A Challenge.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir—In these hot summer days there are a great many contests of physical skill and endurance, but no oral or mental contests. Why not for a change arrange for some public contests on the money question. If any free coinage silver advocate or single gold standard advocate wants to try his mettle we will oppose him.

Church Avenue Obstruction.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir—It is strange that Street Commissioner Kinley does not do something in regard to those large stones that have been left in the road on Church avenue, of which he has been notified as being dangerous to vehicles as well as a public eye sore. Evidently he is looking for obstructions more dangerous, such as advertising hand bills, etc.

THESE, IT IS SAID, FASHION THE WORLD

Kindergartners Commencement at Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

ADDRESS BY MISS LUCY WHEELOCK

Judge Hand Presents Diplomas to Nine Graduates and Ten Past Graduates—Names of the Members of the Two Classes—Large and Fashionable Audience Attends the Exercises.

The commencement exercises of the Scranton Training school for kindergartners took place last night at Y. M. C. A. hall. There was a large and fashionable audience present, composed mainly of the relatives and friends of the graduates and the members of the kindergarten association.

A bank of laurels and ferns surmounted by a portrait of Froebel, the founder of the kindergarten system, formed the background of the stage. Just in front of it sat Hon. Alfred Hand, Rev. C. M. Giffin, D. D., of Elm Park church; Rev. Rogers Israel, rector of St. Luke's; Katherine Hall Clarke, principal of the Scranton school, and Miss Lucy Wheelock, the well known kindergarten worker four years ago came here to organize the first training class. The graduating class, numbering ten young ladies, sat on either side of the stage and the past graduates, nine in number, occupied chairs immediately in front of and facing the stage.

Rev. Dr. Giffin opened the exercises with an invocation, which was followed with a vocal selection, a pretty lullaby, by a quartette composed of Messrs. Croft, Runyon, Holcomb and Dryer. Judge Hand then introduced Miss Wheelock, who delivered the address to the graduates. She characterized education as a process of world making and after showing, by clever arguments and illustrations, that the world is to each of us just what we are capable of making it, she deduced the individualism that inasmuch as we are educated just so much are we able to appreciate the world. The significance of the kindergarten wherein are set to work the first influences in the fabricating of this individual world was forcibly argued along the line "As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined." Her message to the graduates was a charge that they realize that the teachers of the little children of the present shall determine what the twentieth century shall be.

THE DIPLOMAS PRESENTED.

After a serenade by the quartette, Judge Hand, in the absence of the president of the association, A. D. Holland, who is ill, presented the diplomas first to the graduates and then to the past-graduates, saying a timely and practical word to each.

Past-graduates—Minnie E. Cowar, Maude Fisher, Margaret de Torrence Gibbs, Elizabeth Hitchcock, Edith Kinsley Hull, Mary E. Hull, Lillian Morris, Gertrude Northup, Elizabeth Frances Rice, Fannie Davis Snover.

An appeal to the people to lend hearty encouragement to the kindergarten was made by Rev. Rogers Israel and then he brought the exercises to a close with a benediction.

BEFORE ALDERMAN MILLAR.

Three Hearings in the Eighth Ward Court Yesterday.

Edward Wendel, a South Washington avenue resident and a neighbor, Sam Visenberg, arraigned before Alderman Millar yesterday for libeling him. Mendel alleged that Visenberg circulated a story that he, the plaintiff, intended to skip out and that by reason of this story his business was injured. Visenberg was required to furnish $200 bail to answer at court.

When Special Officer Jack Tierney was placing Visenberg under arrest a young man named M. Spiegel made himself very officious, demanding to see the warrant and endeavoring to prevent his friend from being arrested. He very foolishly followed Tierney and his prisoner to the alderman's office, for once there he played a under arrest for interfering with an officer. After hearing Tierney's story the alderman fined Spiegel $10.

The hearing in the case of O. F. McKenna, charged by his former partner with defacing a tombstone at the marble yard on Adams avenue, took place yesterday afternoon. McKenna admitted the charge, explaining that he erased the inscription because he had a half interest in the stone and McKenna had no right to prepare it for sale. He was held in $500 bail to answer at court the charge of malicious mischief. Hon. John P. Quinnan represented the defendant and Hon. John P. Kelly the prosecutor.

ST. JOHN'S SOCIETY GETS IT.

Picnic on Oct. 10 Will Be Conducted by Pine Brook Society.

St. John's T. A. B. society, of Pine Brook, will have charge of the picnic in connection with the parade in Scranton on October 10 next, and M. J. O'Malley, of the same society, will be grand marshal of the parade. Delegates from the following societies met at Pine Brook Sunday afternoon: St. Aloysius, St. John's, St. Patrick's, St. Irene's, of the South Side; St. Peter's, of Bellevue; St. Paul's, St. Paul's Pioneer corps, St. Leo's Battalion, Father Mathew, of Hyde Park; St. John's, of Pine Brook, and Father Whitty's, of Providence.

Timothy McCoy was chosen chairman and T. W. Early was chosen secretary. No other society made opposition to the St. John's and it was granted to them unanimously. The picnic will be held probably at Laurel Hill park. Timothy Burke, chairman of the committee in charge of the excursion of St. John's society to Lake Ariel on August 8, desires the members of that committee to meet at the hall tomorrow night at 7:30.

THEY FANCED THE DOGS.

Went to the Barn of G. W. Dunn and Stole Them.

G. W. Dunn, the well-known Linden street blacksmith, who resides near Forest Hill, was yesterday the owner of eight fine St. Bernard pups five weeks old. The dogs were kept in a barn near his residence and were guarded by a bull dog. About 5:30 yesterday afternoon two young men visited the barn and stole the bull dog and three of the pups. The thieves were discovered by one Mr. Dunn's neighbors as they were disappearing over the hill near the oral school and headed up the valley.

The alarm was given and Mr. Dunn was sent for at once. Taking Constable Black with him, Mr. Dunn started up the valley in the direction of the thieves. Before starting he telegraphed to Mickey Moran, the Carbondale sleuth, to be on the watch for the fugitives. The young men are described as being about 18 years of age, wearing felt hats, dark clothes and base ball shoes.

One of the animals stolen, it is said, had but three legs.

SHE LEFT TWO WILLS.

This Action on the Part of Mrs. McLaughlin Promises to Produce Much Litigation—Caveat Filed.

Mrs. Ellen McLaughlin, wife of the late William McLaughlin, of Wilkes-Barre, died at the St. Charles hotel Saturday afternoon, and before her death she made two wills. Attorney S. J. Strauss, of Wilkes-Barre, called at the office of Register of Wills Hopkins yesterday and filed a caveat against any will dated later than June 8, 1896.

For over twenty years William McLaughlin kept a hotel in Wilkes-Barre and was quite prosperously situated. Miss Anna O'Malley, his wife's sister, lived with them since she was a small girl. She never had any children of her own. He died not very long ago and Mrs. and her sister lived in the hotel until recently, when the former disposed of the place and gave up business. They came to Scranton three or four weeks and lived for a time with relatives. This was not to their liking and on June 1 they took rooms at the St. Charles. Mrs. McLaughlin was in ill health and physical condition when they went to the hotel and she kept growing worse. On Monday, June 8, she made a will in favor of her sister.

A few years later other relatives induced her to make another will, and it is against this will that Attorney Strauss yesterday filed the caveat. The register is warned not to probate any will because the domicile of the decedent is in Wilkes-Barre, and claiming that her death in Scranton was while she was here on a temporary visit.

DEACON NICELY IN A BAD FIX.

His Arrest Follows a Refusal to Be Blackmailed.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 15.—Zachariah Nicely, a wealthy resident and a deacon in the Methodist church, was arrested here this morning on a grand jury warrant. He gave bond in the sum of $1,000. Nicely came to this county in 1869 from Lawrence county, Ohio, where he was married in 1849. A few weeks after marriage his wife abandoned him, going to Virginia. After coming to this county he was taken sick, and wrote for his wife, thinking she would come. Instead a letter came stating that she was dead.

He recovered and married Sarah Bales, who proved a good and devoted wife, and who assisted him in accumulating a nice fortune. This account to have reached Virginia parties, who, he says, recently wrote informing him that unless he would send them $1,200 they would expose him, stating that his first wife was living, which is true. Nicely refused to do this and his arrest is the result.

GIFT TO THE VOLUNTEERS.

Mrs. Daly Gives Ballington Booth $10,000 Worth of Real Estate.

Chicago, June 15.—Mrs. Julia C. Daly has given to Commander Ballington Booth of the Volunteers of America real estate valued at $10,000, to be held in whatever way he thinks best. Although the property was given to the army without restrictions, Commander Booth will allow the local companies to reap the benefit of the gift. He has already turned over to Colonel Fielding the deed to the property, and the management of the property will be left entirely to him.

The donation consists of two lots at Monroe street and Homan avenue, and Colonel Fielding is considering the advisability of exchanging them for a site in Madison street, on which will be built commodious barracks. If this plan is not carried out the property may be sold and the money devoted to the development of the army in the city.

CRIMINAL COURT IS IN SESSION

Three Thieves Who Admitted Their Guilt Will Be Sentenced Saturday.

EIGHTEEN CASES DISPOSED OF

John Beane was sentenced to jail for six months for stealing $160. Bricklayer James Murlough tried for assaulting Constable Timothy Jones—The Graves-Newton Shooting Case was Called Yesterday.

June quarter sessions court began yesterday with Judge Edwards on the bench in the main room and Judge Archibald in No. 2. Marshall Goodwin, colored, was called for trial on a charge of stealing a quantity of silverware from the Faurot house and he pleaded guilty. John Barrett, the young man who was caught burglarizing F. T. Burger's saloon on Wyoming avenue, where George Kinback used to keep, acknowledged his guilt. Frank Hazard, who was taken back from Havre de Grace, Md., to which place he fled after stealing a horse from Liverman William Prall, of the North End, also pleaded guilty. These will be sentenced Saturday.

John Beane, a young fellow not yet 20 years old, was arraigned on the charge of stealing $160 from Anthony Curran, of the North End. The defendant admitted his guilt. Judge Edwards questioned him concerning the circumstances of the crime and it developed that there was strong suspicion that Curran, the prosecutor, knew a speakeasy. In sentencing Beane the court stated that it was too bad that Curran was not in position to be sentenced to jail for running an unlicensed grog shop. Beane said he was in the habit of frequenting the house and often drank beer and whiskey there. The money was stolen from the pantsloons of Curran, which were hanging on the wall in his bedroom.

AN EPISODE OF KELLEY'S PATCH.

James Murlough and William Newey were tried before Judge Edwards for assault and battery upon a public officer. Murlough was also charged with obstructing the execution of a legal process. District attorney John R. Jones conducted the case for the commonwealth and Attorney M. A. McKinley appeared for the defendants. The case went to the jury at 3 o'clock, but a verdict was not in at adjournment.

On May 21 last, Constable Timothy Jones, of the Fifteenth ward, went to Kelly's Patch, where Murlough lives, with a warrant for his arrest, sworn out by J. D. Eastman, who alleged that Murlough threatened to cut out his liver. The constable found his man and Newey refreshing themselves from a bucket of beer, and when he read the warrant they assaulted him. Constable Jones got assistance and brought the bellows men to the West Side station house. In charging the jury Judge Edwards said that if the evidence of the commonwealth was believed the defendants were guilty and ought to be convicted to teach a lesson to those with proclivities for interfering with the execution of legal processes.

Leon Matarninsky was called to stand trial for wronging Little Pearl Johns, a 17-year-old girl, daughter of a farmer for whom he worked in Fell township. The defendant is 30 years old. As he has made reparation by marrying the girl a verdict of not guilty was taken and the costs were placed on the county.

TWO OLD FORGE SHAMROCKS.

John and Herman Shamrock, brothers, of Old Forge, were tried in No. 2 on the charge of stealing a barrel of beer, some whiskey and wine from Max Rosenbluth. Attorney John J. Murphy was assigned by the court to defend them as they had no counsel. One night about a month ago a young fellow named Congrove drove up to their house with a wheelbarrow and persuaded John to get out of bed and accompany him to Jermyn No. 2 shaft, where the boys had a barrel of beer. They put the beer in the barrow and wheeled it to Shamrock's coal shed, and had a feast that night and the next morning. Herman helped them to drink it, but did not know it was stolen. He was acquitted, and although John protested that he did not know it was stolen, he was convicted and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and spend two months in the county jail.

Marion Menzies was tried for pointing a pistol at Constable Roach, of Seventh ward. The defendant is an Italian and lives with his wife in Raymond court. Mr. Roach went one night recently to his house with a warrant and was met at the door by the man's wife. He pushed in the door and she screamed, which brought her husband to her rescue with a revolver. The constable showed his star and immediately the Italian dropped his shooting iron. He testified that he thought the constable was a bum, forcing his way into the house, until he learned he was an officer of the law. Judge Archibald directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty and put the costs on the county.

TRIED FOR TILL TAPPING.

Frederick Kuhlman was tried, charged with tapping the till of Mabey's saloon on North Main avenue, West Side, a month ago. He had no counsel and Judge Archibald assigned Attorney John J. Murphy to defend him. The evidence of the prosecution was to the effect that small sums of money were from time to time missed from the money drawer and a trap was laid to catch the thief. Kuhlman was caught behind the bar, the money drawer was open, but no money was missing from it, and none was found in the possession of the young man. The defense was that the proprietor went out for a few minutes and requested Kuhlman to tend bar if any one came in, and that in pursuance of this request he was behind the bar.

William Palmer, of Dunmore, was tried for assault and battery upon his mother. He had no lawyer nor didn't want any, excepting that his mother would not prosecute him. On May 4 last when she refused to give him a dime to buy beer he threw a pitcher at her, knocked her down on the floor and thumped her. He offered no defense and was convicted. Judge Archibald sentenced him to spend 45 days in jail, the period to date from May 4. He was committed on the same day he beat her and has been in jail since in default of bail.

GRAVES-NEWTON CASE.

W. H. Graves was called for trial before Judge Edwards on the charges, felonious wounding and discharging firearms with intent to kill. The cases are the result of the defendant's attempt to kill Dr. James R. Newton a few months ago.

Attorney John F. Scragg, who represents the defendant, was engaged in a case in No. 2 and the Graves cases were put over until today.

Robert Davis, of "Drug Store" fame, was a defendant on yesterday's list under two charges, pointing a pistol and carrying concealed weapons. He flourished a revolver in a man's face in a hotel on Penn avenue two months ago. District Attorney Jones informed the court that Davis is confined to bed in the Moses Taylor hospital, suffering from kidney disease, and the cases were thereupon marked continued until the next term of court.

THEY WANT TO HOLD THE REINS

Parishoners of Rev. Father Aust Held a Meeting Saturday Night.

The meeting of the members of the Sacred Heart Polish congregation of the South Side who object to Rev. Richard A. Aust's way of managing the finances of the parish, was 500 strong at Michaelowski's hall, Pittston avenue and Elm street, Saturday night. The system of levying money is as follows: Each male over 21 years of age must pay $5 a day and $5 additional for pew rent. Those who do not pay pew rent must, when they come to church, pay 10 cents. Collections are taken up at Christmas and Easter. Figuring at a conservative estimate they calculate that the annual revenue of the parish is at least $15,000.

Ten days ago Rev. Father Aust purchased one and one-quarter acres of land adjoining the Polish cemetery to be used also for cemetery purposes. The price paid was $1,200. The objectors think that the pastor should have a large amount of money on hand which was derived from the graves sold at $1 apiece in the old cemetery, but they allege that he told them he has none of it. They propose to pay him a salary, and pay the expenses of the church and parochial school.

At the meeting the following officers were chosen: President, Joseph Netez; vice-president, Mathias Sufka; secretary, Leon Kuchinski; assistant secretary, Stanley Rumovitch; treasurer, Martin Rabega; executive committee, Martin Woyshner, Lawrence Olechka, John Pikulski, John Zaskulski, John Nawrocki, Ladislav Shter and Stanley Zelinski. The executive committee was instructed to wait upon Rev. Father Aust and made known to him that the congregation proposed to manage the business affairs of the parish. He would not accept their proposition.

A committee consisting of Joseph Netez, Martin Rabega, Albert Dyer, Mathias Sufka and Ladislav Shter waited upon Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hada last evening and made a complaint that there is now and has been for several years a debt of over $5,000 against the parish, and that although the annual revenue amounts to about $15,000 and the expenses are much less than half that, yet not one cent has been applied to the reduction of the debt. They asked that their pastor be ordered to give an account of where the money

Will Be Shown at the Frothingham in Conjunction with Vaudeville.

Edison's wonderful vitascope will be shown at the Frothingham all of next week, and in addition there will be a first-class vaudeville performance by some of the best artists in that line in the country.

This is what the New York Sun, on April 24, said of the vitascope: "Edison's vitascope, which made its debut at Koster & Bial's last night, is likely to make some inroads on his laurels. In plain English, the vitascope is an animated magic lantern. The figures thrown on the screen move, dance and walk like ordinary human beings. The ocean waves view made the greatest hit, however. It showed the waves rolling in upon the beach with such realism that all the baldheaded men in the front row ducked their heads instinctively to keep them from getting wet."
