THREE NEGROES LYNCHED.

in Their Own Hands. Houston, Tex., June 11.-Louis Whitehead, George Johnson and Jim Reddick. three negroes, were taken from the fall at Bryan, one hundred miles north of here, last night and hanged. Whitehead and Johnson were charged with attempting to criminally assault the twelve-year-old daughter of Dr. R. H. Wilson, Sunday night. Reddick had been convicted of the crime of rape on an Italian girl and sentenced to hang, but the decision was reversed by the higher court and he was held awaiting a new trial. The doctor was absent at the time. The negroes broke into his medicine chest and got what they thought was chloroform, but which proved to be creosote and failed to produce the desired effect when put on the young girl's pillow.

The sheriff of the county was absent last night and Jailor Gee, who was in charge of the jall, was unprepared to resist the attack. He refused to deliver the keys, but the doors were battered down. The mob built a fire to furnish light to work by, which gave people the idea that the negroes were being burned. The mob was 300 strong and came from Kurten, nine miles wes of Bryan, where Dr. Wilson lives, and where the attempted assault occurred. The mob was composed of the most prominent citizens of Kurten, none of whom were masked.

at that interesting moment. As the vice-president uttered the last words and the gavel fell for the last time there was a faint outburst of applause, after which senators gathered in knots in the gisles and before the vice-president's desk, bidding each other good-bye. Then the senators on the floor and the visitors in the galleries melted away and the chamber that has been the scene of so many stirring incidents was left to the pages and attendants until the first Monday

THANKS FOR SPEAKER REED. The first session of the fifty-fourth congress gently and quietly, almost with-out incident, glided into history today at 4 o'clock, the shortest "long" session of congress, with two exceptions, in the history of the government. There was marked difference between the close today and that of the fifty-first congress, the last previous Republican ongress. Then a bitter conflict raged between Speaker Reed and the minorresolution thanking Speaker Reed for him go. The Riggs family, however, is the "ability, faithfulness and strict of the opinion that the boy was trying impartiality" with which he had dissume new experiment; that he was procharged the duties of his difficiult position; and, at the suggestion of Mr. Dockery, and other Democrats, there was a rising vote that the expression it slipped. of heartiness back of the resolution might thereby be emphasized.

In his closing remarks Speaker Reed offered his grateful recognition for the honor, saying: "The thanks of the house of representatives is always a high honor, but is especially so at the end of a session where the speaker has been forced to say 'no' more times per-haps, than in the history of any other congress." In the course of the session number of private pension and relief bills were passed, and Representatives Pitney, (Rep., N. J.), Blue, (Rep., Kas.) and Dockery (Dem., Mo.) were appointed members on the part of the house of the commission to sit during the summer and investigate the charities of the District of Columbia.

HALF KILLED HER TEACHER.

A Girl Puts a Couple of Pins in the Professor's Chair. New York, June 11 .- Prof. Herman

Paul, teacher of German in the public schools at Fordham, West Farms and Tremont, is in a peculiar condition, the result, it is believed, of what was intended as a harmless joke by one of his favorite pupils. Last Friday afternoon Gertie Reynolds, 15 years old, piaced two pins in the professor's chair, while he was absent from the room. When he returned the children of the class. numbering over,40, quietly awaited the farcical denouement. But when it came it assumed the form of a tracedy. The aged professor jumped from the chair with a scream. He ordered the girl from school and later, finding himwas dreven to his home. Almost immediately his legs began to swell, and expressed the fear that blood poisoning or lock jaw might result. For three and death, and while he is considerably line. Pittsburg, Pa., June 11 -- A bright young inventor of this place, Leander Riggs, is supposed to be the victim of a hypnotist, and is lying at the point of death, while his doctors are looking at each other in asionishment. Last night Doctors Gentry, Luther, Bachman and Dickson were called to the Riggs restdence, where they found the young man suffering in awful agony. A cin-inch incision was made in the stomach, and it disclosed a stick exactly eight and one-quarter inches in length, and about half an inch in diameter. How the stick got there is a mystery, and unless Rings shall recover sufficiently to test himself it will probably never be known. It is now on exhibition at Dr. Centry's Four-Year Course Adopted by the office, where many physicians called to-

Young Riggs is but 22 years of age, and for the last four years he has spent all his spare moments in a little workshop perfecting inventions. Two weeks ago he visited Cleveland and sold the invention of a new bottle to an Ohio fifm for $8,000. He then went to New York city to sell a new ice cream freezer attachment, and has about closed the deal. He is a country boy, and has never been more than one hundred miles from the Smoky City before this With the money gotten for his invention, he started to have a good time.' He stopped at Harrisburg, and among other things visited a hall and witnessed the work of a hypnotist, going under hypnotic influence himself.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bossler Is Supposed to Have Perished in Her Cabin.

Reading, Pa., June 11 .- The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Bossler, aged 70, east of Losport, this county, was burned early this morning. Mrs. Bossler is missing and it is supposed she perished in the flames. She lived alone, having moved there from this city last spring. The house in which she lived was a small log structure and owing to the smouldering ruins it was impossible to tell definitely whether the woman was In the house at the time or not.

The origin of the fire is a mystery. It is reported that Mrs. Bossler had a considera" 's amount of money and that she may make been murdered and the dwelling fired to conceal the crime. It is said a man called last night after 9 o'clock and asked for a cup of coffee which was refused owing to the late hour. Mrs. Bossler was last seen by her neighbors at 7 o'clock when she was working in her garden. The debria will be cleared away temorrow.
