BOY FINDS HIS MOTHER.

Ohio Lad, Separated From His Parent in Babyhood, Meets Her.

Superior, Wis., May 22—Wiliam Dayton, 12 years of age, wrote to Post-master Solon from Cincinnati about two weeks ago asking for information regarding his mother, whom he had never seen. The boy gave sufficient information about the lady to enable the postmaster to conclude that his mother was a Mrs. George A. Sples, who resides on a farm a short distance from the city. The little fellow was informed that his mother had been found, and yesterday the Omaha train brought him to town. He went out to the farm at once to see the lady reported to be his mother, and soon found that Mr. Solon was right. The mother was overjoyed at the reunion and the son is as happy as a lark. It seems the boy had been taken from his mother when an infant for some reason and placed under the care of relations, afterward getting
