ed to the express leaving at 1.49, and as it pulled out of the station, gayly decorated with bunting and flags, a large assemblage on the platform, including many prominent Republicans and the lady members of the delegates' families, waved an adieu which was answered from the car platforms and windows by the waving of hands and handkerchiefs.

E. G. COURSEN. IN THE CHURCHES

CHILDREN'S DAY

Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians Will Observe It Tomorrow.

SPECIAL EXERCISES OR SERVICES

Many of the Sabbath Schools Have Arranged Elaborate Programmes. Some of the Pastors Are to Preach Special Sermons in the Evening. Baptism of Infants.

Tomorrow is the day designated as Children's Day in many of the churches of the city. The many exercises or services and the hours for holding them vary, except in that they will not take place in the evening, though special sermons will be preached in the evening in several churches.

In the First Presbyterian church there will be a union service of Sunday school and congregation beginning at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon. Addresses will be made by the pastor, Rev. Dr. James McLeod and Superintendent A. W. Dickson, of the school. There will be no service in the evening.

At the Second Presbyterian church the exercises will begin in the morning 8 p. m. in Buffalo, where their car was switched off to the Lake Shore tracks, by at 10:30 o'clock when the church quartette, chorus, the Choral society and the children's chorus will sing a cantata "Under the Palms." There will be no evening church service, but at 6.30 o'clock at the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting the chorus and the quartette wil assist in a song service conducted by Professor J. M. Chance.

At the Penn Avenue Baptist church the Bible society will conduct children's day exercises at 2 o'clock in the audience room. An interesting programme has been arranged.

WEST SIDE CHURCHES. In many of the West Side churches children's day will be observed. At the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church the services will be held in the morning Frank Penman, Benjamin Hughes and at 10 o'clock. Superintendent of the Sunday School George L. Peck will preside. The children of the Sunday school will participate in the exercises. A feature of the service will be the baptism of infants. In the evening the pastor, Rev. J. B. Sweet, will begin a series of talks to young people.

There will be no special exercises at either the Weish Calvinistic Methodist church or at the Plymouth Congregational church. St. David's Episcopal, also, will not hold their special services tomorrow. At the First Welsh Congregational church, Rev. D. Jones, pastor, the exercises will be in the evening. "The Young Pilgrim" is the subject of the exercises. Mrs. George W. Powell and William Reese have instructed the Sunday school children for the service. D. D. Evans is school superintendent. The First Welsh Baptist church will not observe a special service, and the same is true of the Tabernacle church. The Scranton street Baptist church will hold its exercises in the morning beginning at 10.30 o'clock. The children of the Sunday school will participate under the guidance of Superin-tendent B. G. Beddoe. The morning programme at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will be as follows: Organ Voluntary.......Prof. Davis Selection, "To Scenes of Joy"......Choir is proven to be a failure. Marriage Assistant Superintendent C W Lat Selection, "Marching On to Zion," Recitation, "Our Baby" .... ... Bessie Sloat

Ministration of Baptism to Infants Solo and Chorus, "We Are Volunteers," Address ...... Superintendent G. L. Peck

IN OTHER CHURCHES. At the Jackson Street Baptists church the exercises will begin at 2 o'clock There will be special singing conducted by the Sunday Schol chorister, Richard Nichols. Superintendent G. W. Phillips will preside. At the Hampton Street Methodist church the service which begins at 10 o'clock will include the baptism of infants. At the Asbury Methodist church, which has been handsomely decorated, the special service will take place in the morning, when an attractive programme will be rendered by the Sunday school The pastor, Rev. A. F. Chaffee, will preach a sermon to the children in the evening on "Killing Giants."

There will be no Children's day observance at the Green Ridge Presby-

At the Puritan Congregational church on West Market street there will be special services in the morning and beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Poverty and Despondency Reduces Her to a Condition That Almost Passes Belief -- Furniture in Her House Burned by Order of the Poor Authorities -- She Is the Mother of Between the Academy of Music and the Frothingham. Special rates made to theatrical people and jurors. Rates $1.00 to $2.00 per day. Bird & Flanaghan. Props., 229 Wyoming ave, Scranton, Pa.

The lowest depth of degradation can be no lower than the astounding condition of a Taylor woman, who, with three small children, was Thursday afternoon forcibly taken from her miserable hovel, near the Taylor breaker, and driven to the Ransom poor house. Her name is Mrs. Thomas Harris and she is a widow, her husband having died three years ago. Since his death she has fairly reveled in filth. The three children are all under fourteen years of age and the family's only support was from the earnings of the oldest boy, who worked as a slate picker in a Taylor breaker.

Three years ago Mrs. Harris was a respectable, industrious woman, but poverty and despondency fed upon her mind so that at each succeeding month she became more and more careless in living until finally she gave up hope and allowed herself to go down to the deepest dregs of human existence.

DESERTED BY NEIGHBORS. She lived in a little, black house near the Taylorville woods and the spot was shunned by every resident of the neighborhood. No sympathetic hand was extended to her; no one seemed to care what she did or where she went. The world began to despise her. The earnings of the boy barely paid the rent.

Then he was thrown out of employment and seek as he would he could get nothing to do. This was the final stroke. For some days Mrs. Haris was not seen by the neighbors. They made inquiries and discovered her condition to be close to a horrible death. Poor Director Ira Atherton, of Pittston poor district, Lackawanna township, was asked to investigate the case. He did so three weeks ago and left orders with the men of the neighborhood to enter the house and overhaul the premises. GAVE HER A SCRUBBING.

No one cared to undertake the job, however, and when Mr. Atherton again claimed the place Thursday he found an even worse condition. Summoning several of the women and men of the neighborhood the poor director entered the house. The sight that met their gaze defies description. The woman fairly reeked with disease and dirt. She was dragged from bed where she had lain for an unknown time and was made to bear a thorough scrubbing and cleaning. Her only remark when told she must go to the poor farm was: "Must I work?"

She was told "yes." Then she ob jected, but, despite continued struggling, she, with her children, was taken in a wagon over the hills to the poor house. There she is now. The hous furniture was taken out and burned in a heap. It would not stand cleaning.
