THE TROLLEY CAR JUMPED THE TRACK

Five Persons Injured at Peckville Saturday Night.

STONES PLACED ON THE RAILS

Caused the Car to Leave the Track and Run Areinst the Porch of Thomas Beynon's House--Harry Smith, of Peckville, Sustained the Most Serious Injury--His Jaw Bone Broken.

Five persons were injured in a street car accident Saturday night on the Providence line just outside the city limits. The car jumped the track and Harry Smith, of Peckville, sustained a broken jaw bone and painful lacerations of the face and scalp; George Josephs, of 422 Ninth street, West Side, was bruised about the body and face and his right arm was sprained; Miss Mary Ann Caraisine, of Olyphant, was slightly injured, and a Hungarian woman, Mrs. Karousky, of Peckville, was also slightly injured.

The accident occurred at 8.15 o'clock. The car was bound for Peckville and was in charge of Conductor Bunnell and Motorman Miller. It had not attained much headway after leaving the switch at the city line when the wheels began to grind to dust stones that were on the rails. The motorman applied the full power to pull the car through, as it was nearly stopped, and it ran about twice the length of itself along at full speed before striking another stone, which threw it from the track.

The lurching of the car threw Smith and Joseph off and they struck the ground with great force. Miss Carabine and the Hungarian woman were jostled against the seats, but as far as could be learned they are not injured beyond a few bruises. The point where the derailment occurred is on a level stretch of road.

Mischievous boys are charged with having placed stones on the rails. The car left the track opposite the residence of Thomas Beynon and collided with the porch, damaging it. As quickly as possible the injured persons were taken care of and were brought to their homes.

FOR MISS CONNORS.

Jury Found in Her Favor for $2,500. Verdict of $470.84 for Gavigan Against Refining Company.

Miss Bridget Connors, of Taylor, who sued for $10,000, was awarded a verdict of $2,500 on Saturday in her suit for damages against the Scranton Traction company for injuries she sustained on April 2, 1894, in a car which left the track at the Robinson street switch on the West Side and rolled down the bank to Ninth street. The nature of her injuries has necessitated medical attendance up to the present time. The plaintiff is 23 years old and claims that her condition since the accident has unfitted her to follow her occupation as dressmaker. She was represented by Attorneys O'Brien & Kelley. The case was given to the jury Saturday morning and the verdict was agreed upon at noon.

In the trespass suit of James Gavigan against the Atlantic Refining company the plaintiff was awarded a verdict of $470.84. The amount of damages claimed by him was $2,000, which he said he had suffered by reason of the erection of oil tanks and storage rooms by the company near his home on Penn avenue. His attorneys were I. H. Burns, M. J. Donahoe and Hon. John P. Kelley.

The third and last week of the common pleas term begins today. Then there will be two weeks of criminal court, followed by a week of argument court, after which judges, juries and lawyers will enter upon a vacation until September.

IMPORTANT MINE TRANSFER.

Pennsylvania Coal Company Obtain Control of Schooley Colliery.

The Pennsylvania Coal company has obtained control of the Schooley colliery in Exeter borough, Luzerne county, from the Butler Mine company. Negotiations gor the transfer have been in progress for several years, but have just been consummated.

This colliery is of great advantage to the Pennsylvania Coal company from the fact that it now controls, in addition to the lands leased by the Butler company, 300 acres of coal land owned by itself on the west side of the river and from 600 to 700 acres owned by the estate of John B. Smith, the late president of the company. This is the first and only plant owned by the Pennsylvania company on the West Side, though some of the coal there has been mined from the Hoyt shaft at Port Griffith, by means of a tunnel under the river.

It is intended to make a number of improvements in the plant.

MODERN AND UP-TO-DATE.

Features of the New Shoe Store in the Mears Building.

There are more than a few attractive things about the shoe store just opened in the new Mears building by Crouch Bros. and Beatty. The store is modern and up-to-date in all its appointments and arrangements the stock is unusually large and has been selected to meet the wants of a trade wanting medium and first grade goods the proprietors are young and active business men, three of whom have since boyhood been in the shoe business. These three facts make a combination which seem destined to insure a success for the store and satisfaction to the custom it earns.

J. B., C. A., and R. C. Crouch are from Pittsburg, where they have for many years been in the shoe trade in managing, buying and traveling capacities. D. A. Beatty is from Bradford, Pa. R. C. Crouch will be the manager and buyer for the new store. With a judgment born of experience of the business a careful study was made of the shoe trade of Scranton, and of its custom before the smallest order was given to the manufacturers. The result is that the stock contains about everything that Scranton people want and nothing that they don't want. While the cheapest grades of footwear sometimes desired by a well-to-do patronage are contained in the store, the stock is mostly made up of first and medium grade goods. Of these two qualities it has been possible, owing to the spacious and convenient sheif room, to stock the store with every kind of footwear usually wanted for men and ladies, children and youths and misses.

A customer always delights in purchasing goods in a well-lighted and well arranged store, and in this respect there is nothing lacking in the new store in the Mears building. It is a store practically surrounded by glass and will always be at least as light as the daylight outside and when that isn't light enough, use can be made of the electrical equipment.

If it is a pleasure to patronize those who are in some way identified with the city it will be a pleasure to patronize this store. The three Crouch brothers have moved here permanently. They chose Scranton as an opening for their business venture because they liked the thrift of the city and its people and because, in a commercial way, Scranton was like Pittsburg, the city whose business methods they have learned and which are like those which prevail here.

DONATIONS TO THE INSTITUTE.

Written for The Tribune.

During the month of May 388 volumes were donated to the Lackawanna Institute of History and Science, all but four of which were bound books.

The donors and number of volumes donated by each were as follows: James Champlin, 298; Scranton Public library, 31; Dr. William H. Egle, state librarian, Harrisburg, 23; P. F. Schuler, 7; M. W. Lowry, 5; O. H. Wright, 4; Hon. J. A. Scranton, 3; Hon. J. C. Vaughan, 3; Hon. L. Amerman, 3; W. G. Thomas, 2; E. C. Newcombe, 2; A. Porter, 2; C. R. Pitcher, 1; Fred W. Fleitz, 1; Hon. F. T. Okell, 1; Walter G. Briggs, 1, and United States department of agriculture, 1.

During the week ended June 6 the donation of books—all bound—have been fifty-seven volumes, as follows: T. P. Hoban, 12; C. L. Rice, 10; P. F. Schuler, 9; Professor N. L. Britton, librarian New York Academy of Sciences, 7; R. W. Luce, 6; W. F. oCnners, M. D., 5; Hon. J. A. Scranton, 4; Hon. John R. Jones, 2, and Professor J. Brown Goode, Smithsonian institution, 1.

Donations of any publications bearing upon History on Science will be welcome. The institute want files—as complete as possible—of all Lackawanna county papers, Scranton, Carbondale and Lackawan county directories and almanacs, and all kinds of Pennsylvania or United States public documents, and can use a large number of duplicates in exchanging with other societies or with individuals. They also want reports of local societies and corporations, manuscripts, maps, portraits or prominent citizens of the county and pictures of points of interst.

Nor should the interests of the museum be neglected. Many of our readers have about their homes historical relics, minerals, fossils, shells, Indian relics or other specimens that would make valuable additions to the institute collections. Some will visit localities during the summer from which such things can be readily obtained, and some have friends to whom they can appeal by letter for specimens.

Curator Wheeler will be glad to receive communications regarding gifts to the library or museum, and to call on persons who may wish to confer with him touching anything intended for the welfare of the institute.

The room—at Green Ridge library at present—is open every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon, and visitors are welcome.

REV. A. J. KILCOYNE DYING.

Unconscious Since Saturday and His Life Slowly Ebbing Away.

Rev. Anthony J. Kilcoyne, of St. Augustine, Fla., is dying at the home of his mother, corner of Cedar avenue and Breck street. He has been unconscious since Saturday morning, and last night was so weak that his death was hourly expected. His constitution is broken up and his recovery is beyond expectation.

Rev. Father Kilcoyne was a resident of the South Side before his ordination, after which he assumed charge of a parish in the diocese of St. Augustine, of which Rt. Rev. John Moore is bishop. The climate of the south did not agree with his health, and he made three visits home to recuperate.

He came home two months ago very sick, and for a time felt hopeful of regaining his strength. The trouble from which he is suffering is liver complaint.

TWO DURYEA MEN DROWNED NEAR FALLS

They Were Members of a Fishing Party of Seven.

BOAT THEY WERE IN CAPSIZED

James M. Monahan and John Atkinson Were Thrown Into the Water and, Being Unable to Swim to the Shore, Sank--Their Bodies Recovered After a Search of Several Hours.

Two prominent Duryea men, James M. Monahan and John Atkinson, met death by drowning in the Susquehanna near Falls station Saturday afternoon.

They, with Alexander Angus and four others, formed a fishing party which went from Duryea Saturday morning. During the afternoon the three named were crossing the river in a boat when it capsized. Angus, who is an old sailor and a good swimmer, reached the shore, but the other two became exhausted and sank. Both bodies were recovered before nightfall.

Monahan was the supervisor of Marcy township and one of the best known men of that locality. Both were married men and leave large families.

HIGH JENKS IN KELLY'S BLOCK.

Police Made a Number of Arrests There Last Night.

It is Kelley's block this time. Last night Patrolman Saul found about 200 people densely packed about the notorious building on Scranton street. All were intently witnessing the encounter of a half dozen people, some black, some white. A bevy were taken to the station house with the assistance of Constable Finnegan. At the hearing before Alderman Blair in the station house a bad condition of affairs in the block was again exposed. Mrs. Lizzie Williams, alias other names, lives with a colored man named Charles Boughton. She is married to a man in England, but claims that a suit for divorce is pending in that country, from whence she came three years ago. She was also married to a resident of Taylor. This was a few months ago.

Mrs. Mary Jane Woods, alias Mrs. William Matthews, the other woman in the case, is a large person. Mrs. Matthews quarrelled with Mr. Matthews. She removed her household furniture into Mrs. Boughton's apartments in the block. Last night she attempted to take the things back again. This caused the fight. Several people were struck with stove lids and a water pail.

The alderman made the charge one of keeping and frequenting a disorderly house. The two women and the colored Mr. Boughton were held in $500 bail to appear at court. Ben Cartler and Edward Murdock, two Laceyville negroes, were fined $5 each. All failed to furnish the requisite release money and they are now in jail.

NORRIS BROTHERS' GREAT SHOW.

Opens in this City Today for a Week's Engagement.

Norris brothers, the noted animal trainers, with their company of 100 very handsome and highly educated Shetland ponies and dogs arrived in their own special cars yesterday, and will erect their big tents this morning at the corner of Adams avenue and Mulberry street, where performances will be given every evening this week and matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 2 p. m.

The performance given is said to be unique and of great interest, and one that is equally enjoyable to old and young. The animals have been collected from all parts of the world, and the company includes many rare breeds seldom seen in this country. The children from the Home for the Friendless and St. Patrick's Orphan asylum will attend the matinee Tuesday by invitation of Professor Norris.

A very novel street parade will leave the show grounds at 11 o'clock and pass through the principal streets of the city, giving all a chance to see the great collection, which the professor terms the happy family.

TOWN MAY BECOME EXTINCT.

Stockton, Luzerne County, May Be Wiped from the Map.

Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Hazleton, June 7.—Stockton, one of the small coal towns that dot the Hazleton region, is threatened with extinction. Linderman & Skeer, who virtually own the town, finding it impossible to adjust their differences concerning royalties with the owners of the coal lands have decided to desert the place entirely and have sent an advertisement to the leading papers of the "lower regions" and principal coal trade journals offering for sale their entire property, consisting of four breakers, seventy company houses, their stores, offices and the like, all of which must be removed before August 8.

Already the people are beginning to move out and the only thing that can save the town is the possibility that somebody will buy in the plant and make a deal with the stubborn land owners by which operations can be proceeded with.

FINALLY BLESSED WITH A WOMAN.

Postmaster Metcalf's Marriage Gives Alleeton, Wis., Its First.

Fort Atkinson, Wis., June 7.—"The town without a woman," Alleeton, Jefferson county, first discovered by the Jefferson County union and afterward receiving world-wide mention in the newspapers on account of its peculiar condition, lost its distineton yesterday by the marriage of its postmaster, F. H. Metcalf, to Miss Laura Matthews, of Farmington.

BOMBS AT BARCELONA.

Anarchists Have Resumed Their Fiendish Activity in That City.

Barcelona, June 7.—The anarchists have resumed their activity in this city and much fear is entertained that they will inaugurate another reign of terror similar to that which prevailed in 1892 and 1893 when there were many explosions here, in Madrid and other Spanish cities. At 9 o'clock tonight a bomb was exploded while a religious procession was taking place and several persons were killed.

The outrage has caused the greatest excitement. This is the second outrage or attempted outrage within a few days. A number of anarchists have been arrested but as yet there is no positive proof that any of them cased the explosion.

Six persons were killed by the explosion and twenty-four wounded. It is not known what explosive the bomb contained, but judging from its effect must have been very powerful.

The police thing that they will be able to catch those responsible for the crime through the confession of some of the anarchists who have been arrested. This, however, appears to be a very slight hope.

ERMENTROUT VICTORIOUS.

Will Receive the Nomination from Reading Democrats on Tuesday.

Reading, Pa., June 7.—The Democratic primaries held in this city and county on Saturday brought out a very large vote and in many of the districts the vote was exceptionally close. In this city Daniel Ermentrout received 27 votes, H. D. Green 2 and S. A Baer 2. Early this morning Mr. Ementrout claimed 90 delegates, 73 being necessary. Dr. E. M. Herbst carried a number of the districts outside of the city as did also Mr. W. B. Bieber.

Mr. Green says the contest is not yet settled but from the returns received which embrace nearly all of the districts it is evident that Mr. Ementrout will receive the nomination. The convention will meet in this city on Tuesday morning.

HOUNDS USED IN THE CHASE.

Capture of a Released Convict Who Attempted to Kill a Guard.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 7.— Guard Zera Rayburn of the Missouri penitentiary, was shot and seriously injured yesterday by F. G. Norvill, a convict, who was released from the penitentiary the day before. For some infraction of the prison rules Rayburn had Norvill punished on Thursday morning by being tied to a post. At noon he was released from the penitentiary. He bought a shotgun, loaded it with No. 4 shot, and hid himself near the house of Rayburn. At about 5 o'clock yesterday morning as Rayburn stepped through his yard gate to the sidewalk, Norvill fired at him. He was about sixty yards away and the shot scattered, striking Rayburn in the head, breast and abdomen. Norvill was chased ten miles by hounds and captured.

LEE VISITS PRISONERS.

Crew of the Competitor Is Interviewed by the New Consul.

Havana, June 7.—Consul General Fitzhugh Lee today visited the men who were captured on the filibustering schooner Competitor and who are now confined in the Cabanas fortress under sentence of death. General Lee found the prisoners lodged in unhealthy quarters and will request Captain General Weyler to order that they be given better accommodations. The consul general also saw Julio Sangullly, an American citizen, who is under sentence of life imprisonment for conspiring against the peace of Spain, and whose case on appeal is now before the court of Cassation in Madrid.

It is said that General Lee, as a special favor, requested Captain General Weyler to release Mr. Dawley, the correspondent of Harper's Weekly, who was arrested a few days ago. The request was granted and it is expected that Dawley will be released from Morro Castle tomorrow.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY.

The Huntingdon Senatorial Fight Is Still in Doubt.

Huntingdon, Pa., June 7.—The result of the Republican primaries in this county last night on the senatorial fight is still in doubt. Forty-three out of the sixty-one districts have reported, giving Penrose 58 delegates to Wanamaker's 49. In the popular vote Penrose leads by about 320.

Both sides are still claiming victory Dr. H. C. Chisholm, for state senate, and Representative P. M. Lytle and Captain John S. Bare, for the legislature, have probably won.
