THE ECONOMY'S PREMIUM SALE CONTINUES. Protection from Moths.

A Moth-Proof Receptacle for Clothing in the form of a CHIFFONIER, costs but a trifle more than the old-style cedar chest--which is always in the way--or requires a spare room to keep it in. Upon examination of this style of 5 Combined Cedar Chests set up in the form and style of a Chiffonier, it will at once comment itself for its utility and its convenience.

Here Are Some of Its Advantages. Large capacity with small floor space. Convenience in packing, unpacking, or examination. It saves the expense of storage of Furs and Flannels. It is pleasing to the eye and may be used in any room at all seasons for any purpose that a chiffonier is used. The outside is Oak polish finish. The entire interior is Cedar. Each drawer is complete and an airtight compartment in itself. Our Regular stock of Chiffoniers is worthy of your inspection--the one illustrated--solid Oak, large size $4.98 with Beveled Mirror top and more ornamental base $7.98 starten will open in September, when Miss Mead hopes to return to take charge. Miss Angis Birs left yesterday morning for Albany. Nicholas Regan, of Wayne street, was called to Jersey City by the serious illness of his brother, George Regan, who is suffering from a cancer, and his death is momentarily expected. Miss Maggie Campbell has been appointed operator at the telephone exchange. W. W. Callender and Paul Wents spent Monday in Scranton. Miss Pennington, who is spending the summer at the American House, will shortly open a class in painting and crayon work. Cards of invitation were issued yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Bell to the wedding of their daughter, Cora Eleanor, to Walter Gladstone Jenny on Wednesday evening, June 24, at eight o'clock, in the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city. A reception will follow from 8.30 until 11 o'clock at No. 40 Washington street. W. L. Pryor, passenger agent for the Lehigh Valley railroad, was in town yesterday. Mrs. Wall, of Starbuck, was the guest of Mrs. Breese, on South Main street. Mrs. Charles A. Birs, of North Church street, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, of North Church street. Miss Irene Monk, who spent the winter with friends in the American House, has returned home and resumed her work at the Hendrick works. Miss Jennie Mosler, of South Main street, who has been visiting friends in Albany, returned home Monday. An entertainment is to be given next week at Watt's hall for the benefit of Alumni Park. The farmers' apple orchards promise well this season, but peaches, plums, cherries and small fruits are non est. G. L. Walkeman, wife and daughter, of Laceyville, were called in town while en route to Scranton the early part of the week. A camping party comprising Messrs. Robert, Charles and Ernest Little and Jacob Carpenter, has invaded the wilds of Forks, in the Towanda mountains, for the purpose of trout fishing along the Kason brook. The Unadilla Milk and Cream company which controls the milk shipping business along the Montrose road, is paying out 1 1/2 cents per quart for milk. At the station this week the milk farmers but one cent per quart--not enough to pay for the wear and tear of milking during fly time. Much of the milk is set until the first cream rises, which is sent to the city and sold to make whipped cream. The balance of the cream, which is heavier and rises last, is in butter and marketed at something less than regular market prices, as it is not considered equal to butter made from full cream. Mrs. Jacob Stemples, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents at Lake Carey. AMONG THE NOTABLES. The late Brick Pomeroy was a newspaper scribbler at Athens, Bradford county, in his younger days. If his mantle has fallen among the present pencil shavers of that town with a Grecian name, it will be interesting to see who will fill it. Since Congressman Galusha A. Grow is to speak in various parts of the state during the fall campaign, the suggestion is made that he be secured, if possible, for an address in Tunkhannock. The proposal is a good one and should be seriously considered. Why a county has a good deal of admiration for the venerable old statesman, and would like the opportunity to demonstrate it. Hon. H. D. Tiffany, who served as representative of this county in the last legislature, was in town the latter part of the week. He made a good record at Fairport, and believing that one good turn deserves another, he thinks the county should do him the courtesy of sending him back. ALONG THE RIVER. Professor Everett J. Harding, of Centerville, has been engaged as principal of the Mehoopon borough schools, vice Frank H. Jarvis, who was elected county superintendent. He is a bright young man and will doubtless fill the bill acceptably. Wyoming county Pomona grange holds its quarterly session at Mehoopon any day. In view of the tobacco manifesto of General Weyer, the river-flat farmers are putting out a big acreage of cabbage this year, and will smoke homemade tobaccos next winter in utter defiance. Previous to the drowning accident at Falls Saturday, six persons had met their death in the river within one mile of the spot where Monahan and Atkinson went down, and nearly as many more have been killed on the railroad at that vicinity. It seems to be a peculiarly fatal spot, though the natural dangers are no more apparent there than elsewhere. Editor G. B. McWard, of the Brain-Triple Messenger, has purchased a press and hereafter his paper will be printed at the home office. For more than a year past he has had his press work done at the office of the New Age. At the Towanda high school commencement this year the usual essays and orations were omitted, and a lecture by a distinguished traveler substituted. No doubt this was more edifying to the audience, but it was probably disappointing to the sweet girl graduate who had prepared a half-recent essay upon "The Imagery and Immaculateness of Ethereal Co-ordination." HERE AND THERE. By the death of her husband, a few days since, Mrs. Peter Baer was left destitute, with three small children upon her hands. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, learning of her distress, promptly voted a sum out of its treasury sufficient to meet immediate demands and sent a committee around with it just after she returned from the funeral. It was a very practical exhibition of sympathy, and came sky.

seems toward general depravity, were up before the justice yesterday morning. Weiser, a Besant merchant, is in deep water financially. He has liabilities to the amount of $7,000 or more having to be met at once, and only a small portion of that amount of assets being in sight. S. W. McConnell and the Wyoming National bank are his principal creditors. How keenly complain that spraying fruit trees to kill insects kills their bees also. Fred L. Foster, a Factoryville merchant, and Miss Fanny Stephens, a Nicholson teacher, was granted a marriage license yesterday. M. Phinney, landlord at the Packer House, has a financial reverse, and the sheriff has levied upon his stock and fixtures. The Tritons are mapping out some base ball games this season that promise amusement. They will combat with the Pittston Y. M. C. A. on Thursday, June 13, and with the Mansfield State Normal school team the 20th. Martha, wife of M. J. McNeal, died with dropsy of the heart on Friday evening and was buried Sunday at Gravel Hill, Rev. J. C. Leacock officiating. She was a daughter of the late Powers W. Redfield, and was 52 years of age. The husband is afflicted with cancer, or some kindred trouble, and cannot long survive her. They removed here from Elmira about the first of April. The second game of ball between the Tritons and the Nicholson club was played yesterday; score being 10 to 9 in favor of Nicholson. LERAYSVILLE. C. S. Dusenbury, of Towanda, was in town last week looking after his horse and property and visiting friends in general. He was a former dentist at this place, and on account of poor health retired and moved to the county seat. A. T. Stewart, secretary, of Towanda, was in town last week planning for the cycle club's celebration of July 4th. By the way, Allen has just been admitted to practice law in the Bradford county courts. Miss MacLauri, of New York, gave a course of lectures for nurses at the Congregational church last week. Mrs. N. L. Iurd, of East Smithfield, president of the Bradford county W. C. T. U., has been visiting her niece, Mrs. L. A. Howarth, the past week. Landlord Brown was in Towanda last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Camp, of Cambridge, were visiting Mrs. J. M. Benham last Tuesday. John Black an aged citizen of Pike, is on an extended trip to Duluth, Minn., and Denver, Colo., where he has real estate interests. Guy Bosworth was in Towanda last Monday, making the trip on the bike. Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Prentice entertained a small company of friends at tea last Wednesday at the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church. J. V. Keeley made a "bike" trip to Wyalusing last week. The Stevensville cornet band have been engaged to furnish music for the celebration at Wyalusing on July 4. Miss Nettie Cook, of Pottsville, has been in town for several days as a guest at Dr. Cook's. Charles Woodruff and wife, of Auburn Centre, were visiting at A. P. Worden's last Saturday and Sunday. Wayne Hattenback, of Athens, was calling on friends in town the first of last week. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Buster were Saturday and Sunday visitors at W. H. Cogswell's, in Skinner's Eddy. J. N. Cramer, of Towanda, was in town last week looking up his interests as a candidate for register and recorder. S. O. Overton, landlord at Wysox, candidate for county commissioner, subject to Republican rules, was in town last week, making a very favorable impression as to his success to the polls at the coming primaries. He has many friends in this vicinity who will wish to see him seated in the commissioner's chair at the county seat another year. He is a very thorough business transactor, and, if he should be elected, he will certainly be the right man to look after the interests of our taxpayers. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. B. B. of West Newark, N. Y., have been visiting at Mrs. Abel Moore's several days. They also visited other acquaintances in this vicinity. The engagement of T. B. Smith, of Ulster, and Miss Addie Barnes, of Herkerville, has been announced. Dr. Keener's tented 10-cent show is billed for this place this week Wednesday. A. S. Baldwin made a business trip to Camptown last Tuesday. There are now about thirty bicycles owned in this borough. Pretty good showing for a small town. D. M. Turner, of Towanda, the able representative of the Penn Mutual Insurance company, was doing business in town a few days ago. Mrs. J. A. Bolworth has been caring for Mrs. G. W. Moore, who has been seriously ill the last week, but now hopes are entertained for her recovery. Messrs. E. H. Beardsley and W. D. Johnson are possessors of "The Silver King" bicycles. Mr. Johnson, agent, has been making several sales of this wheel lately. Miss Winnie Wakefield has been quite ill at Mrs. P. C. Moore's. Mrs. Sarah Clenderson, of Myersburg, was visiting in town for a couple of days last week. Children's day will be observed with appropriate exercises at the M. E. church next Sunday morning and at the Congregational church in the evening. Rev. Walter Buck is expected to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Miss Jennie Barnes, of Herkerville, was calling on friends in town last Saturday evening. For state senator the Bradford county Republicans cannot elect a better representative than Hon. B. B. Mitchell, of Troy, who has already served one term and is again a candidate for re-nomination. Mr. Mitchell is a very popular man throughout the whole county and an introduction always means a new friend to him. The Farmer's Friend and Grange Advocate of May 23 contains a very flattering editorial for the senator, and we endorse their sentiments, when it says "that it is certainly wise and proper, as no senatorial representative from this district was ever more faithful and honest than this gentleman." Mrs. H. W. Shoreville was a caller at John Champion's, on West Hill, last Friday.

JERMYN. Rev. W. F. Brown, the new pastor of the First Baptist church, entered upon his duties as pastor of that church Sunday. Rev. Brown preached both morning and evening with elegance and force, and his discourse was listened to by a large audience, who were considerably impressed. At the evening service the Rose of Lackawanna lodge, Loyal Knights of America, No. 36, and about ten members of Franklin lodge, Loyal Knights of America, of Carbondale, attended the services in a body. The address was principally on the principles of the order. Rev. Brown choosing for his text John, II, 25: "He need not that any should testify of man, for He knew what was in man." The members of the church are highly pleased with Rev. Brown, and are congratulating themselves on securing him as the pastor of this charge. The following programme will be given by the members of the Brownson Literary Institute at their meeting this evening: Piano solo, Miss Josie Gilligan; vocal solo, Miss Lizzie Collins; essay, Frank McAfferty; recitation, Miss Maggie Mulholland; vocal solo, Miss Sadie Knapp; select reading, John Merrick. The school term just ended has been one of the most successful that has ever been taught in years. The advancement made by the scholars in all the grades speaks much for the efficient corps of teachers secured by the school board. In the report recently made it was shown that the attendance was unusually large and the average rate of advancement for the year raised considerably. The results of the past term have been most gratifying to all concerned. Several of the directors favor making alterations in the old school building so that the primary room may be divided in two parts or another room added. The attendance last term was 125 pupils, requiring two primary teachers and it is thought much better work can be done with two teachers in two rooms than in one room. The street commissioner had several men filling in the bad spots on Main street yesterday. Every rain previous to this would make these places a mass of mud and an eye sore to all wide-awake citizens of Jermyrn. Miss Mattie Knapp, who has been the efficient aid in the postoffice at this place for the past five years, will leave her post on July 1. Miss Knapp will be succeeded by Miss Lizzie Collins, of South Main street. The Jermyrn and Mayfield clerks are circulating petitions for the election of the general stores in Jermyrn. The clerks have been very successful in their efforts, and the following merchants will close their stores promptly at 6 o'clock every evening except the evening of a pay day and that evening following during July, August and September. C. D. Winter & Co., J. D. Stocker & Co., Green & Morris, P. Cain & Son, W. E. Davis, J. J. Pace, T. M. Hart, Bell Store company, Thomas Rich, Erk Bros., John Solomon, M. G. Neary. The members of the Primitive Methodist Sunday school are making arrangements for a picnic to be held at Crystal Lake, Thursday, June 13. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, of Second street, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Robinson, of Carbondale. The Jermyrn and Mayfield clerks of the Wood's Business college team will play ball at Avoca park on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The school board met in special session last evening, when the appointment of teachers for the ensuing term was made. The full report will appear in tomorrow's Tribune. Frank Baker, aged 4 years and 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. George, of Main street, died at 2 o'clock this morning of diphtheria. The funeral will be announced later. There is a case of diphtheria at the home of Harry Smith, on Second street. Mrs. Caroline Maynard, an aged lady residing on Main street, fell from the curbstone, near her home, and was painfully shaken up. FOREST CITY. The following officers of British American lodge, Order Sons of St. George, were installed last night, Grand Lodge Officers Joseph P. Fildan and George H. Shires, of Scranton, officiating: Worthy President, George Brail; worthy vice-president, William Bailey; messenger, William H. McMillan; worthy treasurer, J. R. Budd; worthy secretary, J. C. Waters; worthy assistant secretary, John Alexander; trustee, Fred. Cray. After the installation ceremonies refreshments were served by members' wives and daughters in a most liberal manner, and the evening was enjoyably spent in speaking and song. Among those who contributed to the evening's enjoyment were Mrs. S. May, Messrs. Alexander, Carr, Rowlands, Fildan, Shires, Milton, Jennings, Waters and Budd. Milton's address on the duty of Englishmen to their adopted country was worthy of special notice. Credit is due the committee in charge for having arranged an entertainment of such high character. Nervous People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this: "I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and they have done me much good. I will not be without them. I have taken 13 bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and through the blessing of God, it has cured me. I worked as hard as ever the past summer, and I am thankful to say I am well. Hood's Pills when taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla help very much." MRS. M. M. MESSENGER, Freehold, Penn. This and many other cures prove that

TIRE SALESWOMEN. EMPLOYERS SHOULD BE MORE CONSIDERATE. Interesting Statement by a Young Lady in Brooklyn. In the vast retail establishments of large cities, many women are employed as saleswomen. Men formerly held the positions that women now hold, and while women's organization is less strong than men's they are expected to do the same work. Their duties compel them to be on their feet from morning to night, and many of them, in a short time, contract these distressing complaints called "female diseases." Then occur irregularities, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, indigestion, leucorrhoea, general debility and nervous prostration. They are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. The following is a sample: "My dear Mrs. Pinkham:--After writing you, and before your answer came, I was too miserable to go to the store, and so lost my position. That was five weeks ago. I am now back again in my old place, and never felt so well in all my life. The bearing-down pains and whites have left me, and I am not a bit nervous or blue. Life looks brighter to me. I don't get tired, my temper is real sweet, and I could scream right out sometimes for joy. My Vegetable Compound is my stand-by. You don't know how thankful I am to you for saving me from suffering. Every woman in my position should know of your wonderful remedy. I never saw you, but I love you for being so good to me."--BURN--W. 6th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.
