WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Rev. J. W. Williams Has Been Appoints to a Position with Welsh Forward Society of Wales.

The Jackson Street Baptist church has extended a call to Rev. J. W. Wildams, of Swansea. Wales, who is wanted in the pastorate of the church. Will he accept? A letter received by a prominent West Side man has, in substance, the following concerning the popular preacher: "Rev. J. W. Williams, of Memorial church, Swansea, has been appointed to a post in the Weish Forward society. The position was given him at a recent meeting of the official board. Dr. Williams will take charge of his new work on July 1. He and his family will live at Cardiff."

This letter was merely written with the idea of giving home news to the recipient, who was formerly a resident of Swansea. The Forward society in Wales is similar to the Home Mission society. Dr. Williams' answer to the n Street churchs' call is awaited with interest.

HAD A LIKING FOR EYES.

Two men with deep gashes over their eyes were locked in the station house last night. One was James McDonald. who lives on Robinson street near the Traction company's switch, and it was at his home the injuries were inflicted during a drunken fight. The other fellow is Owen Finnerty, of 1026 Price street. He is a young man, while Mc-Donald's hair is gray with age. They found themselves in a fight and when Officers Marker and Gurrell arrived; after hearing of the fight, McDonald was discovered on a board outside of his dwelling with his right eye nearly gouged out and the blood streaming down his face. Finnerty was seen scurrying down Ninth street as fast as his staggering feet would permit. Both were taken to the police station at 11 o'clock. Dr. George B. Reynolds was called in and the wounds of the men dressed. Last night they were too drunk to tell how it happened or what it was that struck him. The case will be heard today at police court.

There was another eye-cutting hap-pening on the West Side last night. Peter Clarey, an aged man whose home is on Luzerne street, rushed into the arms of the law asking that the immediate arrest be made of one Mrs. Kate Healy, also of Luzerne street Clarey was terribly cut over the right The wound seemed to have been made with a heavy and sharp weapon. wounded man says it was an axe and that Mrs. Healy struck the blow. He could not furnish money for his assallant's arrest and the prosecution was, temporarilly at least, dropped.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT.

A really fine concert entertainment like of which in point of class has seldom been given on the West Side was enjoyed by a large and select audience at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The entertainers were Theodore Hemberger, violinist; Mrs. Hemberger, accompanist; Mrs. G. Du Bois Dimmick, soprano: work of each artist in their respective | pleasure it will | held in the primary Thomas Beynon, tenor; Thomas Aubrey, lines was in accordance with their distinct and widespread reputations. Mr. Hemberger's playing on the violin was perhaps, the finest ever heard on the West Side. Every number was enthusiastically encored. The entertainment was under the direction of the church was greatly beautified by artis-

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Cedar Avenue at the Meadow Brook Breaker Will Be Widened Ten Feet. An Important Improvement.

Through the efforts of Select Councilman T. J. Coyne, of the Twentieth ward, an improvement will be soon made on Cedar avenue under the trestle of the Meadow Brook breaker, which will commend itself to everybody that passes that way. The street car track takes up so much of the roadway that two wagons cannot pass between the supports of the trestle and the track; and there is a sharp curve which makes it dangerous for vehicles, at night, especially, and at any time if the driver has fractious horse.

Councilman Coyne submitted to General Manager Silliman, of the Traction company, the necessity of doing something to remedy the spot, and he agreed to shift the track and widen the road ten feet at the expense of the company if arrangements could be made with Willlam Connell & Co. to have the stone wall supporting the trestle on the easterly side moved back that distance. The matter has been arranged to the satisfaction of both companies and work on the improvement will proceed in less than another week. It will not cost the city a cent to do the work.

STUCK WITH A HAT PIN.

In a spirit of playfulness one of the young ladies employed at the Saquoit Silk mill gave Anthony McDonald, who works there, too, a prod of her hat pin in the left leg, and the pin sunk so far that a physician had to be called in to remove it. The young man and his tormentor, among others, were going up on the elevator when it happened.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.

Some one has inaugurated a crusade against the dogs of the Twentieth ward and they are being poisoned in large numbers.

Constable Joseph F. Woelkers, of the Eleventh ward, had a busy time serving search warrant upon Mrs. Seenkills, a Polish woman who keeps a boarding house on South Washington avenue. Rudolph Swartz boarded with the woman and when he was leaving she refused to let him have his trunk. She moved to another house with it and although she was arrested and forced to give ball for keeping it she still refuses to part with it until Kudolf squares up a board bill, which he dis-

At a late hour Wednesday night Willlam Miller was arrested for creating a disturbance on Court street. Word was sent to the station house at this place, but before the police had gone to the scene William Black, constable of the Thirteenth ward, had succeeded in arresting him and lodged him in the station house, where he spent the rest of the night. At the hearing yesterday morning he was fined $4 and costs, after a severe reprimand by the alderman.

The North End Young Men's Temper ance club held an entertainment at St. Mary's hall last evening. The following was the programme of song and recitations: Solos by Mary Powell, M. H. Niland, Sadie Dougherty, W. H. Hicks, Manley, Theresa Loftus and Mamle Loftus; hornpipe dance, George Gavigan and Norah Cadden.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.

New York, June 4.-The duliness at the Stock Exchange continues, the sales today footing up only 112,291 shares. The main cause for the quiet condition of af-fairs is the uncertainty surrounding the political situation. While the friends of the leading Republican candidate for the presidential nomination assert that he is sound on the currency question the street is inclined to wait until the convention at St. Louis is heard from. The recent victories of the free silver men and the be-lief that the Chicago convention will come out strongly for this metal is also making traders on the bull side of the account more cautious. At the openig the Indus-trials were weak and the railway and international shares firm. Sugar was sold down on the reports of another decline in raws abroad and Tobacco was depressed on the unfavorable trade conditions. London bought St. Paul and Louis-ville and Nashville to a moderate extent Alland, Sadle Dougherty, W. H. Hicks, Edward O'Malley, Mamie Niland and James Murray; recitations by Jennie last hour the whole list strengthened under the leadership of the anthracites. The improvement was the result of the de-cisive defeat of the Butler bond bill in the ways and means committee of the house and belief that the gold shipments will be light in the immediate future. Rumors of an advance in anthracite coal, the favorable report of the Chicago and Northwestern and the declaration of divitempting to strike Freeman Lord, was dends by the company named as well as given a hearing yesterday morning and the Denver and Rio Grande also stimuwas fined $5, after promising to keep lated purchases. Missouri Pacific dropped from 24 to 22% on the decrease of $87,000 in the peace in the future.

The funeral of Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh, of Hudson street, took place yesterday afternoon. The pall-bearers were Nora O'Malley, Katie Henehan, Katie Coyne and Nora C. O'Malley. The flower bearers were Nellie O'Malley and Katie Burke.

from 24 to 22% on the decrease of $87,000 in gross earnings for the fourth week of May. In the late trading Lackawanna bounded up 3 to 163, New Jersey Central 2% to 1654, and Delaware and Hudson 14% to 1254. Reading, which had been sold down to 3% on the decrease of $87,000 in gross earnings for the fourth week of May. In the late trading Lackawanna bounded up 3 to 163, New Jersey Central 2% to 1654, and Delaware and Hudson 14% to 1254, and Delaware 14% to 1254, and the Mussachusetts senate had passed a new gas bill favorable to the company. The market closed firm and 1,23 per cent. higher, the anthracites leading. Reading lost 16 and Missouri Pacific 116.
