INDIANA HARBORS A BIG SNAKE.

Reputable Citizen Sees a Monster with Mischief in Its Eves.

Peru, Ind., June 1.-The town of Dencontained a greatly agitated set of citicontained a greatly agitated set of citi-zens during the past few days, owing to the report of a monster snake roam-ing about in the wods near town, which is made by Eri Gustin, a well-known and reputable citizen. Mr. Gustin tells that he and his wife, together with an-other woman were coming home one evening in the buggy, and just about dusk they passed through the woods a dusk they passed through the woods a little to the east of town when their horse became suddenly frightened and almost fell to the ground through fright. They looked past the animal into the shadows of the trees ahead, and the sight they beheld almost frightened them to death, and the women were made hysterical. It was a monster snake, and its description is thus given in Mr. Gustin's own terms: "Such a snake I never saw. It lay on a twelve foot log, extending its body the entire length of the log, with its head elevated about two feet, lapping its forked tongue out at us, while mischief lurked in its wicked-looking eyes. Its tail reached from the log six feet or more to the fence and from that through the rails as far back as I could see into the field at he side of the woods. We were in moral fear of our lives, and how we ever got our horse away from the place in safety I cannot tell."

NEW POLICEMAN'S TRAGIC ERROR.

Invaded a Respectable House and Was Shot by a Woman.

New York, June 1.—Policeman Lutz, of Brooklyn, who has been on the force just two months, on Saturday night no-ticed that several men and women vis-ited the house of Mrs. Rachel Stillman. The house previously had a bad repu-tation. Lutz determined to raid it, and disguising himself, forced his way into the house, in face of Mrs. Stillman, who becoming frightened, drew a revolver and shot him down. He is not likely

After the shooting it was learned that the Stillmans recently moved into the house, which, under their tenancy, has been perfectly respectable. The woman claims to have intended only to frighten the officer when she fired. His action is disavowed by his chief, who terms it entirely reprehensible.

Important Feature of Appropriation Bill Discussed in Senate.

HISTORICAL FRIEZES rived.

Objections to Art Efforts in the Rotunda -- The Bond Bill Discussed. Contested Election Cases Disposed of and Bills Passed in the House.

Washington, June 1.—The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was discussed for a couple of hours in the senate today, but again went over without action. The question that has been so much debated in the senate for nearly a week past is the proposition in that report to impose the duties and rights of citizenship on the Indians of the five civilized tribes, it being claimed by the senators opposed to it that it is a violation of the treaty with those Indians. The report itself is only a partial one—the conferees not having partial one—the conferees not having agreed upon the proposed temporary continuance of contract schools for Indian children.

A joint resolution appropriating $6,-000 for the completion of the historical 000 for the completion of the historical friezes in the rotunda of the capitol provoked a discussion in which Mr. Hawley (Rep., Conn.) criticised the painting both for what it represented and for what it failed to represent—President Cleveland being in the first class and the surrender at Appommatox in the other. Final objection was made to the consideration of the resolution by Mr. Wilson (Rep., Wash.) and it went over without action.

The private pension bill which was vetoed by the president last week because of a mis-description of the soldier's regiment, was reported today, with that mistake corrected, and was passed.

Another veto of a private pension bill was presented today. It was the case of the renewal of a pension to the widow of a soldier in the Mexican war after she married a second time—thir-ty-five years ago—and forfeited her pension. The message and bill were referred to the committee on pensions. BOND BILL DISCUSSED.

The bill to prohibit the further issuance of interest bearing bonds without the consent of congress was taken up at the consent of congress was taken up at 2 o'clock. An argument was made against it by Mr. Culiom (Rep., Ill.) who declared that the consequence of its passage would be so far reaching as to be simply appailing, but that there was no danger of its passage by the house of representatives. The bill was advocated by Mr. Brown (Rep. was no danger of its passage by the house of representatives. The bill was advocated by Mr. Brown (Rep., Utah) in connection with a resolution offered by himself today declaring that in the opinion of the senate the secretary of the treasury has no authority under the act of Jan. 14, 1875, to issue any further or other bonds in addition to those already issued, and that any such bonds that may hereafter be issued by him would be without authority of law and void.

ELECTION CASES DISPOSED OF. The house today disposed of the contested election cases of Johnston (Republican) vs. Stokes (Democrat) from the Seventh district of South Carolina by adopting the view of Chairman McCall (Rep., Mass.) chairman of elections committee No. 3, which considered the case. By a vote of 130 to 125 it was decided that no legal election for reprecommittee No. 3, which considered the case. By a vote of 130 to 125 it was decided that no legal election for representative in this congress had been held in the district and the seat was declared vacant. The Repblicans divided upon this proposition and it was supported by the unanimous Democratic vote. The majority reported in favor of Stokes and the minority in favor of Johnston. This being suspension day, the rules were suspended and the following bills. were suspended and the following bills were passed: House bill validating certain refunding and railroad bonds issued by the territory of New Mexico of Santa Fe and Grant counties, and o

MISCELLANEOUS TOPICS. An elaborate solid silver tea service adorned the centre table of the presidents room in the capitol today, where it was privately viewed by the senators. It is their gift to Miss Julia Stevenson, daughter of Vice-President Stevenson, who is to be married tomorrow evening to Rev. Mr. Hardin, of Kentucky.

The senate today rejected the nom-ination of William H. Fowle, to be collector of internal revenue for the Sixth district of Virginia, vice Fitzhugh Lee, sent as consul general to Havana. The house river and harbor committee today formally agreed to recommend to the house the passage of the river and harbor bill over the presidents veto. Chairman Hooker was instructed to prepare a report in which he will incorporate the reasons of the committee for taking this step.

BLOODHOUNDS FIND A BABY.

Child of Chicago Visitors in Indiana

Guarded by the Dogs. Kokomo, Ind., June 1.—A new use was found for bloodhounds here today. This morning the 3-year-old child of Marion and Mrs. Scott, of Chicago, here on a visit, wandered away from the house and became lost. Several hours' search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the lost baby, when

Dr. Bell offered to return the child unharmed to the parents by the use of his bloodhounds that are used to run down criminals.

The ferocious beasts were put on the trail of the baby, and with a twenty minutes' run overtook it beyond Kokomo Junction, more than two miles away. The child was returned safely to the distracted parents. The dogs, instead of offering to harm it, served as protectors until the attendants arrived.

COMMON SENSE PRINCIPLES Says the Philadelphia Press: "It is said that Governor Morton allowed the anti-coal trust bill passed by the New York legislature to die. A great fuss was made over the passage of the bill, but when it had been gotten through both houses of the legislature it was found that it gave the state authorities very little more power than they had previously, and was not likely in any way to interfere with the coal compa-nies. It may be taken for granted that if a corporation cannot be hauled up under existing statutes or the common law it is difficult to make a new statute to fit the case and the crime. The dismissal of the government's suit against the Joint Traffic association and the failure of this bill in New York indicates that the day of sentimentalism
