Closed Last Night. The time for making entries for the professional trotting races at the Driv-ing park on Decoration Day expired last night. Entries were received during the evening by H. P. Beilman, under whose management the meeting will be given. They will not be announced un-til tonight owing to the probability of receiving a number by mail during to-day. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Carbondale, May 20.—It was hardly what could be called base ball weather today. The air was raw and cold, but despite this the cranks were not discouraged and quite a large crowd sat on the hard benches at Anthracite park and shivered and shook, but nevertheday. The Decoration Day races should not be confused with those of the Gentie-men's Driving club which will begin the first Saturday in June and be continued on every Saturday afternoon during the summer. These races will be steletie less enjoyed the sound drubbing Car-bondale gave the Hazleton boys. There was a noticeable falling off in the at-tendance on "Deadhead" hill, and those who gathered there hugged the fires summer. These races will be strictly non-professional, and are to be conduct-ed by the well-known amateur horsethey had built to keep them from freez-ing. This very pleasant thing, how-ever, will not occur another day, for as

The biggest and most generally an-ticipated track event in this section of the state will be the New York, Penn-sylvania and New Jersey circuit trot-ting meeting here on June 23, 24 and 25. Scranton has not had one of these large ever, will not occur another day, for as soon as the ewather clears they will be out in full force. Jordan probably had an off day—the fans will be charitable and think so anyhow. The way his delivery was knocked about was a caution. Base hits, doubles and triples in quick order was not a thing to give much encour-agement to any pitcher, and it evidently did not to him. Swift's men are be-Scranton has not had one of these large meetings for years, but this one, and the one that is to follow in the fall, will the one that is to follow in the fall, will make amends for all that has been lacking in the past. For the June meeting entries have been made from all parts of the Middle and New Eng-land states, and no later than yester-day Secretary Fritz was notified by letter than ten entries would be made by an Indiana owner. agement to any pitcher, and it evidently did not to him. Swift's men are be-coming the terror of all the league teams. Out of the three games they have played this week, sixty-five hits have been placed to their credit. Come Over in the Fall. Philadelphia, May 20.-The secretary of the Associated Cricket clubs of Phil-adelphia, today received a cablegram from the managers of the Australian eleven, which is now in England, an-nouncing their acceptance of an invi-tation to visit this country in the fall. The Australians will sail from Eng-and on Sept. 9, with the All Philadel-phia team, and will play their first match in this city on Sept. 18, 19 and 21. The dates for the second match will be Sept. 25, 26 and 28, while the third and last match is scheduled for Oct 2, 3 and 5. The games will be played at Man-heim, Haverford and Elmwood, the re-spective grounds of, the Germantown, Merion and Belmont Cricket clubs. This will be the second visit to Philadelphia in four years of a team of Australian crickers.
