriek Dramatic society in the even-ing. The society should be proud of the manner in which the play was given and many of the cast would have done credit to a professional. The usual hitches and unpleasant occurrences which are found in amateur produc-tions did not occur and the whole play was filled with life and spirit. The scen-ery which has been prepared especially ery which has been prepared especially for the play and the elaborate costumes did much toward making the play a pronounced success. It will be repeated to-

The sessions of the convention are secret so there will be little known for publication. All that is deemed proper will be given by a press committee.

A SERIOUS INJURY.

Joseph T. Kirkbride Has a Peculiar Accident.

A peculiar accident occurred to Joseph T. Kirkbride, an employe in the Delaware and Hudson car shops yester-day morning. Mr. Kirkbride is a car-penter and at the time was boring holes through a piece of wood. The machine he was using gave a sudden slip and was knocked with great force against the unfortunate man's body, and the bit entered the abdomen.

The bit was a 1½-inch one, and cut a great jagged hole. Mr. Kirkbride was removed by his fellow workmen to his home and a doctor hurriedly summoned. Dr. J. W. Lowry responded to the call and examined the inured man, who was suffering great pain. He was obliged to take several stitches to close the hole, which was about one and a half inches
