ANOTHER VICTORY.

Harper Was Poorly Supported, but Toronto's Errors Were More Costly and Scranton Won.

In a superb pitching contest between Harper and Moran, the Canucks were Saturday defeated in a shallow-score game. The score was 6 to 4.

The weather was threatening until a few minutes before the game was called, but at 4 o'clock the sky cleared and almost perfect base ball weather was provided.

Moran, who pitched for Toronto, has almost a clean string of victories since the season opened and was looked upon to keep Scranton's heavy hitters guessing.

The weather was threatening until a few minutes before the game was called, but at 4 o'clock the sky cleared and almost perfect base ball weather was provided.

Latham got in the way of one of Moran's shots in the first and limped to first and reached third on a wild pitch, scoring on Moran's single.

Scranton made four runs and got a lead of one tally in the third. Latham drew four wide ones and stole second and third, while Hutchinson struck out and Meany flew out to Smith.
