LAW AND ORDER IN ARCHBAULD.

Edward Farr charged with Stealing a Box of Cigars. Edward Farr, of Archbald, was released from the county jail Thursday afternoon on bail. Squire Ghlen, of that burg, qualified as his bondsman. Farr was committed Sunday by Justice of the Peace McCormick, of Olyphant, on a warrant sworn out the day before by Martin Maglin, charging the defendant with larceny. Maglin alleged that Farr stole a box of cigars from him, and Farr alleges that he is innocent, that it is a trumped up charge to get even because he had four saloonkeepers arrested for selling liquor on Sunday.

THE JURY FOUND IN MRS. POTTER'S FAVOR

Verdict of $1,000 Against the Scranton Traction Company.

SUIT OF MRS. LYNCH IN JURY'S HANDS

Verdict for the Defendant in the Replevin Suit of Howley Against Luce. Frank Hannis Recovered a Verdict Against Dr. William Haggerty. Case of Pottsville Iron and Steel Co. Against John A. Mears.

In the trespass suit of Mrs. L. I. Potter against the Scranton Traction Company a verdict in her favor was yesterday rendered in the sum of $1,000. Mrs. Potter lives in Green Ridge and two years ago she was on her way home one evening on a Green Ridge People's car, which jumped the track on Capone avenue at Third street. She was thrown to the street and her head struck the sidewalk, producing concussion of the brain. Her attorneys were S. B. Price and J. W. Browning.

The jury in the replevin suit of John J. Howley against John S. Luce and the Scranton Traction Company brought in a verdict in favor of the defendants and allowed them damages in the sum of $12.33 in one case and $53.83 in the other. This money was to indemnify the defendants for the loss the jury thought they sustained by virtue of Mr. Howley's seizure of the machinery and holding it in restraint until the ownership was decided. Judge Gunster charged the jury in the trespass suit of Mrs. Mary Lynch, of Parker street, against the Scranton Traction Company and they retired at 4 o'clock to deliberate upon a verdict. She was stopping from a North End car at the Marvle crossing and the motorman put on the power before she had stepped off, precipitating her heavily to the ground and causing the fourth rib on the left side to be broken, the result of which has left her a sufferer since from intercostal neuralgia.

APPEAL OF FRANK HANNIS.

The appeal suit of Frank Hannis against Dr. William Haggerty was tried before Judge Archbald. Attorney Richard Husted represented the plaintiff and Attorney E. C. Newcomb appeared for the defendant. The suit was based on an agreement claimed by Hannis to have been made with the doctor that the latter would sell one of his horses for $200 and any amount above that figure which the former could get would be his own. Hannis sold the animal for $250. The doctor said he never offered the plaintiff a cent, for the reason that the plaintiff was acting as an agent of the man who purchased the horse. The jury found a verdict for Hannis in the sum of $25.00.

The next case called before Judge Archbald was the suit of William Atkins and S. B. Belcone, receivers of the Pottsville Iron and Steel Co., against John A. Mears, Attorneys George M. Rhodes, of Pottsville, and S. B. Price, of this city, represent the plaintiff and Attorneys J. Alton Davis and Major Everett Warren the defendant. The case would take the greater part of next week, and as there is a big criminal trial list on next week in quarter sessions court, a juror was with drawn and the case set for the September term, and the court will order it at the head of the list for one of the weeks of that term.

THE PLAINTIFF'S EVIDENCE.

Evidence for the plaintiff had been taken, however, from the opening of the case before noon until adjournment. Mr. Mears let to the Pottsville company the contract for the steel work on the Mears building. According to the contract Mr. Mears was to pay $5,000 as soon as the work was finished as far as the floor of the second story. When the company asked for the money he refused to pay it, stating that nothing was done right in the work. The company then stopped and the defendant set another contractor to work after a certain day. The contract was a mechanic's lien of $14,577.31 for work done, labor performed and materials furnished. The dispute was submitted to Attorneys C. S. Woodruff, T. J. Duggan and B. F. Akerly, as a board of arbitration and on Sept. 6, 1895, after hearing all the evidence they awarded $8,888.87 in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant took an appeal to court. Only a small part of the plaintiff's evidence had been heard when the case was marked down in the to-be-concluded column.

WON A BIG LAWSUIT.

Verdict of $85,000 in Favor of Franklin Howell in New York City. Franklin Howell, of this city, Thursday secured a verdict of $85,000 in the supreme court of New York, against the old banking firm of A. W. Dimock & Co.

The suit was brought on a promissory note for $5,000 made in 1854, by the Merchants and Mechanics bank of Scranton, being the original holder. The collateral was $60,000 par stock of the Bankers and Merchants Telegraph company, which when sold brought but $2,800. The action was to receive the balance with interest. Dimock & Co. were at one time prominent brokers and bankers, but failed for over a million dollars about the time the note was made. The defence was the statute of limitations and the allegation that the complainant did not use good judgment in disposing of the stock, which would have realized a much larger sum had it been disposed of earlier.

All who heard Miss Wheelock when she was here four years ago will only be too glad to have an opportunity of listening to her inspiring words. These exercises were first appointed to be held in the Albright Memorial Hall, but it was found to be too small to accommodate the number who have manifested a desire to be present. All interested in this good work are most cordially invited.

TROUBLE WITH THEIR PASTOR.

Congregation of South Side Polish Catholic Church to Meet Tonight. There is trouble brewing in the congregation of the Polish Catholic church of the South Side which has caused a call to be issued for a meeting tonight in Michaelowski's hall, at Patton avenue and Elm street, to protest against certain actions of the pastor, Rev. Richard Aust. The immediate cause of the present difficulty is the proposition on the part of the pastor to purchase additional land for the cemetery at Minooka and have the congregation pay for it as a congregation. The plot of ground now used as a cemetery was purchased in that way, but those who wanted to bury friends or relatives in it had to buy lots before they could do so. This, they claim, was virtually making them pay twice for a place to bury their dead and they object to any similar arrangement in connection with an addition to the cemetery.

At the meeting tonight it is the intention to object to the purchase of the land and to ask the pastor to furnish a statement of the financial condition of the parish. In the event of his refusal to do so, Bishop O'Hara will be appealed to. Circulars in Polish were printed for circulation among the members of the congregation advertising the meeting, but a large number of them, it is said, fell into the hands of friends of the pastor and they were destroyed. No other dodgers were printed and distributed. Those best acquainted with the condition of affairs in the congregation predict a very lively meeting tonight.

STEWART EYCK'S EXPERIENCE.

Robbed in the House Where His Child is Indentured. Stewart Eyck, of Wilkes-Barre, came to the city Thursday to buy a suit of clothes for his seven-year-old boy who is being raised by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kittle, of 229 South Washington avenue. He spent the night at Kittle's house, the greater part of it in drinking beer, and the wee sma' hours in sleeping off the effects of the drinking, stretched out on the floor of a dining room. In the morning when he awoke he found that $12 had been removed from his pocket-book, which left him but seventy cents to fight the battles of the world with until next pay day. He wanted his $12 and called on alderman Miller to help him recover it. Mr. and Mrs. Kittle, James Setzger and Mary De Puy, the inmates of the house, were arraigned and questioned, and after a searching inquiry the alderman came to the conclusion that the two women knew more about the theft than anybody else. Accordingly he held them for court, each being required to furnish $200 bail, which they did.

During the progress of the hearing it developed that Setzger and the De Puy girl were living together without the consent or knowledge of the common-law wife and as an other commissioned to uphold the dignity and authority of the aforesaid commonwealth, the alderman held Setzger to bail in $500 for his appearance at court. He could not get a bondsman and had to go to jail.

HAVE RETURNED FROM CONVENTION

Members of A. O. H. Jubilant Over Securing the Next State Convention.

WILL BE HELD HERE IN JUNE, 1896

State Body Only Meets Every Second Year--Effort to Secure a Union of the Two Bodies--Scrantonians Figured Prominently in the Proceeding of the Convention--McAndrew's Good Showing.

Senator J. C. Vaughan, City Assessor William Dawson, Anthony McAndrew, William McAndrew, Attorney C. C. Donovan, W. J. Burke, of Minooka, John J. Neary, James F. Neary, Attorney D. J. Reedy, John F. Granahan, James Grieg, Patrick Coyne, W. T. Cronin and M. J. Kelly returned yesterday afternoon from Williamsport, where they attended the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of America. They report that the convention was most interesting and that they were royally treated by the people of Williamsport. The members of the delegation from this city were quite jubilant over the fact that they succeeded in getting the next state convention of the order for Scranton. It will meet in this city on the second Tuesday of June, 1896; the state convention is held only every second year.

At the Williamsport convention there were 336 delegates representing 242 divisions of the order, having a total membership of over 20,000. A resolution was adopted authorizing the president to name a committee of five to confer with a similar committee from the Board of Erin with reference to securing a union of the two branches of the order. The resolution set forth that if any reason existed in the past for keeping the two branches separated that now exists today, it may be that the convention of 1895 in Scranton will have the distinction of ratifying the action of this committee in cementing a bond of union between the two branches.

Scrantonians played a prominent part in the convention. Anthony McAndrew was defeated by only one vote on the second ballot for the office of state treasurer. Addresses were delivered before the convention by Judge P. P. Smith, of this city, and Rev. P. J. Golden, a former resident of Scranton, now stationed at Williamsport, and Editor Nell McTigue, of the Diocesan Record, was chairman of the committee of resolutions. Attorney D. J. Reedy made an address which captured the convention in nominating Scranton as the place for holding the next convention.

HOW IT ALL OCCURRED.

Attorney C. H. Soper Explains the Accident Which Befell Him. Attorney C. H. Soper, who was found lying beside his broken bicycle at the corner of Penn avenue and Olive street, Thursday night, recovered consciousness at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and was able to explain how the accident befell him. As he was wheeling home, he states, he encountered a dray and car passing and in trying to avoid the dray he steered so close to the sidewalk that the pedal struck the curb and threw him headforemost to the ground. Nobody noticed the accident and he remained where he was thrown until a street car came some time later, discovered him and had him cared for. Doctors O'Brien and Hand, who were called to attend him, report that no bones were broken, and outside of a few scratches and bruises and the effects of the shaking up, he shows no signs of his hard fall. Yesterday he was improved and after a day or so of rest will be able to be about again.

TOOK REVENGE ON A TOMBSTONE.

Another Chapter in the McKenna-McSherry Troubles. About a month ago O. F. McKenna and Dennis McSherry were doing business together as marble cutters on Adams avenue. Differences arose and they dissolved partnership. McKenna withdrew from the firm and attempted to withdraw some tools which he claimed were his private property. McSherry refused to give them up, whereupon McKenna one night broke into the tool house and made away with the tools, which he claimed as his own. McSherry had him arrested for larceny; he admitted taking the tools and was bound over to court to answer. Since that time there has been constant bickering between the two men and each accuses the other of wrong doing. Yesterday McSherry discovered that during the night some one had chiseled the inscription from a costly tombstone which stood in his stone yard and circumstances pointed to McKenna as the culprit. He had him arrested for malicious mischief. He was taken before Alderman Millar and bound over for a hearing at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when, it is expected, some very tall and lively swearing will take place.

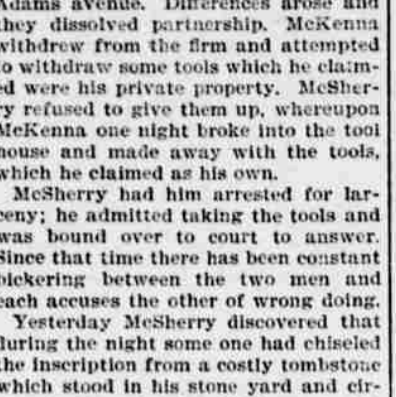

OPPOSED TO COTTON HOSE.

That is When Intended for Fire Department Use. Several councilmen with Selectman Manley, the most outspoken of them all, say they will fight the recommendation of the fire department committee that Hayward & Co.'s proposal to furnish 1,450 feet of cotton hose for $1,600 be accepted. They are not, they say, opposed to Hayward & Co. or to their price, but do not favor cotton hose, for the reason that the city has no facilities for drying it, which is necessary to preserve headforemost to the ground. Nobody noticed the accident and he remained where he was thrown until a street car came some time later, discovered him and had him cared for. Doctors O'Brien and Hand, who were called to attend him, report that no bones were broken, and outside of a few scratches and bruises and the effects of the shaking up, he shows no signs of his hard fall. Yesterday he was improved and after a day or so of rest will be able to be about again.
