THE HOSPITAL VISITED.

Official Visitors Were Pleased with Management of the Institution. Cadwallader Biddle, of Philadelphia, and Dr. J. C. O'Neil, of Gettysburg, members of the state board of charities of which Mr. Biddle is secretary, were in this city yesterday, where they visited the several public charities of the city. They seem to be well pleased at the manner the hospital institutions are carried on. In the visit to the poor farm which was closely examined they expressed themselves as well satisfied at the work of the directors and Steward Cline. They seem to think, as do the directors, that new building should be erected.

Yesterday morning they surprised the management of Emergency hospital by making a visit there to inspect it. Although they had not given word of the contemplated visit they found everything in the best possible manner, and spoke highly of the discipline and government of the institution.

REFUSES TO RESIGN.

Mr. Passmore Does Not Think He Has Been Treated Right. The appointment of Joseph E. Brennan to inspect the construction of the Park street sewer has caused trouble which was not looked for at the time of the appointment.

It seems that John Passmore, of Park street, had been asked to overlook the work temporarily and he was on duty when the new inspector and Engineer Frick arrived yesterday morning. He was told by Mr. Frick of the appointment of Mr. Brennan, but he refused to leave. When he finally left he still kept in his possession the plans and specifications. He is now trying to convince the councilmen that they had no authority to appoint Brennan. He seems to think it is a slur on his ability to serve as inspector and will do everything possible to have the appointment recalled. He seems to have met with some success among the councilmen.

CONCERT POSTPONED.

Will Wait Until State League Matters Are Arranged. The entertainment which was to have taken place Friday evening for the benefit of the base ball team has been postponed until it is known what the State league will do. The disbanding of Eastern and York has disheartened the other teams somewhat, so it may result in the collapse of the State league.

The Carbondale directors do not wish the public to give their money for the support of a team if it is going to stop playing before the end of the season.

NO ALUMNI BANQUET.

The Affair Dropped Because of a Lack of Interest. The usual High school alumni banquet, which has taken place in the latter part of June of each year, will not be held this year, as the members of the alumni have taken so little interest in the affair that it could hardly be a success.

The various meetings held to consider the matter have brought out but few people and hence it was thought advisable to let the banquet go through this year.

Change of Conductors.

There has been quite a change in the conductors on the Delaware and Hudson railroad recently. Conductor Dave Robbins is running Conductor Chapman's train and Conductor Chapman has charge of the local freight. George Kelley is now on the 10 p. m. train north. Spencer Courtwright is running the Nineveh freight and Conductor Courtwright's south-bound car. Conductor Michael Gorman is on Conductor Robbins' north-bound train, and William Wagner is running Gorman's train.

A Map of Carbondale.

A resolution was presented to the select council by President Sargent to the effect that a map of the city be prepared by the city engineer. He stated that such a map had long been wanted. The property lines in many parts had been totally lost and it is now time that fixed lines be established. The want of a proper map has caused many errors in regard to the width of the street and it is high time something was done. The ordinance was referred to committee.

Mrs. Golden Buried.

The body of Mrs. Michael Golden was laid at rest yesterday morning at half-past nine. From the house the body was taken to St. Rose church, where Rev. W. A. Neaton celebrated a requiem mass. The body was then interred in St. Rose cemetery. The pall-bearers were Thomas Carey, Malcott Mannion, James Martin, A. F. Cooke, James Surdoyal and Thomas O'Neill.

Nausea, * Sea-Sickness.

Both due to an unnatural condition of the vital organs, caused by unwonted surroundings or excesses, either an unnecessary generation of the gastric juices or a partial suspension of the life-generating parts, in other words a state of mal-nutrition with its ever accompanying unpleasant sensations. For such a sickness get nourishment, take the weakest stomach retains it. It's a concentration into the least possible bulk of the vital elements of lean beef, it nourishes and starts every organ of the body on its normal duty with no apparent effort; this done, bad feelings vanish. Mr. J. A. Blackman, 123 E. 88th St., N. Y., writes: "Sailing from here last August for Europe, tried every antidote for sea-sickness, and I found yours the only successful one. On my return also used it when I suffered no ill effects at all."

Side, was visiting in Scranton Tuesday. Today Father Curran's parishioners will picnic at Farview. Arrangements have been made at Wilkes-Barre to run a very large crowd to the grounds. The trains will be divided into sections, the first one arriving here at 9.45. It is expected that many friends of Father Curran in this place, his old parish, will join his new parishioners in their day of pleasure. A fine band will furnish the music for dancing and will also give a concert on the grounds. An Irish violinist will furnish the dance music for the older people.

JERMYN. Daniel Griffiths, one of the pioneers of Jermyn, died at his home on Third street Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Deceased was in poor health for a number of years with lung trouble, which disease was the immediate cause of his death. He located here when the present site of Jermyn was a wilderness and has lived here continuously since. Deceased was born at Llanelly, Wales, in 1826 and came to this country in 1857, locating at Scranton. After a short residence at Scranton he moved to Olyphant and from Olyphant moved to Jermyn where he has resided since. He is survived by a large family, namely: Daniel and David Griffiths, of Waynesburg, Pa., and George Griffiths, of Carbondale; William, Gomer, Alfred, John and Walter Griffiths of this place; Mrs. Richard Evans, also of this place. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

W. E. Davis, of Mayfield, secured the contract for furnishing the silk hats for the members of Rushbrook lodge, No. 850, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which they decided to wear on all dress parties and other occasions. Bids were also put in by C. D. Winter & Co., Thomas Griffiths, Bell Store company and Fellows & Co., of Carbondale. The members are requested to call at the tailoring apartments of James Allan, where they may see the different grades of hats on exhibition, and give the grade wanted and size.

Today the picnic of the Sacred Heart church takes place at Electric park. Mayfield. The grounds are all in readiness and everything points to a good time for everybody.

TUNKHANNOCK.

The sheriff has held inquests upon the property of the late Henry Leigham, of Russell Hill, and Jane Shoemaker, of this borough, within the past few days. The heirs will be requested to come forward and take the property at the valuation, or show cause why it should not be sold.

Miss Mame Shook will represent the Christian Endeavor society at the international convention at Washington, D. C., July 8 to 13. Her mother will accompany her upon the trip.

A band of sycophants have squatted on the Leighton farm, east of town, and the women are paying the householders with requests to buy trinkets or "have you fortune told?" The men, as usual, are happy-go-lucky in doing nothing.

Work on the sewer trenches has not yet begun, but probably will be within a few days.

Theodore Streeter, who dotes on old coins and other bric-a-brac, has just added an eight-dollar Continental bill of the date of 1776 to his collection.

Prof. O. J. Moslock, of New Bloomfield, Pa., has been chosen principal of the borough schools, and L. T. Kennedy, of Lock Haven, assistant principal. Both men come well recommended and will doubtless fill the bill all right. The former will receive $1,200 per year, an advance of $200 over what has been paid heretofore. The school is to be regraded throughout and put on a still better basis than before.

WHY PEOPLE TALK. A Lemmon man became annoyed at his cow while attempting to milk her. He went into the house, loaded up his old musket, and fired seven loads of bird shot into her carcass. If she were buried in Wayne county, doubtless some enterprising prospector would locate her for a mineral claim.

A Putnam street family returned from church Sunday to find their house locked and the key mislaid. The lower windows were all fastened, but a young lady passing by volunteered to climb the porch, if given a boost, and go in through a chamber window and unlock the door from the inside. The expedition was successful, and she soon came tripping out through the front door. She inadvertently shut it behind her, however, and as the lock was a spring one, the operation had to be repeated.

Tunkhanock boasts of a young lady who runs a job printing office, setting her own type, running her own press, and managing her own business. She supports a family and is perhaps the only female job printer in the state.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Crawford, of Jermyn, spent Sunday with their parents here.

Colonel N. A. McKown has gone to Boston to attend the annual meeting of the Medal of Honor League. He obtained his medal as a reward for bravery in capturing a rebel flag at Fort Harrison. He was accompanied to the city of baked beans by his daughter, Addie, Miss Bertha Pope, Mrs. C. J. Reed and son Spencer.

Ruth C. Peck and Charles C. Hard, who are to be married at Kingston June 21.

Dr. Herbert L. McKown and Miss Elizabeth Hughes, who will be married at Pittston June 25.

HERE AND THERE. The ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance union will give a supper at the court house this evening, the proceeds of which will go to the relief of Mrs. Peter Eber, who is in destitute circumstances.

A local interest attaches to the suit of Mrs. Sarah Ann Angell, of New York, for a widow's dower in the state of the late Jay Gould, because of the fact that not only the minister who is alleged to have performed the marriage ceremony, and his daughter, who is said to have witnessed it, but also relatives of the wizard of Wall street live here. Rev. Nathan Leighton, whom Mrs. Angell says united her to Jay Gould at Champlain, N. Y., in 1853, is now living a retired life in the outskirts of town, and is 83 years of age. He is very much averse to notoriety, and on this account does not care to talk freely on the matter, but he acknowledged to the fact that he performed the ceremony, and his daughter, who is said to have witnessed it, but also relatives of the wizard of Wall street live here.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. Image of a tin of Royal Baking Powder.

A pencil shaver yesterday that the case against the Gould heirs could not be honorably settled without giving the plaintiff a share in the property, which was as much as saying that the marriage could be proven. His daughter, who is quoted as a witness to the marriage, has been totally blind for years, but is an intelligent, middle-aged lady. Jay was only seventeen when the case took place, and was probably a good deal more of a jay than he fancied himself to be.

Prof. W. M. Wood and Robert J. Bardwell will teach the Gravel Hill Independent district school again next year.

It cost $12,000 to lay the third rail on the Montrose road from Tunkhanock to Lake Carey. That is $1,500 per mile. Farmers up the river kick because their land is assessed the same now as when it was when it was worth twice as much money. Let them take a look at the administration and let them be thankful that it isn't assessed twice as much now as then.

Nelson Michael, a young unmarried man, is reported seriously ill at the home of Louis Felton, on West street.

The Fourth of July celebration committee engaged a couple of Trenton, N. J., aeronauts to make a balloon ascension on that day. In addition there will be bicycle races, ball games and the usual accompaniment of firecrackers and tin horn jubilation. It usually takes Tunkhanock about a month to get ready for a Fourth of July demonstration and three months to get over it.

OLYPHANT. The council room was packed to suffocation with interested citizens last evening. At the appointed hour all the members were present. The president called the meeting to order and instructed Secretary Schumbel to call the roll. At this point Councilman Curran arose and said that he would not recognize Mr. Schumbel as secretary, that he is not legally elected to the office. Mr. Gallagher also made similar objections. The secretary was requested for the second time to call the roll and was about to do so when the following six members left the council chambers: Gallagher, Curran, O'Halloran, Tinsley, Gannon and Keegan, leaving the council without a quorum, therefore no business could be transacted. The chairman declared the meeting adjourned.

A special meeting of the Club of '95 was held in its rooms Monday evening. The following officers were elected: President, Frank Farrell; vice president, R. S. Cuskey; recording secretary, Joseph Ferguson; financial secretary, James A. O'Malley; treasurer, John J. O'Malley.

This is another act in the drama of the borough council and is likely to be continued for some time as the case of the secretary has been set back to September.
