MR. REED'S FRIENDS ARE DISCOURAGED

Acknowledge That McKinley Will Be Nominated on First Ballot.

JOSEPH MANLEY'S STATEMENT

Under No Circumstances Will the Man from Maine Accept the Nomination for Vice-President-The National Committee's First Session-Other Convention Notes.

St. Louis, June 10.—The friends of Major McKinley are in overwhelming control of the Republican national committee. This much was demonstrated at its meeting today, first in the adoption by a practically unanimous vote of Powell Clayton's resolution to hear the contest in committee of the whole...

Intense interest was manifested in the proceedings of the national committee which, for the first time in its history, admitted representatives of the press...

When the committee reconvened at 8:15 the contest on delegates at large from Florida and those in the third and fourth districts of California were made the political order for Thursday morning...

The very serious business of selecting a candidate for the highest office within the gift of seventy millions of people, is practically concluded. What follows will be the mere official recording of the votes and the shouting and the distinguished men who entered as competitors...

The atmosphere about the various state headquarters that was so strongly impregnated with silver yesterday had undergone a change. It is not difficult to analyze this transmutation of metals...

AN APPEAL FOR SILVER. The California, Utah, Nevada and other western delegations have not abandoned the fight and are preparing a silver resolution to be presented to the committee on platform...

The magnificent auditorium in which the Republican convention will be held was formally dedicated with enthusiastic ceremonies tonight. The interior of the building was brilliantly illuminated for the occasion and a crowd of over 10,000 persons was in attendance...

Manager Henry C. Lewis, of the Southern hotel, was appealed to and after a hasty consultation a number of hotel proprietors the following statement was given out: To the National Republican Committee: In regard to the accommodations for the colored delegates to the Republican convention...

Indian Territory Alone Fails to Respond to Bull Case. St. Louis, June 10.—The first session of the national committee lasted less than an hour. Chairman Carter called the members to order at 12:16. Secretary Manley called the roll and Indian Territory alone failed to respond.

LAST DAYS OF THE 54TH CONGRESS

Business of the First Session Practically Completed Yesterday.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED

House Votes to Concur with Senate in Its Amendments to the Sundry Civil Service Bill—Measures Passed in Senate—An Adjournment Today.

Washington, June 10.—Business of the first session of the fifty-fourth congress was practically completed by the agreement of the two bodies upon the sundry civil and District of Columbia appropriation bills—the only remaining matters of difference between the two houses when they met this morning...

St. Louis, June 10.—The friends of Speaker Reed have given up the fight. When the national committee took a recess at 8 o'clock this evening the Hon. Joseph Manley, of Maine, dictated the following to the representative of the United Press and revised it before transmission:

"In my judgment the convention will nominate Governor McKinley on the first ballot for the presidency. It is useless to attempt to deny that this will be the result. The action of the national committee in its overwhelming vote on the Alabama case, settles conclusively how the respective states represent will vote in the convention. Mr. Reed's name will be presented to the convention and he will be voted for, and I am authorized to say that under no condition or circumstances can he, or I, accept the nomination for vice president if it should be tendered to him. The great majority of the New England delegates will be loyal to Mr. Reed, but it is evident that the convention is for Governor McKinley and will nominate him."

Philadelphia, June 10.—Another and final information for endorsement will be made against William S. Moreland and W. H. House, ex-city attorney and his assistant, tomorrow by order of the district attorney. The amount to be named in the information is to be $2,000 and upward. This, with the $10,000 already sued on, covers the shortage in the accounts of the office during the last four years.
