Individual Strawberry Shortcakes

Sift with one quart of flour two tea-spoonfuls Cleveland's Baking Pow-der and one-half teaspoon salt. Rub in shortening (one-half cup butter and one tablespoon lard) and wet with enough sweet milk or water to make a soft dough. Handle as little as possible and roll out about one inch thick Cut the desired size with biscuit cutter

SEAMLESS STEEL TUBING.

Company Wants to Engage in Its Manufacture in This City.

On Saturday the manufacturers committee of the board of trade will meet to consider a proposal from a concern organized to manufacture steel tubing which is anxious to locate in this and seamless steel tubes for use in bicycle, hydraulic and pneumatic tubes

$300,000 of that amount will have to be a day and would be a very extensive Another concern that is now negotiating with a view to coming to Scranton is a company engaged in the manufac-

DIED OF HEART FAILURE.

Sudden Ending of the Life of Norman White, of Church Avenue.

An attack of heart failure overcame Norman White, a well-known resident of the North End, while cutting grass in the yard of his residence on Church avenue at noon yesterday, and he died before medical help could be summoned. He had been at work only a little while when his daughter saw him reel and fall groaning. He was breathing his last Coroner S. P. Longstreet had not been notified of the case last night. The deceased was 67 years old. He was born in Rennsalerville, N. Y., and came to Scranton 35 years ago. Until 12 years ago he had been employed by the Dela-ware and Hudson Rallroad company as superintendent of breaker building, but he was forced to resign on account of an attack of paralysis. He is survived by his daughters, Mrs. J. B. Casterline, and his son, Andrew White. The funeral will be held Saturday after-

DON'T WANT A SIDE TRACK.

Ninth Street Property Owners Object

to Traction Company's Plan. Residents of Ninth street called or Mayor Bailey yesterday and objected vigorously to the action of the Scran ton Traction company in laying the track for its West Side loop close to the curbstones on the east side of the

The property owners want the track in the middle of the street, and if it is not placed there, promise to furnish plenty of excitement for the Traction company when it attempts to run cars

Mayor Bailey assured the aggrieved property owners that he would do his utmost to have the track laid in the ternoon, in company with Street Commissioner Kinsley, went to Ninth street to see just what the Traction

HE BECOMES CHIEF TODAY.

Frank Robling, jr., to Take Charge of Police Department.

Unless the unexpected happens

Frank Robling, jr., w... become chief-of-police of Scranton today. For several days Chief Simpson has been engaged in getting his private papers and effects ready to remove them from the office, and within a day or two Mr

Robling will be in entire possession of

It was announced positively yesterday afternoon that Mr. Robling would be made chief today and tonight Mayor

Bailey will send to the select council

the name of John Fitzsimmons, if it is thought that he can be confirmed.

He will be appointed as a patrolman.

but the intention is to have him suc ceed Richard Edwards as police cap-

ITALO-AMERICAN UNION.

Scranton's Italian Colony Perfects a

Commendable Organization.

Monday evening the Italian colony of Lackawanna avenue, for the purpose of organizing a large association among the Italians living in Scranton and vicinity. The aim of the association will be to promote the educational

The prominent Italians of the city are members. John Caggiano, architect, and the correspondent for Italian newspapers in New York city, was elected president, and a committee was by-laws. The name given to the new society was the Italo-American union.

Everbody enrolled during this month will be charter members. Those wishing to enroll should see the secretary,

DEATH OF PETER GALLAGHER.

Was a Prominent Resident of Park

Hill Section of City.

Peter Gallasher died at his home on Hampton street yesterday morning. He children: John, Peter, Thomas, Nellie,

Mr. Gallagher was for years a promnent resident of the Park Hill section of the city. He took an active interest in politics and for several years was a member of the common council. Arrangements for the funeral have not

The party who stole the bicycle from the Hotel Terrace June 2 is known, and if the bicycle is returned at once there will be no questions asked; otherwise

The New Lager.

Call for Casey & Kelly's extra fine

Ask Your Dealer.

Special attention and private dining rooms for dinner parties at Lohmann's, Spruce street. Service and cuisine un-excelled in this city.

he will be arrested and exposed.

Annie and Rose Gallagher.

welfare of the colony.

the city met in the Roma hall, 101 departed, the former having gone to appointed to draft the constitution and They walked along together, talking is survived by a wife and the following the razor at him, the blow escaping center of the street and yesterday company is doing.

when she reached his side.

noon at 2 o'clock.

street.

bearings and projectiles.

ture of mine cars.

and bake twenty minutes in a quick oven. Break in half and butter. Have ready a quart of berries, crushed, and sweetened with one small cup of granulated sugar. Place lower half of biscuit, buttered side up, on plate on which it is to be served; cover with crushed berries, then on top the upper half, buttered side up, cover again with crushed berries, and serve at once with or without cream or strawberry sauce.

Cleveland's Baking Powder "Pure and Sure."

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE, 120 Wyoming Ave.

ackawanna THE. aundry.

Real Brussels Lace Curtains:

$4.70, Former Price 5.30, Former Price

5.65, Former Price 5.85, Former Price 6.25, Former Price

7.65, Former Price

The Above Prices Are for This Week Only.

CITY NOTES.

The Woman's Keeley league will meet this evening at 7.30 o'clock at the institute, 728 Madison avenue.

Plans for the children's ward at the Lackawanna hospital have been approved by the State Board of Charities.

Regular monthly meeting of managers of the Home for the Friendless tomorrow morning at the usual hour and place. W. J. Welsh has removed his offices from Spruce street to the Mears building, at Washignton avenue and Spruce street The license of Peter Katchko, of the Third ward of Jermyn, was yesterday transferred by order of court to Albert

The Delaware and Hudson Canal com-pany yesterday paid its employes at the Dickson and Von Storch mines and the Providence repair shops.

The Defaware, Lackawanna and Western company yesterday paid its employes at the Sloan and Hampton collieries, and Dodge and Oxford collieries.

On the West Side yesterday Food Inmas confiscated 160 quarts of mik brought to the city by an Abington township farmer. The inspector found that it had been skimmed and watered and after seizing it he had it dumped into Miss Katherine Brader will lead the noon meeting today at the Young Wo-men's Christian association. The Laurel slub of the Young Women's Christian as-sociation will meet this week on Friday evening instead of tonight on account of the address by Ballington Booth.

Marriage licenses were granted yester-lay by Clerk of the Courts John H. Thom-is to James Francis Wardle and Imogene ethick, Scranton; Henry DeVer Swin-le, of Jefferson township, and Emma L. Vanlers, of Scranton; August C. Reinardt and Anna Nash, of the Pyne, Lack-

David L. Richard, of Royal, Susquehanna county, died yesterday, aged 75 years. He was well known in this city and along the valley to Schuylkill county, having settled here sixty-four years ago. He had been a resident of Royal for forty-three years. A wife and eight children survive him. Interment will be made Saturday, line 6, in the Welch constant. June 6, in the Welsh cemetery, at Royal,

RECEPTION TO THE VICTORS.

Georgetown Men Entertained at the Bicycle Club House.

The Georgetown team was tendered a reception at the Bicycle Club house last night by the local Georgetown so ciety. It was a wholly informal affair and gotten up hurriedly, but withal was a largely attended and highly en-

Many of the out-of-town people who came to see the game remained over to meet the heroes, and as a consequence the attendance was representative of the whole valley. Dancing was the principal source of enjoyment. The Georgetown men made quite as deep an impression sociably as they did athletically, and can go back to their fel lows, assured that they have won many "blue and gray" adherents.

The following Cornell alumni and students dined with the Cornell Base Ball team at the Hotel Jermyn after yesterday's ball game: George B. Davison, George Brooks and Mr. Burrows, of Scranton; Mr. Shook, of Stroudsburg, and Samuel Grant, of Wilkes-Barre. The team was taken on a mine tour by Mr. Davidson during the evening.

OUTING FOR THE CHILDREN.

Their Excursion to Lake Ariel Will

Be a Great Event. The excursion of school children to Lake Ariel on June 13 promises to excel anything that has ever taken place at yet been made. that popular summer resort, both in prices and pleasures. Special rates of transportation have been given by the officials of the Erie and Wyoming Railroad in order that every child may have the benefit of a day's outing.

The owners of the lake have been equally generous, and will put everything salable at half price. There will be competitive foot races, base ball lager beer. Be sure that you get it The best is none too good. games and a tug of war between rival schools. The tickets have been distributed today and the teachers will for McGarrah's Insect Powder, 25 and 10-cent boxes. Never sold in bulk. Take no other.

have them for sale. The matter is in the hands of a re sponsible committee, which looks for a hearty response and general assist-ance from the public in making it a of joy to the boys and girls of

BOSCHINO CAN NOT HAVE A NEW TRIAL

Supreme Court Affirmed the Verdict of Murder of the First Degree.

HISTORY OF THE CRUEL HOMICIDE

Convicted Man Hid Behind Laurel Bushes and as Frank Conforti Passed on His Way Home, Boschino Shot and Killed Him from Ambush -- First Case Prosecuted by District Attorney Jones.

News from Harrisburg, at which place the Supreme court is in session, announces that Justice McCollum handed down an opinion vesterday affirming the verdict of murder of the first degree in the Boschino homicide case, tried before Judge Gunster in this county.

city. The company was recently or-ganized by New York capitalists who This crime was committed in the borclaim to have the only patents in existough of Dunmore on Sunday evening ence for the manufacture of weldless about 6 o'clock, Nov. 11, 1894. It was one of the most cowardly and unprovoked that ever occurred in Lackawanand presses, hollow shafting, roller na county. Joseph Boschino murdered Frank Conforti by lying in wait be-The company is capitalized at $500,000 hind a clump of laurel bushes along and if its plant is located in Scranton the path over which the murderer knew his victim would soon pass. raised in this city. The plant would

District Attorney John R. Jones, just have an output of 35 tons of steel tubing after assuming the duties of his office conducted the case for the common wealth and wove such a strong network of convincing evidence that the jury found the defendant guitty. It was Mr. Jones' first case as attorney murder in the first degree was render-ed. A rule for a new trial was granted a week later and at the subsequent term of argument court it was argued before the three judges. On October 14 Judge Gunster handed down an opinion which declared that the prisoner had a fair trial according to the law of the land. He was defend ed with rare ability before an intelligert and impartial jury, and after due deliberation was found guilty. Judge Gunster said he concurred in the verdict and refused the defendant a new

On the same day the sentence of death was pronounced Boschino's atcorneys took the case to the supreme court, with the result stated. Bos-chino's only hope now is the board of pardons. The governor will fix the date of execution when the supreme cour decision is certified to him.

A. O. H. STATE DELEGATES

Those from Lackawanna County Who Will Go to the State Convention at Williamsport Next Week.

On next Tuesday the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will assemble at Williamsport and will will go from Lackawanna county and be in session three days. Thirty dele- | the building of the Nay Aug company

NAY AUG ENGINE COMPANY'S NEW HOME

for the commonwealth, and he acquit- | gates will go from Lackawanna | will be found to meet all the require-

join the Wilkes-Barre delegation in that city and will travel from there

The delegates are as follows: City

Assessor William Dawson, county pres-

of Winton; Recording Secretary William McAndrew, of Hyde Park, Finan-

clay Secretary John J. O'Horo, of Dun-

of Scranton; Anthony McAndrew, John

F. Granahan, C. C. Donovan, esq.,

George J. Duhigg, James J. Grier,

James F. Neary, William Moore, Professor John J. Costello, John M. Casey,

Colonel P. S. Syron, P. F. Calpin, Editor Neil McTague, M. J. Kelley, Attorney D. J. Reedy, Hon. C. P. O'Malley.

Senator J. C. Vaughan, and Hon. P. P.

Smith, of this city; P. F. Coyne, of Old

Forge; William J. Burke, of Minooka;

John P. Collins, of Carbondale: Charles

L. Sheridan, of Jessup; Patrick Coar.

of Priceburg; John F. Neary, of Moosic; T. J. Gavan, of Olyphant; and

William P. Cronin, of Dunmore. The Honesdale delegates are John A.

Brown and Patrick Weir. They will join the Scranton delegates at the

Anthony McAndrew, of Hyde Park, will be put forward for the office of state treasurer and every effort will be

ON THE DEATH OF SLOAN.

Resolutions Passed by the R. R. Y

M. C. A. at a Recent Meeting.

The Railroad Department of the Young Men's Christian association, at their meeting on Tuesday night, passed

Whereas, In the death of William S. Sloan, second vice-president of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroal.

the railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association along the line and throughout the country have lost a wise leader and a loyal friend; be it Resolved, That while we bow in sub-mission to the will of God, acknowledging to the family and relatives of the decease.

and commend them to God, who comforts the sorrowing. These resolutions shall be spread upon the minutes; a copy shall be sent to the family of the deceased, and they shall also be published in the press

Card of Thanks.

DIED.

Mooele, Pa., June 4, 1896.

Mrs. Margaret Ellis.

of the city.

Delaware and Hudson station.

put forward to elect him.

the following resolutions:

represented by Judge W. G. Ward, one ware and Hudson train. They will homicide cases than any other lawyer over the Pennsylvania railroad to Wil-

by Attorney L. P. Wedeman, a man of ident Vice President J. P. McAndrew, forti left home about 1 o'clock in the af- | more; and Treasurer Patrick Jordan, liamsport.

of the ablest criminal lawyers in the state, who has been engaged in more in this county; by Attorney George S.

Horn, Judge Ward's law partner, a leading member of the bar, and also

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

On the Sunday of the murder, Con-ternoon. He lived with his wife and family in that part of Dunmore known as Bunker Hill. He went to the house of a neighbor, Frank Bonnello, whose child was dead, and met Antonio Im-briano, Vincenzo Biazo and Angelo

Gladoni, who were there expressing their sympathy. Conforti and these three left and went to St. Mary's church to make arrangements for the

From the parochial residence they went to Rinaldo Lalli's saloon at 4.30 tried to induce Lalli to advance money to assist Bonnello to bury the child, but Lalli refused. Boschino, at this juncture, addressed the following insulting remark: "Conforti, you are no good."

No heed was paid to it, however, and at 5.30 Conforti and Imbriano started home. Biazo and Giadoni had already his home in Bunker Hill and the latter

BOSCHINO DREW A RAZOR.

When Confortl and Imbriano had gone half the distance and were opposite the office of the Pennsylvania

Coal company, they heard some one running behind them, and turning around, saw it was Boschino. He asked them why they did not wait for him.

as they went, until they come to the bridge that crosses the Roaring Brook, and here Boschino without a word,

took hold of Conforti and knocked him down and pulled out a razor. Conforti said, "Why do you want to cut me?

I did nothing to you." The murderer then charged his victim with talking

Rocco Salvatore, who chanced along, was attracted by the disturbance. He asked Boschino what the trouble was about and Boschino made a slash of his neck and cutting one of his fingers.

Roschino started off up the path toward the Erie and Wyoming Valley

Railroad tracks, and Conforti went looking for his hat, which had fallen over the bridge into the stream below.

The men then started home in different directions. Conforti started up the same path that Boschino took, but he had gone only a short distance

when Boschino walked out from behind the bushes and shot him twice with a revolver. The murderer fled but was seen escaping by Fred Seline.

night watchman at the car shops near by Imbriano, Salvatore, and another

Italian, John Nyran swore they saw

CAPTURED AT RICHMONDALE.

and remained in hiding thirteen days,

when he was taken to jall by an officer and turned over to the authorities. He was indicted by the grand jury on Jan. 8, 1895, and his trial began on Feb. 4.

following. The defence was, good character and an alibi. The case lasted nine days and on Jan. 13 a verdict of

The murderer fled to Richmondale

Boschino shoot Conforti.

about his wife.

to his boarding house in Scranton.

there met Boschino. Conforti

NAY AUG COMPANY'S NEW ENGINE HOUSE

Workmen Engaged in Laying the Foundatios.

WILL BE MODEL FIRE ENGINE HOUSE

It Will Cost $10,000 and the City Can

Work is now in progress on a model fire engine house for the Nay Aug Engine company, at present quartered in a small building on Spruce street. The new building will be located at the cor-ner of Page court and Franklin avenue and will be three stories in height. The front will be limestone, the sides of brick, and architecturally the building will be an ornament to Franklin ave will have a paid fire department before many years was kept in view, and its arrangements are such that when the time arrives for making the change.

Drewn & Mennis —

franten, fa

AMMIECTS

contain tracks for two fire machines, and behind them will be stalls for the horses. Above the stalls, on the sec-ond floor, will be a place for storing, grain, feed, etc. The remainder of the second floor will be used as a bunk room for the members. It will contain a bath room, shower bath, basins, closets and a reception room, in addition to the bunk room, or dormitory, and will be provided with sliding poles so that the firemen can quickly reach the machines after an alarm is sent in One of the sliding poles will extento the third floor, which win ultimately Point With Pride to It When It Is be used as a general recreation room Completed -- Its Location Is at the fer the men, although it will not be finished as yet. In round figures the Corner of Franklin Avenue and building will cost about $10,000 and when completed Scranton will have a fire department house of which it can well be proud. It is being constructed according to plans and designs mad by Brown & Morris.

Hotel Warwick. Ocean end of South Carolina avenue Atlantic City, N. J. Fine lawn and good

Daniel Coleman, Prop.

UNE

Is the month for

WEDDINGS.

Carries a Fine Line of

GIFTS

GUT GLASS AND STERLING SILVER

W. W. BERRY. 423 Lackawanna Avanus.

GRAND

NOW GOING ON.

EVERYTHING

ted himself in such an able and thorough style that he was complimented by bench and bar. The defendant was car attached to the 9.33 Delaing. The cellar will be of more than ordinary height, will have a cemented floor and an apparatus for drying The first floor will be fifteen feet in height and the interior walls will be faced with pressed brick. The floor

A New Piano

18 CENTS White Leghorn Hats, marked in a show win-25 CENTS Ladies' Trimmed sailors in White, Black and 33 CENTS

49 CENTS Ladies', Misses' and Children's Untrimmed 95 CENTS

Children's Fancy Straw H.ts, reduced from year in Scranton.

We quote only a few of the many values:

$1.95 Trimmed Hats, several shapes and styles, easily worth $4: all are the very latest styles, We're with the fash on except in one particular—PRICE.

A. R. SAWYER, Wyoming Ave.

REST SETS OF TEETH, $8.00 Including the painless extracting of teeth by an entirely new process.

S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S., 221 Spruce St., Opp. Hotel Jermyn.

will be of wood; tightly calked, and a hose can be used to clean the place out without injury to the floor, side walls FREE OF CHARGE AT or contents of the cellar. The ceiling will be wood, finished in natural colors. The main part of the first floor will SAWYER'S. Let others praise the store and its fittings. We're content to say that more stylish Millinery cannot be produced for the same money anywhere else. Come and see how far an investment of 55c, or 31 will go at Sawyer's. Investigation will prove that such offerings have nev r been equalled at this season of the year in Scranton.

$150.00.

IT IS FOOLISH to suppose that a plano at this price is a first class one, or is equal to others for more money; or that you can purchase cheaper of outside parties than of a reliable and established Music House.

Common Sense

Should teach this to be so. When persons want a satisfactory instrument the place to go is where you can find an assortment and buy of dealers who know what they are talking about. Such a place is

POWELL'S Music Store.

226-230 WYOMING AVE.

The greatest salesman in the world a Price, and in this final reduction

Ladies' and Children's Hats

The prices will sell-if prices ever did, of course. The cost of making and material is lost sight of.

150 Ladies' and Children's Trim-med Hats, $3.00; sale price....$1.49 100 Children's Trimmed Leghorn Hats, with fancy edge, $3 50;

250 Ladies' and Children's Un-trimmed Leghorn Hats, $1 50;

100 Ladies' Untrimmed Hats, 98c;

Closing Out 1 lot of Ladies' Belts

High

Shaw. Emerson.

ORGANS Clough & Warren, Carpenter,

And Lower Grades at Very Low Prices.

J. LAWRENCE STELLE,

203 SPRUCE STREET.

We keep in stock every Color, Quality, and width of Shading, with Fringes and Laces to match. We have SHADES two yards long, mounted on spring rollers at 18 cents each.

We have anything else your taste or means may require, and the BEST VALUE for your money always.

Samples and Estimates Submitted.

P. M'CREA &

231 Penn Ave. Opp. Baptist Church.

Specials for Summer Cottages Dinner Sets, Decorated Sets, $6.50 Toilet Sets, Decorated Sets, $1.85 Water Tumblers, Bandad, doz., 30c.

Goods Carefully Packed Free of Charge.

231 Penn Ave. Opp. Baptist Church. Middle of the Block.

10 dozen Children's Lawn Hats, 40c; sale price 10 dozen Children's Lawn Caps, 25c; sale price.....

138 Wyoming Avenus.

Grade

Malcolm Loya.

Waterloo.