A strawberry social and entertainment will be given tonight at the Young Women's Christian association rooms.

A strawberry and ice cream festival will be held this evening at Excelsior hall for the benefit of the Jewish Women's union. All are cordially invited. A well executed crayon portrait of the late Professor F. F. Kopff is on exhibition in the window of Siebecker & Watkins' store on Lackawanna avenue. It was done by Artist L. M. Davis, of New York. The Keystone Republican club met at the Central Republican club rooms last night and decided to run an excursion to Pine Grove on the line of the Ontario and Western road either on June 30 or July 1. The railway committee of select council will meet tonight to consider the Citizens will meet tonight to consider the Citizens allway ordinance. The judiciary committee with also hold a meeting to consider the advisability of making a trade of Third ward lots with school board.

Marriage licenses were yesterday grant-ed to Joseph E. L'onnelly and Agnes M. Gurrell, of Scranton': Michael McLane and Jennie T. Gilligan, of Dunmore; Nelson N. Nicholis and Lydia M. Perkins, of Clark's Summit; Patrick J. Moran and Loretta McDonough, of Scranton; Joseph Ka-gowski and Josephine Olchewska.

Yesterday James Myllarkey, of Pin Brook, appeared before Alderman Millar and swore out a warrant charging Pat-rick Tolan with getting drunk frequently and abusing Mullarkey and his wife by calling them vile names. Tolan was ar-rested and held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. After the hearing Tolan swore out a warrant for the arrest of a young son and daughter of the Mullarkeys charging them with assault and battery, the allegation being that they threw atones at Tolan. They were held to ball also.

SERIOUS OFFENSE CHARGED.

Hotel Jermyn Waiters Accused

Ruining Young Girls. Two of the colored waiters at Hotel Jermyn, George Graham and John Dupass, are accused of one of the most reprehensible crimes in the calendar, leading young girls estray. Graham has been arrested and is now in the county jail in default of $1,000 ball. The other has escaped.

Their victims are two young members of what is probably the most prowinent colored families in the city, one being sixteen years of age and the other about a year younger.

Last Friday night the two girls staid out all night and upon their return admitted enough of the truth to give their friends a clue upon which to unearth the whole story. An investigation showed that Graham and Dupass, who had met the girls before, made an appointment with them Friday night, induced them to drink and after robbing them of their senses took them to a house in Center street.

Both defendants are very flash colored men and have been cutting a wide swath in their circle since their arrival here, with their fellows from Florida a few months ago.

REV. THOMAS M. CANN HONORED.

Delaware College Confers the Degree of Doctor of Laws Upon Him. Rev. Thomas M. Cann, president of the School of the Lackawanna, last evening received the following tele-

Newark, Del., June 16.
Rev. Thomas M. Cann, Scranton, Pa.;
We made you a doctor of laws today.
Congratulations. A. N. Raub,
President Delaware College.

The institution that has so signally nonored Rev. Mr. Cann is the one from which he was graduated in 1842. He was the valedictorian of his class. Two years after his graduation he entered the Presbyterian ministry and has since devoted himself to ministerial and educational work. He was an instructor at Easton at Wilmington Del., and was president of the Frederick Female seminary at Frederick City, Md., which position he resigned to found the School of the Lackawanna in this city. He was one of those who in 1857 organized the National Teachers' association at Philadelphia and was its first treas-

Since he has been in this city Mr Cann has taken an active interest in religious work and did much to place the Y. M. C. A. in the high position it occuples today. For a long time while the Cedar avenue mission of the First Presbyterian church was struggling to obtain a place for itself he occupied its pulpit and lent great assistance in making it an important factor in the re-ligious life of the South Side.

As an educator he has been equally as successful, as the prominence enjoyed by the School of the Lackawanna

ITS TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Notable Event to Be Celebrated by Asbury M. E. Church.

Twenty years ago the Asbury Metholist Episcopal church of Green Ridge was organized, Rev. Wilson Treible being its first paster. From 1876 to 1882 it held its services in Good Templar's hall, on Monsey avenue, but as its needs have increased, and the society grown, it has built and enlarged until t now occupies a very pretty church on the corner of Monsey avenue and Dela-

This society has experienced phenomenal growth, in fact few in the Wyoming conference have grown so rapidly. It now proposes to celebrate the twentieth anniversary by a series of special services. The first will be an inniversary of its Sunday school which will be held in the audience room of the church Thursday evening. The following is the programme:

Conducted by the Ephphatha Guild of St. Luke's Church.

The second annual excursion of the Ephphatha Cuild of St. Luke's Episcopal church took place yesterday. The objective point was Farview.

About fifty deaf mutes from this city. Olyphant, Miner's Mills, Carbondale and Waymart participated in the pleasures that the trip afforded. Altogether about a hundred persons enjoyed the excursion Stevens of the Guild. The Scranton party left here on the 7.55 morning Delaware train. Special cars transported the company over the gravity road The excursionists returned to Scranton at 7.45 o'clock in the evening.

COULD NOT BE CALLED LIBEL.

Alderman Wright So Rules in the Gould-McAndrew Case.

Alderman Wright decided yesterday that the charge of libel against Harry Gould, of Moscow, was not sustained by the evidence and dismissed the case J. L. McAndrew, the prosecutor, tes-tifled that Gould had circulated the aleged libelous matter simply by word of mouth, and ruling that a matter to be libelous must be printed or written, the alderman discharged the defendant. The report which Gould is accused of circulating was to the effect that Mc-Andrew had secured a position as brakeman on the Delaware, Lackawan-

HOW CELEBRATION IS PROGRESSING

Committees of Fourth of July Pageant Make Reports.

DOZEN GOOD SOLICITORS NAMED

They Will Begin at Once the Process of Frying Fat to Get the Necessary Lubrication .- Militiamen Will Most Likely Be in Line -- Business Men Will Make Displays.

Another meeting of the executive committee of the Fourth of July celebration was held at Hotel Jermyn last night. There were present ex-Mayor John H. Fellows, S. T. Jones, James Connor, Captain J. C. O'Hara, George Winans, John Gibbons, Alex. Dunn, jr., Lt. Col. C. C. Mattes, Henry Heerman, R. J. Beamish and A. B. Dunning, secretary of the committee.

In the absence of the chairman, Mayor Bailey, Mr. Fellows was chosen to preside. Reports were received from the various committees and then new ousiness was taken up.

Secretary Dunning was instructed to send an official invitation to every society in the city to participate in the parade, and to publish a notice in the papers to the effect that all societies shall consider themselves invited whether or not they receive the official invitation, it being possible that some may be overlooked by the secretary. Mr. Dunning reported that he had sent out eight hundred invitations to merchants and manufacturers, inviting them to make trade displays, and that responses in every one of them being an acceptance. The following well-known citizens were named as a soliciting committee: L. J. Williams, J. D. Williams, A. Goldsmith, A. Dunn, jr., F. O. Megargee, Samuel Samter, A. F. Duffy, George F. Jacobus, P. J. Casey, M. P. Flynn, Frank Thompson and P. H. Coyne. COL. BOIES GRAND MARSHAL.

Colonel H. M. Boies was elected grand marshal of the parade, with power to appoint his aides and division marshals. Judson B. Woolsey was entrusted with the duty of marshaling a cavalcade. R. J. Beamish was put in charge of the newspaper advertising. Harry Heerman was appointed to assist Captain O'Hara in dealing with the civic soctcties and Joseph Jermyn was named as chairman of the committee on music in the place of Colonel Ripple, who had to decline because of his being called away from the city. The proposition of S. A. King to solicit advertising for the official programme was accepted. Lieutenant clonel Watre was delegated the chairmanship of the committee on military societies replied that he would use every effort to induce the members of the regiment to turn out but he fared that it would be no easy task. The Fourth of July is one of the holidays which the militiamen, like everybody else, look forward to as a day of recreation and they ar loth to give up the best portion of the day to what is to them a task.

It is possible, however, he thought that a good representation can be brought out and in that event the regiment will participate. The men cannot be ordered out on such an occasion but as they are generally as ready to obey the request as the command of their officers it is quite safe to expect that there will be a good sized turnout. WILL DISCUSS THE MATTER. There will be an officers school at the armory and the matter will then be discussed. After consulting with the officers on that occasion, Lieutenant Colwhich was arranged and conducted by onel Watres said he would be better able Mrs. H. H. Coston and Miss Nellie to give the committee a more definite the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly were the recipients of many tokens of friendship from their host of acquaintances.

They left on the 12.45 Jersey Central train for Newark, Washington and Philadelphia. Upon return they will reside at 1122 Luzerne street. Mr. Donnelly is of the Wheels They Were Riding. chief accountant for the Lackawanna Store association. His bride is popular in her circle of society. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Margaret Gurrell, police headquarters: Miss Mary Irving and Miss May Collins, of New York; Rev. John Healy, of Pleasant Mount. THEY REFUSE TO CONFIRM.

Police Committee Oppose Appointment of John Fitzsimmons.

Though the appointment of John Fitzsimmons to the police force carries with it no removal, being to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Taylor, the police committee refuses to confirm him.

Four of the committee met last night, Mr. McAndrew, the fifth member, being absent, and without discussion voted to recommend that the appointment be not confirmed. Mr. Finn, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Chittenden, who is serving on the committee in place of Mr. Lansing, who has gone to Europe, made the majority. Mr. Coyne cast the single favorable vote.

Whether or not a minority report will be submitted will not be known until Mr. Coyne can consult with his Democratic colleague on the committee, Mr. McAnirew. Mr. Finn said that if they decide to make a minority report he, as chairman of the committee, will agree to present it with the majority report.

The Republican members say that their action has no political significance and that they refuse to favor the appointment because they have been approached by prominent Democrats with the request that they would not make a favorable report.

In the light of this opposition to Fitzimmons from his own party they concluded to report unfavorably and leave the matter to councils to decide.

FUNERAL OF JOHN J. CUSICK.

Requiem Mass Celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral. From the home of his mother, Mrs. Owen Cusick, 428 Lackawanna avenue, the funeral of John J. Cusick took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains were conveyed to St. Peter's cathedral where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Thomas where Wilmot had left it before going W. Carmedy. Rev. J. A. O'Rellly was to jall. The sermon was of their capture was sent to Hallstead. preached by Rev. Father Carmody who took for his text the words, "He was taken away in his youth, lest his under standing be corrupted by the deceits of the world," From this the speaker drew a most interesting lesson which was couched in beautiful and sympathetic words.

After the services the remains were conveyed to Hyde Park Catholic ceme-Judge, John Gilmartin and William O'Malley. The flower bearers were Matthew Cawley, Eugene Schroeder, A. J. Duffy and John Dwyer. The funeral was very largely attended and numerous floral tributes were laid on the casket by friends of the young man.

WORE THE STOLEN JEWELRY.

Beerwith Brought His Own Condem nation Into the Hearing. Henry Beerwith, a waiter at the Co

A Telegram Had Preceded Them and While Traveling Along Providence Road They Were Arrested and Taken to Police Hendquar ers. Way They Explain Their Possession

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the following telegram was received at

Hallstead, Fa.,
Chief of Police, Scranton:
Two bleycles stolen from here last night.
Thieves just passed Clark's Summit. One of them named Wilmot. Riding them toward Scranton. Hold and advise.
Sidney Mack.

Immediately upon receipt of the telegram Chief Robling dispatched Detective Dyer and Clerk Simpson, the former on horseback, the latter mounted on his bicycle, with instructions to push up the Abington turnpike and meet the thieves.

As they were dashing along Providence road near the ball park, Simpson in the lead and Dyer galloping behind at a breakneck speed, they came across the two men pushing their wheels to ward the central city, one of them having punctured his tire. From their travel-stained appearance the officers readily recognized them as the men wanted. As Simpson was spinning past them one of the pair shouted, "Go it, young fellow; he's after you!" and then the wheelman and horseman wheeled about at almost the same instant and bore down upon them.

"Is your name Williams?" Simpson asked of the larger of the pair. "No, my name's not Williams; it's "Wilmot," suggested the officer, when the former hesitated. "Yes, it's Wilmot, and I'm not ashamed of it." "Well, you and your friend here are wanted at headquarters, so just push along ahead."

At the examination they gave their names as Clel and Arthur Wilmot and stated that they were brothers, hall-ing from Hallstead. They denied having stolen the wheels, but the younger brother, Arthur, admitted that the wheel he rode had been purchased for $11 from a man whom they had met or the road that morning. Clel says that he has owned his wheel since last fall While he was in jail at Montrose awaiting trial on the charge of stealing a buffalo robe a man in Hallstead who thought the wheel was one which had
