Two Caives Joined Together Like the Siamese Twins---Owned by August Vockroth--- An Italian Beaten.

Dime museum managers will be writing letters to August Vockroth, of Emmett street, for the next month. He wns a freak in the shape of two salves oined together like the Slamese twins and though they died three days after seeing the light of day, he employed a taxidermist to stuff them, and they are now ready for exhibition. The animals are joined together at the hips and are faced in opposite directions. There are two bodies, eight legs, two heads. and one of them is minus a heart and a pair of lungs. After they died Mr. Vockroth shipped the carcasses to Harrisburg, at which place they were manager in Atlantic City, and has concluded to accept it. The cow which gave birth to the monstrosity is in healthy condition.

J. Bourke represented the prosecutor, and Attorney M. W. Lowry the defendants. Rosa is employed by the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company, and the two defendants among several other young men were on their way home from Mountain lake a week ago last Sunday. There was a conflict between them and Rosa, the result of which was that the latter got well hammered. There was not enough of evidence to connect Mirtz with the affray and Alderman Howe discharged him. The evidence again Saar was not strong either, but the alderman thought court, and he was held in bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance. Contractor Max Phillips and Charles Saar qualified as bondsmen.

SUIT AGAINST THE TRACTION CO.

Mrs. Mary Luxemberger, of Washburn Street, Wants $40,000 Damages for Permanent Injuries She Claims She Received in a Derailed Taylor Car on Jan. 6, 1894.

Enough of evidence, according to Judge Archbald's opinion, was not presented by the plaintiff to warrant the case of Martin Joyce against William Morgan and others to go to the jury. and on motion of Major Everett Warren, of counsel for the defendants, the court directed a verdict in their favor. The principal part of the case was made out on Tuesday and when court convened yesterday morning only two witnesses were called to the stand. The motion wor a nonsuit was opposed by Attorney W. S. Dienl for the plain-the case.

The trespass suit of Mary Luxemberger, of Washburn street, against the Scranton Traction company, was called for trial before Judge Archbalt. Attorneys E. C. Newcomb and I. H. Burns represent the plaintiff and Hor-Jessup are attorneys for the company. Mrs. Luxemberger is suing for $40. 0. On Jan. 6, 1894, she was a passenger on a Taylor car, which jumped the track on the grade below the Round Woods. She was thrown against the stove, then over against the opposite seat by the lurching of the car, and next she fell Her injuries were so severe that she was carried home unconscious and had to be put to bed, from which she did not leave until the following August. It is alleged that she was permanently injured. Dr. N. Y. Leet and Dr. W. A. Paine testified on the part of the plaintiff and described Mrs. Luxemberger's

The defendant will try to show that her condition is not so much due to the accident as to a severe attack of the grip which she had the year previous.

PROVIDENCE.

One of the prettiest weddings solemnized in this section of the city this season was the Hughes-Dolph nuptials at the home of the bride's uncle, W. M. Wilson, on East Market street, last evening. The interior of the house was beautifully and artistically decorated with cut and growing flowers. was an abundance of myrtle, nd the fact that the bride's name is Myrtle rendered this a striking and very appropriate feature of the decorations. In a corner of the parlor an altar of myrtle and daises was erected. Back of this was a large bank of palms and ferns. The ushers were David McKenna and J. H. Hughes, a brother of the bride. A part of the illumination was by candles. At half-past eight Miss Myrtle Bailey, who presided at the plano, began playing Mendelssohn's wedding march Shortly afterward the ushers, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her uncle, entered the room and proceeded to the altar where they were met by the groom and best man. Fred Widmayer. Here they were made man and wife by the Rev. Dr. James McLeod. The bride wore an ivory-white satin dress with trail and pearl trimmings, and a veil caught by a diamond, the gift of the groom. She was attended by Miss Lelia Bolton, who wore a pale blue silk gown with duchess lace trimmings and carried pink roses. After the ceremony a bountiful repast was served by Caterer Curt. The couple left for an extended trip. After their return they will reside at the home of Mr. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Dolph were the recipients of numerous valuable gifts, among which was a silver set comprising knives, forks and spoons, given by the board of directors of the Traders' National bank, where Mr. Dolph is employed. Among the out of town guests were: J. H. Roberts and wife, A. K. and Dr. Charles L. Roberts, Herbert Roberts and wife, Mrs. James L. Roberts, and Mrs. Jackson, of Binghamton, Y.; A. C. Angell, of Seneca Lake, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bolton and daughter, Lelia, F. F. Pierce and wife, L. C. Snyder and William Miller and wives, of Carbondale; Mr. Levi C. MARKETS AND STOCKS

New York, June 3.-Stocks during

the early session today were charac-terized by weakness, but in no case did the decline amount to as much as a point. London and the foreigners gen-erally were sellers of our securities, the passage of the Butler bond bill and the activity of the free silver men having een unfavorably construed abroad. The foreign sales included St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville and Reading by London, and Kansas and Texas Paific, Erie and Chicago and Northern Pacific bonds by Berlin and Amsterdam. In the aggregate, however, the sales were only moderate in volume and in an ordinarily active market would not have been noticed at all. The loss during the morning hour was equal to 4a% per cent., Sugar, Leather preferred, the Grangers, General Electric and Louisville and Nashville leading. When the shorts discovered that very little long stock was coming out, they tried to cover and the decline noted was generally recovered. The upward movement was stimulated by Washington advices that the house will kill the Butler bill; the small engagement of gold for shipment to Europe tomorrow and the favorable report of the tiff, but Judge Archbald said that there Rock Island road for the year. Bay was no evidence of any malice on the State Gas was the feature and jumped part of the defendants and for that from 23% to 27 on the statements that the objections of the governor of Masreason the jury had nothing to do with sachusetts to the pipe line bill will be provided for and a new measure substituted. Sugar and Leather preferred were notably firm in the last trading, and the Grangers and Internationals were in better request. Metropolitan Traction dropped to 105%, while Manhattan ranged 101%a102%. Near the close Tobacco broke to 63% against 65% at the opening. The slump was due to reports of an other cut in the price of plug. Speculaace E. Hand, esq., and ex-Judge W. H. tion closed about firm in tone. Net changes show gains of %a% per cent. Bay State Gas, however, advanced 3 per cent. Total sales were only 117,281 shares.
