ADVANCE GUARD AT ST. LOUIS

Sergeant-at-Arms of the National Committee Interviewed.

NO PREJUDICE AGAINST M'KINLEY

All Contests to Be Settled Upon Their Merits Solely So Far as the Committee Is Concerned--Other Gossip Concerning the Campaign and Convention.

St. Louis, June 8.--But three members of the national committee have so far arrived in St. Louis. Sergeant at arms of the committee in discussing the probable action of the committee in the matter of contests said:

"It is impossible for any man to tell the exact attitude of the committee toward McKinley. In fact it is a matter of no great importance, although it is generally supposed to be. I am familiar with the work of the national committee for the past sixteen years and I defy any one to cite an instance in which the prejudice has entered into the adjustment of a contest. The contests are settled, so far as the committee is concerned, absolutely on the merits of the case. The only consideration is the regularity or irregularity of the proceedings which named the delegation. This, however, does not hold good in the committee on credentials of the convention. Here personal preferences enter largely into the proceedings of the body."

There appears to be considerable difficulty in securing quarters for the colored delegates to the convention, and C. A. Hill, national committeeman from Tennessee, is quoted in an afternoon paper as saying: "Unless quarters are provided immediately I shall telegraph the colored members of the Tennessee delegation to stay at home. I do not intend that they shall come to St. Louis and either go hungry or eat in a place in which they would stifle a horse at home."

Judge Long, national committeeman from Florida, is also in an indignant frame of mind over the alleged neglect of the committee for the colored delegates.

CORRESPONDENTS EN ROUTE.

Washington, June 8.--The Washington correspondents of the principal daily papers throughout the country left Washington for the Republican national convention this afternoon at 4 o'clock and are scheduled to arrive at St. Louis tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. They travel luxuriously on a special train of Pullman cars through the courtesy of the Pennsylvania railroad. About 100 were in the party. Delayed by the continuance of congress another contingent of the leading correspondents, including the convention staff of the United Press will leave here on Wednesday afternoon.

PREPARING FOR VISITORS

Business Men's League at St. Louis is Alive to the Situation Regarding the Negro Question.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.--The members of the Business Men's league are alive to the gravity of the situation in relation to the negro question and promise an early solution of the trouble. The secretary of the league says that the Mississippi delegation did not apply for quarters until all the leading hotels had contracted for their rooms. He says further that every promise of the league will be fulfilled.

National Committeeman Cyrus Leonard, Jr., of Kansas, arrived today. He says Kansas will have a full delegation to the meeting at St. Louis. "Besides," said he, "there are 30,000 McKinley soldiers in Kansas."

Applications for quarters from Alaska were received today by the bureau of information. The delegates are Thomas S. Newell and Charles S. Johnson. They will be in St. Louis on the 15th inst. Mr. Newell is now in Boston, visiting relatives. Both delegates are instructed for McKinley.

A splendid bust picture of the Ohio statesman now graces all the show windows of downtown shops and stores and McKinley button vendors do a thriving trade.

The hall decorations are on a grand scale. Hon. Thomas J. Cummings, of New York, who has attended every national convention since Tilden was nominated, is in this city. He says the hall arrangements and decorations are the most complete and elaborate ever attempted. The gavel for the temporary chairman's use was, as described yesterday, made from the timbers of a secession convention hall by a confederate soldier. That accepted for the use of the permanent chairman will have even a greater historical interest. It was received today. The gavel will be presented to the chairman by Senator Berry, one of the Illinois delegates. The gavel is an excellent piece of wood carved done by W. H. Bartels of Carthage, Ill. Mr. Bartels selected the wood from a hickory log taken from the log cabin occupied by President Lincoln at New Salem, Ill., in 1832. There are panels on either side which are filled in with inscribed plates of gold and silver. The silver end bears this inscription: "Made by W. H. Bartels, Carthage, Ill., from a log of the cabin occupied by Abraham Lincoln in 1832, at New Salem, Ill." The inscription on the gold plate reads: "National Republican convention held at St. Louis June 16, 1896, nomination for president. The gavel is to be presented to the nominee at the conclusion of the proceedings."

UNUSUAL SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

An Excommunicated Church Woman Makes Demand for $10,000. Indianapolis, Ind., June 8.--Mrs. Louisa Smock, an excommunicated member of the Garden Street Baptist church, this city, has brought suit against Rev. Charles L. Berry, pastor, and Edwin C. Thomas and others, constituting the official board, claiming $10,000 damages because of expulsion from the church. She was a teacher in the Sunday school, and held various church offices, but she alleges that several weeks ago the pastor began entertaining around less prejudice and an un-Christianlike spirit toward her, and eventually she was excommunicated without knowing what offense she had committed. The church is old and well established, and all the principals are prominent in its life.

M'KINLEY ON FIRST BALLOT.

Congressman Frank is Sanguine of an Easy Victory.

Chicago, June 8.--Richard C. Kerens and ex-Congressman Nathan Frank, of St. Louis, stopped in Chicago today, on their way home from their political visit to William McKinley at Canton. As a Missouri delegate to the St. Louis convention Mr. Frank said:

"We will nominate McKinley on the first roll call. There will be McKinley strength not only to dictate the nomination, but the manner of doing it. We will not permit a suspension of the roll call long enough to make the nomination unanimous. "We will adopt a financial plank satisfactory to the mass of the country. We will declare unequivocally against the free coinage of silver at any ratio. We will not straddle on that plank. As for Major McKinley's position, I can say the financial plank cannot be made too strong for him. He is sound."

The Hungarian Celebration--New Shah of Persia is Formally Enthroned--Insurgents Defeat the Turkish Troops at Crete.

Cairo, June 8.--The mixed tribunal rendered judgment today against the government and the four commissioners of the Calcutta who were advancing funds from the Egyptian reserve for the purpose of the Sudan expedition. The tribunal declared that this advance was made in violation of all existing decrees, condemned the government to repay the money advanced, and enjoined the commissioners from advancing any further moneys from the reserve fund.

The government and the four commissioners immediately lodged an appeal against the decision.

YACHT RACING IN ENGLAND.

Meteor and Niagara Winners in the Royal Cinque Ports Regatta.

Dover, June 8.--In the regatta of the Royal Cinque Ports Yacht Club today, Britannia, Alisa, Meteor, and Satanita started in the order named at 11.30 this morning. A light southwest wind was blowing. The course was to Boulogne-Sur-Mer and back, about fifty miles. Up to 12.30 p. m. only the faintest airs had assisted the racers, but Meteor and Niagara, under the westerner, and was about a mile ahead of Satanita, only these two yachts having succeeded in weathering the pier end, Britannia and Alisa, farther out in the channel, were obliged to anchor in order to prevent the tide from driving them away.

Owing to the light winds the regular course was not sailed and a 22-mile course was substituted. Meteor finished at 5h. 2m. 53s. Britannia finished at 5h. 42m. 48s., and Alisa and Satanita finished about two minutes later. Meteor allows Britannia about two and one-half minutes.

The Saint, Penitent, and Niagara started at noon, in the order given, in the race for the twenty-raters under the auspices of the yacht club. An hour later the Saint had a long lead on Niagara. Fifty minutes elapsed before Penitent crossed the line and went in chase of her opponents. The course was originally twenty-four miles, but owing to the light wind it was decided to reduce the distance to twelve miles.

PITTSBURG SAENGERFEST.

Heavy Wind and Rain Storm Plays Havoc with the Decorations.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 8.--A heavy rain and wind storm in the early part of the evening played havoc with the gorgeous street decorations, but did not deter about 8,000 people from attending the reception concert of the twenty-eighth saengerfest of the North American Saengerbund, which was given this evening by local societies and singers and was a complete success in every detail.

At 8.15 o'clock President John Dimling appeared upon the darkened stage and read a brief telegram of friendly greeting and kindly expressed wishes from President Cleveland.

As Mr. Dimling ceased speaking the electric wire connecting Saengerfest hall with the executive mansion in Washington city, was closed by President Cleveland pushing a button, and in an instant the spacious hall was flooded with light.

Long and loud applause greeted both the message from the president and the beautiful effect of the illumination, the most attractive feature of which was the mammoth lyre, constructed of hundreds of vari-colored electric globes. When quiet had been restored the orchestra of 20 pieces, under the direction of Heinrich Zoellner, rendered the Kaiser march which was fully appreciated by the vast audience.

Then followed "The Deluge" (cantata), "Old Folks at Home," and an aria "I have Lost my Eurycleid" (Orpheus) sung by Grace Damiani. The programme was long, and on the whole, all received and appreciated. The first evening of the week of song was an unqualified success.

At 11 o'clock tonight a "Student Commemorative" was given in old city hall, in honor of the representatives of the press. Speeches and song were a part of the menu served.

FRANK MAYO DEAD.

The Well-Known Actor Expires from Paralysis of the Heart.

Omaha, Neb., June 8.--Frank Mayo, the distinguished actor, died today on the train while en route from Denver to this city. Mr. Mayo's company was en route from Omaha and was to finish the season with four nights' engagement in this city. Sunday night he complained a little of dyspepsia, and slept the greater part of the time in his chair. At 1 o'clock while the train was west of Grand Island, Neb., Manager Block went to wake him and found him dead. He died of paralysis of the heart.

Mr. Mayo leaves a widow, who is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everson, in Philadelphia.

POISON IN SHRIMP SALAD.

High School Graduates and Alumni Made Sick at a Banquet.

Frankfort, Ind., June 8.--Of 200 people who sat down to the banquet table of the Frankfort High School Alumni association last night more than two-thirds were made deathly sick, and at 1 o'clock until late in the morning, both the physicians in the city were overwhelmed with calls. The poison, it is believed, was contained in the shrimp salad and was from the tin in which the shrimp had been packed.

The sickness did not come upon the guests until two or three hours after they had returned to their homes. The commencement exercises which were held at Columbia theater tonight were marked by the absence of several members of the graduating class, who were too sick to leave their rooms.

SLAUGHTERED BY SPAIN'S BUTCHERS

SHOCKING CASES OF CRUELTY

A Sick Boy Aged Fifteen Years Is Dragged From His Home and Murdered--Other Instances of Spanish Brutality.

Havana, June 6, via Tampa, Fla., June 8.--That the work of extermination of non-combatants, or "pacificos," as they are styled here, continues to a greater or less extent, is evidenced by the reports which are received from the country. Not a day passed without some shocking story being told of brutal assassinations committed by the troops on defenseless people, whose sole crime is being witnesses of the war raging all over the island, without taking any part in it.

Here are a few facts selected from the many that are told: On June 2 a column of Spanish troops commanded by Colonel Ochoa, operating around Jaruco, Havana province, captured a poor, miserable boy of 15 years of age named Juan Rodriguez, suffering from nervous prostration and so weak that he could hardly move without assistance. This unhappy creature was dragged from his home, a little farm near Casiguas, and without any compassion for his pitiable state he was butchered on the roadway to Lapaste for the sole crime of being a cousin of a leader in the rebel army named Victor Simon.

On June 1 Simon Yruvi, member of one of the best families of Jaruco, was arrested on suspicion of being a rebel sympathizer by orders of General Melgilio. He was too well known to be taken out of town and shot in the fields, as this would create a scandal, so they made a semblance of a court martial and with all the apparent formalities of the law he was publicly shot in the square of the town. The deed created general indignation when it was known that Melgilio had ordered the execution on his own authority without consulting the captain general, who is the only one empowered to order such proceedings.

MURDER OF MEDINA.

On June 4 last Mr. Lorenzo Medina, a native of the Canary Islands, 49 years of age, and a cattle dealer of some means, and Juan Toledo, a Cuban, 30 years of age, owner of a cart shop, both well known and esteemed in the town of Jaruco, were arrested on no known charges. They were lodged in the civil guards barracks and the next morning they were taken out of the town under promise of prompt release and treacherously shot behind the slaughter house.

It is known that Valencia had a fight with Colonel Fondevilla, of Campo Florida fame, in which this "brave" was completely routed, losing 32 dead left on the field. This has never been reported officially.

The Bayamo Guerrilla, about 100 men, commanded by Gabino Guerra, has joined the rebel ranks, and entered the town of Jaruco, where he passed near that place last week.

In Sancti Spiritus a band of musketeers of the local volunteers headed by its band master, Mr. Justo Alvarez, with all the instruments of the band, went over to the woods to enliven the time for the revolutionists.

COMMODORE RELEASED.

The Filibustering Steamer Is Admitted to Bail. Charleston, S. C., June 8.--The little filibustering steamer Commodore was released from custody by the United States authorities here today upon the attorney of Messrs. J. D. Hart and company putting up $4,500 for her appearance when wanted. The boat was arrested by the United States customs officials upon her recent return from an alleged trip to Cuba.

Information was given against her by one of her seamen and she has been tied up at the custom house ever since. The boat will probably be placed on the ways to have her bottom cleaned, after which it is stated she will go to Philadelphia.

AUGUST BERGER'S SUICIDE.

A Typhoid Fever Patient Jumps Into the Susquehanna. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 8.--August Berger, of Nanticoke, who had been ill with typhoid fever, committed suicide today by jumping into the Susquehanna river. His wife had given him some medicine during the morning and was horrified when she was informed two hours later that his body had been found in the river.

MURDERED AND CREMATED.

Horrible Death Near Ramsey, Ind. Corydon, Ind., June 8.--The house of George Craden, a farmer living near Ramsey, Harrison county, seven miles from here, was destroyed by fire last night, and Mr. Craden's wife and a son, aged 13, were cremated in the ruins. Mr. Craden was absent from home at the time. Upon returning at midnight he discovered the bodies of his wife and child in the ruins.

Everything indicates that a double murder was committed and the house set on fire to cover up traces of the murder. A telegram from Ramsey says the people there have as yet made no charges against anyone, but they have strong suspicions.

Sentenced for Assault.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 8.--Samuel Harris, alias William Andrews, a young colored man, who assaulted Miss Jennie Smeltzer near Oberlin yesterday, but was frightened away before accomplishing his purpose, was arraigned in court this afternoon and, pleading guilty, was sent to the penitentiary for three and a half years.
