The ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic desire the young people of town to remember to meet Friday evening at 7.30 at Grand Army of the Re-public hall to assist in making bouquets

The lecture given by Rev. G. H. Balton Wednesday evening was very well attended and highly entertaining At the last regular meeting of Cap-tain E. J. Rice post, No. 211, the fol-lowing was agreed upon as the pro-gramme of the Memorial services; Decoration of soldiers' graves to take place in the early part of the day, at sun-rise if possible. The following com-rads were appointed to decorate graves as follows: Dalton cemetery, M. V. Townsend, W. H. Reynolds, H. N. Capwell and E. C. Reynolds: Old Depot cemetery, George Evans, Calvin Moore and John Connor; Lake Winola, J. B. Miller, C. H. Frear and S. Ferris; Old Bethel cemetery, Charles Oakley and M. N. Reynolds; Thomastown cemetery, M. C. Rhodes and Utley Turner; Abel Capwell Farm, D. C. Stanton; B. S. Gardner Farm, W. H. Past Grand Commander J. C. Gardner is appointed marshal of the day. In the evening the Ladies' circle. ussisted by local talent, will give a short literary programme. On Dr. E. T. Wheaton's lawn the ladies will serve ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee in the afternoon and evening at the bove place.

Memorial Day, with its fragrant flowers, its sweet music, and its sad mem-ories is approaching, when soldier and sailor living will pay loving tribute to soldier and sailor dead. Though the little mound, may be high on hill top. or down low in the valley, or the rest-ing place be deep in the fathomless sea, yet shall every comrade who has gone to the great beyond be remem-bered in the sweetly solemn ceremony of our floral festal day. With flags and flowers and music shall we greet them again, and again shall they in memory march side by side touching memory march side by side, touching elbows with their comrads as of yore Songs of praise shall swell the breeze story of sacrifice, defeat and victory shall be told, loving hands shall strew the graves of loved ones with ivy and myrtle, with spring's fairest flowers and garlands, Patriois will plant on patriot dead, the flag they loved so well, and sacred benediction will be chanted. Yes! the ranks are growing thinner with the coming of each May. Regiments of our comrades are march-ing down the hill of life to the music of the dark river, and ships' crews of blue jackets are sailing their last voy-age; soon eight bells will strike for them to go off watch forever. All the people should join in the sacred ser-vices of Memorial Day; it is a day that America should honor. The speakers of the afternoon of May 30 will be Rev. Gillet, of New Milford, and Rev. Sowell, of Dalton.

Loan of War Tents is Agreed to by

THE SUNDRY CIVIL APPROPRIATION

Senate Amendments Agreed to in the House ... Mr. Daniel Continues Specen in Favor of Free Coinage. Contested Election Cases.

Washington, May 28.—The only actual piece of legislation by the senate today was the jazzage of the house joint resolution for the loan of tents to the sufferers by the appalling storm of yesterday in and near St. Louis. And that resolution was passed rather because it would appear ungracious not to pass it, than because it was regarded as fitting or necessary. That at least was the view of it expressed by Sena-tors Vest (Dem., Mo.) and Cullom (Rep. Ills.). The joint resolution has received the signature of the speaker and vice-president and had been sent to the presiident before adjournment.

The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill met determined re-sistance on account of an amendment contained in it (and which had no basis in the bill as passed) providing for extending the rights and duties of citizenship to the Indians of the live civilized tribes. The matter went over without action at 2 o'clock when the consideration of the bill to prohibit the issuance of bonds without consent of congress was taken up.

Mr. Daniel (Dem., Va.) continued the speech which he had begun yesterday in support of the bill and in advocacy of the free colnage of silver policy; winding up tafter an hour and threquarters) with the emphatic declaration that he took his place in the ranks of the plain masses of the American people, who appreciated their institu-tions and intended to defend them at whatever cost.

A speech in favor of the bill was also made by Mr. Pfeffer (Pop., Kas.), in which he declared that if the gold policy were persisted in and if the usurpations of the president in issuing bonds were not stopped which was the object of the bill) the people would be driven to repudiation

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS. A concurrent resolution providing for the loan of tents by the war department and such other relief as the secretary may deem necessary to the sufferers by the St. Louis storm, was introduced upon the meeting of the house today by Mr. Bartholdt and agreed to without discussion or objection. Later, the senate amendment making it a joint reso-lution was agreed to and at 4.30 o'clock Speaker Reed announced that he had Leave was granted Messrs. Bartholdt and Hubbard, of the Missouri delega-tion to visit St. Louis and they left this afternoon.

The partial conference report upon the sundry civil appropriation which was under consideration when the house adjourned yesterday was disposed of. The house agreed to the following senate amendments:

Appropriating $5,000 to build ap-proaches to the Martinsburg, W. Va., public building; appropriating $43,000 to repair and Improve the court house at Little Rock, Ark.: and appropriating 360,000 to repair and improve the New York postoffice.

The bill granting Fort Omaha reservation to the state of Nebraska was agreed to, with an amendment recom-mended in conference that it be leased to the state at a nominal figure.

The house rejected the conference report on the bill to pension the widow of the late Gemeram O. M. Poe, of the engineers corps. fixing the amount at $75 a month, and insisted upon its amendment, making the pension $50 a

GIVES HER ESTATE TO A CONVICT.

Death of a Kansas Woman Reveals the Family Skeleton.

Fort Scott, Kan., May 28.-Mrs. Mar tha Calloway, a large property owner of his city, died today, leaving a will bequeathing to her son, Clark Bedell, who is a life convict in the New York state prison at Auburn, half of her val-uable estate and precluding her husband from any share in it.

The convict son was for many years a prominent man of this city, and his a prominent man of this city, and his parents have succeeded in keeping his disgrace a profound secret until the mother died and the stepfather retained counsel to contest the will. The nature of Bedell's offense is not known here.

HE WAS CONSCIENTIOUS.

And Honestly Surrendered to the Assignee All Property He Owned.

From the Syracuse Post.
It was under some of the rather earlier bankrupt laws that this exhibition of rare shrewdness occurred. when it was required that in case of a man's insolvency he must turn over to the proper officer of the law every bit of his property for the benefit of his creditors. The subject of this story was yet a young man and wealthy when misfortune overtook him and fail-ure was inevitable. Some of his property was real estate, some of it was not, the latter consisting of securities easily converted into currency. A nice little bundle of bank bills could be more safely handled than certificates of stocks, etc. When the time came, being an honorable man, he conscientiously surrended his entire effects, even a tubular cane, from which the handle could be disjointed, the gift of an admiring friend. After handing the an admiring friend. After handing the walking stick to the official, thus satisfying the law, he suggested its return. It was a present from a friend, and could be of little value to any one but himself as a memento, "Certainly," said the officer; "take it.

It's of no use to us."
"Thanks. I'll prize it highly. Some time afterward, in his quiet home, the shrewd financier disjointed the handle and removed from his tubuof well crumpled bank bills.
