Daily and Weekly. No Sunday Edition. Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company...

E. P. KINGSBURY, Prop. and Gen'l. Man. E. H. RIPLEY, Sec'y and Treas. L. V. S. RICHARD, Editor.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT SCRANTON, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

"Printer's Ink," the recognized journal for advertising, from THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE as the best advertising medium in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, issued every Saturday, contains twelve handsome pages, with an abundance of news, fiction, and well-edited miscellany.

THE TRIBUNE is for sale daily at the D. L. and W. Station at Hoboken.

SCRANTON, MAY 22, 1896.

The Tribune is the only Republican daily in Lackawanna County.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Congressmen-at-Large. GALUSHA A. GHOW, of Susquehanna. SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT, of Erie.

There is one consolation about the present position of the Scranton ball club. The team will not be likely to be disturbed in it.

Needed Bicycle Legislation.

The ordinance governing the use of bicycles in the city of Buffalo reads as follows: "No person shall ride any bicycle or tricycle in any street, lane or alley of the city at a faster pace than at the rate of 10 miles an hour, and by means of a bell or whistle shall give proper and sufficient warning upon approaching a pedestrian upon a street crossing or other portion of the roadway, so as to enable such pedestrian to avoid a collision."

Objection has been raised to the fixing of a specified maximum speed limit on the ground that it is not feasible for the wheelman to know when he is riding more rapidly than, say, 10 miles an hour.

Colonel Henry Hall, in a dispatch to Chris Magee's Pittsburg Times, intimates that the Legislature will not read that no person shall ride so fast as to lose control of his vehicle.

Needed Here.

Before Magistrate Jermon, of Philadelphia, on Monday six reckless bicycle riders received a proper rebuke. The magistrate, in holding two of them in $300 bail each for court, said: "By the act of April 23, 1888, riders of bicycles are entitled to the same rights and subject to the same restrictions in the use thereof as are prescribed by law in the cases of persons using carriages drawn by horses."

"The public streets and highways of a city are made and intended for the use of all citizens to go, walk, ride and drive upon, at their will and pleasure. They have a right to the free use of the same, and to pass to and fro upon the same without molestation or fear."

General Weyer informs an interviewer that he doesn't read in rumors. No, his commodity is bluffs.

The Washington Post claims to know that last fall Mark Hanna laid out an outline of his plans before Senator Quay and wanted him to take personal charge of McKinley's canvass. The public travel is committing a public nuisance, and any person who shall unlawfully, willfully or wantonly do any act endangering the lives or limbs of persons traveling upon the streets in committing a serious offense which is prejudicial to the public welfare, and they should be so dealt with as to deter others from committing the same offense.

The Wilkes-Barre Record rises to remark that it was "the first straight-from-the-shoulder McKinley paper in Pennsylvania." It was also, we believe, one of the first straight-from-the-shoulder Quay papers.

On account of important personal interests that require his attention, Congressman Leisenring, ever his own signature, announces that he will not be a candidate for re-nomination.

Patronage has killed more political careers than any other single cause. It is especially dangerous in Luzerne county, where almost every other voter is a real or prospective office-seeker.

Colonel Henry Hall, in a dispatch to Chris Magee's Pittsburg Times, intimates that the Legislature will not read that no person shall ride so fast as to lose control of his vehicle.

Not a Party Wrecker. From the Easton Free Press. Senator Quay was right in declining to enter into the combination to attack Major McKinley on the ground that he was not sound on the money question.

WELL SELECT THE BEST. From the Wilkes-Barre Record. The Scranton Tribune has opened a column for the exclusive use of people who think they know better how to run a newspaper than the editors.

Post says Quay declined on account of ill health. We violate no confidence in asserting that Colonel Quay is better now.

Chairman Dingley has apologized to the country for his committee's indifference to reciprocity, and explains that it is all Grover's fault.

The ordering for export of another big lump of treasury gold is a repeated demonstration that it doesn't pay to elect Democratic administrations.

Mr. Cleveland's contract to carry the Democracy for the gold standard threatens to prove the champion flesh-reducer of his whole experience.

HOW TO TREAT REPORTERS. The Chronicle of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle makes a true and timely diagnosis of a widespread social evil when he points out that not one public festivity or ceremonial in ten is properly managed with reference to the provisions made for the accommodation of reporters.

Take a big public dinner for an example of this sort of assignment. The reporter attends it not because he wants to, but because he is sent by his editor.

You, no matter who or what you are, have no possible right to assume that a reporter is not just as able, just as much bound and just as willing to pay his way, to buy for himself all he wants to eat and drink and smoke.

Heart Failure. Often first manifested by extreme general debility, with sudden reactions for the better; a general dying out of the fires of life, that brighten up at intervals, giving hope of returning health, but eventually subside, go out on the spot, and another "dropped dead on the street" is reported.

Bovine and live to join the great army who today sing its praise. Dr. P. B. Carpenter, of 430 Friendship St., Providence, says, "I have never seen a case of general debility which Bovine failed to cure, when taken as I directed."
