WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Two Young Burglars Found in the Clarke Building on South Main Avenue by Samuel York.

Two boys, aged about 12 years, were before Alderman John yesterday after-noon on a charge of attempt at larceny. The boys crawled in through the South Main avenue. A few moments after the entrance Samuel York, whose store room is in the building, entered the store and upon hearing a noise in ne cellar, went down to investigate. Nothing could be seen in the dark and Mr. York took down a lamp on the and Mr. York took down a lamp on the second trip. One boy was discovered curled up in an empty barrel. He pointed out where his pal was. This second youth was also surrounded by barrel staves. The two were handed over to Police Officer Tom Evans. The firm did not push the case and the boys were discharged after four hours' residence in the police station.

The little fellows are of reputable parents. One of them will be sent to a

IT WAS SMALL BEER. A Poander, Mike Durish by name. entered the police station last evening on a mission of vengeance. And the head on whom it was wanted to fall was Linn, the Luzerne street saloon-keeper. Durish claims that he entered the saloon and asked for 19 cents worth of beer. When the liquid was in the pail, Durish refused to take it. He said the measure was unjust to him and his 10 cents. The saloonkeeper threw the pail out of doors, and then Durish wanted the money back. He was disappointed and hastily sought the police officers. They could do nothbut offer suggestions. One advised that Durish form a temperance society back there. County Detective Ley-shon heard the complaint.

MUST HAVE ASPHALT.

At Saturday evening's meeting select council passed on third reading the or-dinance providing for the paving of Jackson, Ninth and Robinson streets with Belgian block. This was done in the face of a petition from property-owners between Main and Chestnut praying for the substitution of asphalt for Belgian block. The property ownors are determined. A meeting is called at the instance of Randolph Jones, of the Property owners, in his store at 7 o'clock this evening. for an injunction against the laying of the pave will be begun it
