MURTAUGH SENT TO JAIL.

He Was Held in $1,300 Bail on Three Charges.

Constable Timothy Jones' asailant, James Murtaugh, of Kelly's Patch, was yesterday committed to the county jall in default of $1,300, on three charges, threatening to kill, assaulting an offi-cer and resisting arrest.

J. D. Eastman, a neighbor of Murtaugh, is the prosecutor in the first case. At the hearing yesterday morning before Alderman Wright, he tes-tified that he is the agent for L. M. Bunnell, owner of the house in which Murtaugh lives and when he went to collect the rent Murtaugh told him he would cut out his liver and eat it for supper. Mrs. Murtaugh, under directions from her husband started to get an ax, and Eastman took this as his cue to beat a hasty retreat.

Going before Alderman Wright he secured a warrant for Murtaugh's arrest and placed it in the hands of Con-stable Timothy Jones. When the con-stable went to serve the warrant Mur-taugh and one William Newey pitched into him and gave him a severe drub-bing. He however succeeded in land-ing both of them in the West Side station house.

Newey was given a hearing yesterday afternoon for interfering with an officer and in default of $500 bail was committed to await trial.

Young Men and Women Who Will Re ceive Diplomas This Year.

IT IS QUITE EVENLY BALANCED

Are a Greater Number of Young Men Than in Any Class Graduated From the High School of Recent Years. Commencement Exercises June 19.

The personnel of this year's graduating class of the Scranton High school will probably be as follows: Misses Alla Hine, Irene Kahn, Katharine Larkin, Amelia S. Koch, Lula Belie Warren, Kathryn Smithing, Edna S. Klauminzer, Martha Reese, Emma Hart, Lida Weaver, Bernice Conger, Lulu Sylvester, Jennie Thomas, Agnes Nicol, Maud Saunders, Myrtle Perry, Elsie Keller, Ethel Porter, Elizabeth M. Robinson, Alice Mallery, and Howard P. Davis, Joseph Wagner, Charles Falkowsky, Simon Nye, Arthur Phillips, Fred Evans, Joseph Murphy, John McCourt and Harold A. Watres.

As will be seen, the class numbers about thirty members, an average If there is one thing that Alderman Millar dislikes more than another, it is to have a culprit take advantage of his goodness. He showed this in the Bishop case, and again yesterday in a somecase, and again yesterday in a some-what similar instance.

On the night of May 1 Michael Ruddy was arrested by D. Endelshon, the Lackawanna avenue tailor, for the theft of $10. The accused was to all appear-ances very sorry for his crime and begged not to be sent to jail. The al-derman, out of consideration of Rud-dy's youth and previous good charac-ter, granted his request and upon his promise to bring around a bondsman in the morning, was released on his own recognizance.

TWICE ESCAPED PRISON.

Once by Shedding Tears and Again by Shedding an Officer-Not Afraid of Bullets.

Harry Linton, a 19-year-old colored boy of Center street, got into enough trouble yesterday to keep him in hot water for some time to come. He was arrested during the afternoon for stealing three razors and two clip-pers from his boarding-boss, James A. Brittingham, also colored, who formerly kept a barber shop on Spruce street. The razors were taken last week from the ex-barber's satchel and it was only through the lad's boldness in trying to dispose of a razor to Jim Austin, friend of Brittingham's, that he was letected.

He at first stoutly denied his guilt. but after Alderman Millar had worked on him for about tifteen minutes he admitted everything and told where he had disposed of some of the stolen goods. Two of the clippers were recovcred in Joseph Green's pawnshop, where he had pledged them for 50 cents. and the whereabouts of two of the razors was also disclosed. As the youth had made a full confession and was evilently very contrite the alderman acquisced to the prosecutor's request to let him go.

He had not been gone half an hour when word was sent to the alderman's office that young Linton was raising a rumpus at his boarding house, assault-ing Brittingham and breaking the furniture. Special Officer Byers was despatched to bring him back and he did. Alderman Millar gave him a hearing and forthwith committed him to the county jail to await trial.

Officer Byers started out with his prisoner but did not take him far, for as soon as the bottom of the steps was reached Linton made a sudden jump, released himself from the officer's grasp and started toward Lackawanna avenuë. Byers gave chase but could not gain on the fugitive. As pursued and pur-suer went through Wyoming avenue to Railroad avenue the officer drew his revolver and fired a shot in the air to scare his man, but Linton did not scare for a cent and for all the officer knows he is running yet.

A large crowd was attracted by the chase and the pistol report.

Brilliant Address Given by Colonel Fairman at Wood's College.

Colonel James M. Fairman lectured before the faculty and students of Wood's Business college last night on the life of Aaron Burr. His audience was treated to a scholarly, eloquent and instructive historical sketch of the man who was United States senator, afterward vice-president of the United States, and who came within one vote of being chosen president of the United Sates, and who died despised and hated by his country. Colonel Fair began with Burr at his birth and followed his life throughout all its devious stages. His three characteristics, Colonel Fairman said, were his self assertion, arrogance, and his uneasy ambition to overreach others. His defeat for Governor of New York ascribed to Alexander Hamilton and this brought on the duel which ended in the latter's death at Weehawken.

Burr fled to England, from there to Sweden, then to Germany and to France, and nowhere could he escape from the odium that his murderous deed merited. He eventually returned to America and died a wretched death on Staten Island. President O. F. Wilon behalf of the college, tendered the speaker a vote of thanks,

One of the prisoners at the county jall died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock. He gave his name when he was committed last Tuesday morning as Thomas Deacon, but it is believed that his right hame is Harvey Surgent, and that he has no relatives in this section except a cousin named John Surgent, living either at Dalton or Factoryville.

The dead man was sent to jail for twenty days by Justice of the Peace William P. Griffiths, of Taylor, on the general charge of vagrancy. It appears general charge of vagrancy. It appears that he had been drinking heavily and was picked up by the police of Taylor borough.

Early Tuesday night he became sick in his cell, and Jail Physician Jenkins was called. The doctor attended him regularly, and last night the man got worse, and lapsed into a condition which ended in his death at the hour stated. Dr. Jenkins says that the cause of death was heart failure, brought on from alcoholism.

KNEW ALFRED SMITH.

Deputy Warden T. J. Price learned from some of the prisoners that the deceased admitted to them that he gave an assumed name when he was com-mitted and he said something about being acquainted with Alfred Smith, of being acquainted with Alfred Smith, of Priceburg. Mr. Price sent a telephone message to Mr. Smith yesterday, and the latter came down to the jail. He could not positively identify him, but after searching the dead man's clothes, he said he thought he was Harvey Surgent and he told that such a man worked for him three days last week, got paid on Saturday night, and then proceeded to expend the maney for proceeded to expend the money for John Surgent, of Throop, called at the jail last night under the impression that the deceased was his brother, but after a look in the lee box he failed to recognize the rigid features. Then he looked at the clothes the man wore, and was still unable to decide that it was his brother. The last he saw of his brother, Harvey, was three weeks ago, and then he wore different clothes to and then he wore different clothes to the suit the dead man had on; and his brother had a heavy dark moustache, while the dead man has a short mouswhile the dead man has a short mous-tache, and it has turned partly gray.
