ist. Her selections were as follows: Prelude, Bach; rondo, Beethoven; allegretto, Hayda; serenade, Schubert;

The base ball team played the Justus Ramblers on the academy grounds last injured by being thrown from a bicycle Wednesday afternoon, and the Ramblers fell casy prey to the Keystone. "Glants" to the tune of 18 to 8. The features of the game were the hard hitting of the home team and the errors of vention of the Ancient Order of Hiberthe visitors.

The prize orations of the middle class contest is to be held in Main chapel Thursday evening, June 13, The awarding of the prize is entirely on the composition and not the delivery.

The seniors are preparing for their class day, and preparations are being made to outrival all former exercises of the kind. Wednesday, June 17, at 8 o'clock is the date. Look out for something new. G. H. Button, financial secretary for the academy, has brought his family the other side. from Mexico, N. Y., and they are now boarding in Ladies' hall.

Helen Bard, class of '94, has just returned from Philadelphia, where she has been attending school for the last year.

The seniors and middlers held their annual picnic last Saturday. The former went to Lake Carey, the latter to Winola, Both parties expressed themselves as having had a fine day. Professor Hulley and Miss Dixson performed the duty of chaperons very acceptably. The base ball team will play the Wyoming seminary team next Saturday, June 13, on the seminary grounds, Kingston.
