MR. REED WANTED FOR A MATE

The Managers of the Ohio States-Hanna's Plans.

Cleveland, O., June 1.—Hon. William McKinley was in Cleveland for a few hours today in consultation with M. A. Hanna. When asked to answer some of the questions which have been fired at him so freely from all sides as to the Quay meeting and the money question, he said:

"The greatness of the American people is evidenced in nothing more than in the interest they take in the exercise of suffrage. In every election they manifest the greatest enthusiasm and so long as they do so, this nation is safe from its enemies within and without. The people keep at it year in and

out. The peopie keep at it year in and year out and have made office holding the servitude of the man to the mass. Public office is the people's honor. Public service well done is its own

HANNA'S PLANS.

HANNA'S PLANS.

Hanna will move to St. Louis within the next ten days in order to pen up his show before the convention circus begins. No end of congressmen and visitors are expected this week. Indeed, this will undoubtedly be the banner week in the rush for seats on the band wagon. There are not many good ones left, however, for the Ohio "patriots" have pre-emptied almost everything in sight.

Young Senator Garfield, one of the zons of the martyred president, was in Mark Hanna's office today at noon and engaged a good place. The young senator wants to keep in close touch with the coming administration, for he wants to go to congress soon and follow senator wants to keep in close touch with the coming administration, for he wants to go to congress soon and follow in the footsteps of his father.

There is no end of talk in Ohio about Speaker Reed accepting the Vice-presidency. Indeed, the McKinley men are impatient to have the Maine man as a running mate to McKinley. The plan is to nominate Reed by acceptantion is to nominate Reed by acclamation. The feeling is everywhere prevalent that Reed's name, added to that of McKinley, will insure a winning ticket.

MURDERED BY A FIEND.

The Mutilated Body of a Seven-Year-Old Child Found in the Woods at Colebrook.

Lancaster, Pa., June 1.—The body of a child 7 years old, chopped and muti-lated in a most horrible manner, was discovered at Colebrook. There is not the least doubt but that the child was murdered and then fiendishly dismem-bered in order to prevent identifica-tion. Colebrook is very near the boundary between Lancaster and Lebanon counties. Sunday school children yesterday strayed away from their di-rect road, and taking a path in the mountains made a shocking discovery. They summoned the nearest neighbors, who, after removing the body to a safe place, notified the Lebanon county authorities. They have made diligent search for the relatives of the child, but thus far they have not found the slight-

The arms and legs of the little one were chopped off. The remainder of the body was wrapped in material such as is used by furniture dealers in pack-ing goods. The body was badly decom-posed, and the supposition is that it was secreted at least two months ago.

RESULT OF A RUNAWAY.

Wallace Riley Is Instantly Killed by Thomas Allen.

Lebanon, Ind., June 1.—At 9 o'clock this morning Thomas Allen, a wealthy stock dealer, and Wallace Riley, a prominent citizen, engaged in a duel in front of the postoffice. Riley was instantly killed and Allen's son, who was sitting in his father's carriage, was seriously injured. The tragedy is the result of the runaway marriage of Al-len's son, aged 17, and Riley's daughter, 4. with the assistance of a who swore to the boy's age beaged 24. friend, who swore to the boy's age being 21, they secured a license and were

When Mr. Allen learned of the marringe he was very angry. This reached the ears of Riley and he went gunning for Allen. He found him in front of the postoffice and opened fire on him. Allen jumped from his carriage and fired, killing Riley instantly. Young Allen will probably recover. Great ex-citement prevails here. Allen is in jail and claims he acted entirely in self-

FASTED FOR ONE HUNDRED DAYS.

Death Promises to End a Woman' Remarkable Experience.

Remarkable Experience.

Laporte, Ind., June 1.—Mrs. Henry Ingram, of Calhoun county, Mich., today entered upon the 100th day of her record-breaking fast. During this period she has not taken a morsel of food of any kind, and does not appear to need anything to eat.

Her health remains about the same and her physicians are at a loss to account for her condition, nor are they able to break her fast, which promises only to be ended by death.

CHICAGO MAKES GOOD.

Ready to Fulfill Pledges to the Democratic Committee.

The Managers of the Ohio States-man's Campaign Are Anxious for the Assistance of the Maine Man. Chicago, June 1.—Chicagoans will re-deem their pledge to the Democratic committee today. Mr. Harrity and his colleagues of the committee will meet in joint conference with the local committee which has charge of the ar-rangements in connection with the con-vention hall, and the balance of $11,000 of the $40,000 pledged will be turned over to Mr. Harrity. Final inspection of the Coliseum will be made by the committee, every essential feature agreed on originally being now prac-tically completed. Committeeman Sheerin, who has been charged with that duty, will distribute the press privileges and finally pass on the telegraphic facilities to be provided.

Chambersburg in Holiday Attire-The G. A. R. Members Gathering in Large Numbers.

Chambersburg, Pa., June 1 .- Everything is in readiness for the annual en-campment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Pennsylvania, which meets here on Wednesday morning. The town is one mass of flags and bunting and a royal welcome awaits the visitors. Already they are coming in on every train, and the town resembles the train, and the town resembles the scenes of war times. Many have gone into camp on South Second street. Among those encamped are the Lambs, of Philadelphia; the Knight Hawks, of Columbia, and the Doves, of Marietta. They are today taking in the town.

hundreds of visitors to town, while or Wednesday thousands will be here to witness the parade. Everything is in readiness for the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Women's Relief corps and the Ladles' circle. All the state officers have arrived and opened their headquarters. The number of visitors who arrived yesterday was greatly augmented today, one train bringing in over 500 from Wilkes-Barre and Easton. Tonight the town is alive with veterans, and cannons are being fired continually.

Owing to the contest for commander between Darte, of Wilkes-Barre, and Denworth, of Williamsport, which is the most bitter in the history of the organization, it is said there will be a larger attendance at this encampment than at any former one. The friends of both candidates seem sanguine of suc-cess. The election will likely be held on Thursday.

London, June 1.—The Standard's Moscow correspondent estimates the number of dead at 3,600 besides the 1,200 injured who were taken to the hospitals. Most of the injured, he says, will die. The lower classes of the populace are intensely exasperated, and language can be heard on the streets that at other times would cause the speakers to be severely punished.

The correspondent adds that when the police reinforcements and Cossacks arrived on the plain Saturday morning the latter, as is customary with them when dealing with the peasantry, applied their whips cruelly and needlessly lashing the Moujiks who were on the outskirts of the crowd. Two of the Cossacks were dragged from their horses by the enraged sufferers and killed. Eight gendarmes were caught in the crowd, knocked down and suffocated.
